ALEXANDER R. PRATT AND DESCENDANTS

BY

Floyd Thomas Pratt, F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

© 2013

The author has compiled a 2-generation comprehensive descendency report of progenitor; Alexander R. Pratt. It is my hope that this will serve as a template for others to record and report on their family history.

SPIRIT OF ELIJAH DAYS

"BEHOLD, I WILL SEND YOU ELIJAH THE PROPHET BEFORE THE COMING OF THE GREAT AND DREADFUL DAY OF THE LORD: AND HE SHALL TURN THE HEART OF THE FATHERS TO THE CHILDREN, AND THE HEART OF THE CHILDREN TO THEIR FATHERS, LEST I COME AND SMITE THE EARTH WITH A CURSE. MALACHI 4:5-6

Preface

This body of work has taken 38 years of record searching in courthouses, interviews with living relatives, cemeteries, microfilm reading of census records, deeds and most important of all...libraries from the local town library to the National Archives, resources gathered from all over Missouri and Tennessee.

I have had help from many researchers sharing their research over the years with the intent that one-day, I would be able to compile and share what was found with others. It is with great pleasure I am able to share this accumulative descendant research in this comprehensive volume of work.

First and foremost, please make copies of this file for future preservation.

Layout

There are several sections in this book.

- [1] 27-page descendant chart of Alexander R. Pratt's family comprising of 4 generations.
- [2] Most descendants have basic information some with Cradle to Grave Profiles (C2G) followed by notes comprised of very important source documentation and research recommendations.
- [4] Most descendants have spousal information including children and their spouses. If further information is wanted concerning allied families, please contact the author.
- [5] Names highlighted in blue are the author's direct line ancestors.
- [6] The end of the book has the author's pedigree showing his relationship to the common ancestor. Also, there is a short biography of the author explaining his interest and qualifications in family history research.

I hope you will share this book with others in your family and it will become a family treasure.

Any questions you may have concerning information in this book can be asked of the author either at his home address: Floyd Pratt, 4000 20th Street West Apt 113, Bradenton, Florida 34205-5057 or by phone 941.209.1701 or by email floydpratt59@yahoo.com.

It is and always has been my desire to share what I have found with others so they may use our research as a springboard to launch their family histories. Only through knowing our ancestors...can we know ourselves.

First Generation

1. Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt, son of Henry Pratt and Nancy Carter, was born in March 1831 in Monroe, Tennessee, United States, died in 1912 near Cherryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States at age 81, and was buried in 1912 in Freeman Cemetery, Cherryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States.

Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile for Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008

In harmony with the first law of genealogy or family history research, i.e., documentation, I submit my famous Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile on this subject including all known documentation presented for the serious researcher. This has been done to help the serious researcher continue in their thirst for family history knowledge without a duplication of effort. All I ask is that you acknowledge my contribution to your family history research. My gift to you...Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

Mary Elizabeth (PRATT) was born in Monroe, Tennessee, United States in August 1838 .

1838 Forced Move "Trail of Tears"

A full account of the Henry Pratt family is in my book " Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee". In this book I give a full detail of the "Trail of Tears" episode and it is a lengthy discourse. Because of its length, I will not go into it here but suffice to say, due to Henry Pratt's Cherokee ancestry, the government forced him and his family on the "Trail of Tears" in September 1838 and they jumped the trail in March 1839 and settled first in Crawford County moving to Richwoods Twp of Washington County, Missouri by the 1840 census.-Floyd Thomas Pratt

1939 Arrival in Missouri

After a long cold, hard winter the Pratt's found a way to escape from their military escort and followed the creeks from the "Trail of Tears" or what is now known as highway 8 in Crawford County, Missouri and settled 12 miles north in Crawford County before moving into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri by the 1840 census. They began to make friends with other "exiles" who were also in hiding from the government. A local family, the Rinard (Rhinehart) Kimberlin(g) family befriended the Pratts and was instrumental in helping the Pratt family to adjust to their new home life. Also, the Absalom Blanton family helped the Pratts and intermarried which was Cherokee tradition. More in the book " Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" (2003) by Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

1839 Good Friends

by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008

It should be noted here that Rinard Kimberlin was a good neighbor and a friend to the Henry Pratt family.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

When the Pratts arrived in eastern Crawford County in March 1839, they moved into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimberlins and struck up a good friendship.

When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for indians to own or buy land.

Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of the 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt.

Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother.

After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themselves off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander's land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

1841 Childbirth of sister; Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT)

Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT) was born 20 October 1841 in Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States.

1841 to 1850 Death of Father; Henry Pratt

Death of Henry Pratt calculated to be between 1841 and 1850. This deduction derived from the presumption that he conceived his last known child; Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT) who was born according to her death certificate 20 October 1841. Going back 9 months from her birth date indicates he was alive February 1841 if... Matilda's birth date is correct. His son; Alexander R. Pratt told his son; Carac Pratt who told his son; Orville Carac Pratt that Alexander had gone to California in 1848-1849 during the gold rush. Maybe Henry went with the group but he does not show up in the 1850 census like Alexander does. I have checked available newspapers for that time period but have found no references to Henry Pratt. One of my mentor researchers; Geraldine Mabel (MILLER) Reed said that she thought she had seen a court report in one of those books in the Crawford County Courthouse that mentioned Nancy Pratt, widow of Henry Pratt receiving a cash allotment from the County Court. She could not remember where it was or anything more about it. I looked for it when I was at the Courthouse but there are so many books...hundreds that have not been documented but just piled up in the vault that I could not cover all of them and had no time, or luck in finding any information about Henry Pratt. Therefore, Henry Pratt could have died on his way to California or on his return trip to Missouri. After his death, his widow, Nancy (CARTER) Pratt moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri to be near her daughter; Susanna Rebecca (PRATT) Hansel family in Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri. In 1852, Nancy married widower, Absalom Blanton in Crawford County. Regrettably, due to old age, I must leave the mystery of Henry Pratt's death for the next generation to solve.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

1841-1850 Family Move

It appears after the death of husband; Henry Pratt, Nancy Pratt and family moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Boone Twp, District 24, Crawford, Missouri, United States between 1841-1850 to be closer to her daughter's family; Henry H. & Susannah Rebecca (PRATT) Hansel family.

1856 Family Move

Alexander R. Pratt began courting Rhinard & Frances (PETERS) Kimberlin's daughter; Mary sometime before his property transaction on 22 May 1856. This relationship with the Kimberlin family goes way back to 1839 when Mary's father; Rhinard befriended the Henry Pratt family when the Pratts moved to Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri from Crawford County, Missouri. Alex's brother, James had already married Rhinard's daughter Catherine and Alex knew Mary from associating with the Kimberlin family. Alex moved from Boone Twp, Crawford County, Missouri, United States where he had been living with his mother and siblings in the 1850 census to Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri near Anthonies Mill where the Rhinard Kimberlin family lived when he purchased 40 acres on 22 May 1856.

"This deed made and entered this Twenty Second of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eith hundred and fifty- six between William Hughes and Martha Hughes his wife of the first part and Alexander Pratt of the second part all of the County of Crawford and State of Missouri witness to: That the said parties of the first part for and in consideration of the sum of eighty dollars to them in hand paid the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged have granted bargained and sold and by these presents do grant bargain and sell and convey free from or and our heirs and representatives and the claim or claims of every person or persons whosoever to him the said Alexander Pratt his heirs and assigns forever a certain tract of parcel of land lying and being in County of Washington and State of Missouri as follows to wit: The North East quarter [¼] of the South East quarter [¼] of Section No. eighteen [18] in Township No. Thirty -nine [39] of Range No. One West [R1W] containing forty acres. Now know ye that for and in consideration of the sum of paid us as above specified we have conveyed the said land to Alexander Pratt with all and singular the privilege, appertenancy an hereditaments of whatever nature there belonging or in any wise appertaining. to hold the same free from us our heirs, representatives, and assigns to him the said Alexander Pratt his heirs, representatives and assigns forever. In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seal this day and date first above written. Attest: J. M. Anthony William Hughes Martha Hughes"

[It should be noted that because Rinard Kimberlin sold some land to James Pratt who had married his daughter Catherine, this paved the way for Alexander to be able to buy land. It was law that Indians were not allowed to own or exchange property. Even though Alexander and James were only ½ Cherokee this still presented a problem. also I imagine that Rinard would not let Alexander marry his daughter, Mary unless he showed evidence that he was and could settle down. After Alex bought this land on 22 May 1856, a little over a month later Rinard agreed to Alex and Mary's marriage on 28 June 1856. This property was located near White's Creek and close to Alexander's brother; James & Catherine (KIMBERLIN) Pratt family.-Floyd Thomas Pratt]

Apparently the Union Army was having trouble raising enough able-bodied men to fight or he was already in the war and was discharged due to medical condition. Since I can not find any Pratt's fighting in the Civil War for the white man, then probably this was all a ruse to avoid the civil war conflict.]

[Seems to be a discrepancy of enormous proportions. When I read their marriage record in 1976, I was new to research and as an untrained observer, I thought I saw her name as Mrs. Other researchers have now reported that the Mrs. was actually Misf which was a double "s" indicating she was a Miss not a Mrs. After viewing the actual record, I must now conclude that it is written as Miss not Mrs. I have found in the census records a Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) in Franklin County, Missouri who was 20 years old. Alexander would have been 53 years old at the time of this marriage and surely the newspapers should have written an article about the discrepancy in age of this marriage. I have not had the time to check the Sullivan, Potosi, Bourbon or Steelville newspapers to verify any such article. However, if Adaline, the 20 year old in the census is the one he married...that would explain her ability to bear two children and dying young, from childbirth complications in 1892.]

The Death of Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 1982

21 June 1982 Story about the death of Alexander Pratt

In 1982, I used to travel throughout the middle portion of Missouri tracking down ancestors and related families. One such family was Thomas Livey and Polina (PRATT) Callahan family; Alexander's daughter who had lived in Cheryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri for many years and had children who still lived in that area. One such child was Fred C. Callahan born 4 July 1907 in Cherryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States and died 29 January 1992 at Rolla, Phelps, Missouri, United States.

After receiving a reply to my newspaper ad looking for Alexander Pratt's grave from Elsie Conaway, who told me where the gravesite was located, I started to contact the Callahan family and drove to Cherryville to visit Fred Callahan on 21 June 1982. He related the following story to me about his grandpa...Alexander Pratt.

When Fred was a little boy...about 5 years old, Grandpa Alex (Alexander R. Pratt) came to visit his Mom and Dad (Lina & Tom Callahan) who lived near Cherryville, Missouri. Little Freddie used to "pick" on his Grandpa by climbing on him and playing with him like little grandchildren do with their grandpa. [I know from personal experience that my grandchildren; Brian and Jacob love to wrestle with me and get me down on the floor and climb on top of me and "beat me up". I've watched my father play with his great-grandchildren the same way.]

One day, Grandpa Alex was rockin' in a rockin' chair by the fireplace chewin' tobacco, when little Freddie ran into the kitchen where his mother was cookin' and said " Momma, sumptins wrong with Grandpa", Lina said, " You quit pickin' on Grandpa or I'll box your ears." They went into the front room and Lina found that Alex Pratt had died of a heart attack in his rocking chair. He was 79. This happened in 1912. Unknown if it was in the earlier part of the year or the winter months of the year.

Fred told me because the roads were slick with ice from an ice storm, they couldn't get the wagon with Alexander's body up the hills to take him back to his home in Sullivan to be buried, so they buried him in the Freeman Cemetery outside of Cherryville, Missouri. [I have driven' those roads at Cherryville and they are extremely steep and even hard to drive up them when the road is clear let alone when there is snow or sleet on the highway.]

Carac Pratt, Alex's son from his second marriage, put a small metal marker at the grave site in 1975, which was still there when I visited the grave in 1982. Luckily, I took a picture of that metal placque because I have now been told that someone took the placque from the cemetery and it is missing. This is a drawing of where he is buried. It is now 2008, so I am trying to remember from my 1982 visit.

His gravesite was about 3 or 4 in from the back fence towards the gate. I had made 2 attempts to find his grave. I had ridin' my motorcyle from Springfield, Missouri where I was living and operating an insurance agency.

On my first visit I walked all over the cemetery and found nothing. I had left the radio on the motorcycle and it was playing "rock" music and I was not in tune with the spirit and I was unsuccessful. There was a spot that I felt a strange feeling come over me but I didn't know why, there was nothing there.

On my second trip on a different day, this time, I left the radio off and Elsie Conaway came with me and showed me where he was buried. To my surprise, it was in the same spot I had previously searched but found nothing. There it was...the metal marker clearly sticking out of the ground. How did I miss it the first time? I do not know. Maybe I wasn't intune with the spirit and was blinded by the ways of the world and failed to see. I don't know.

That is the story on how Alexander Pratt became buried in the Freeman Cemetery, Cherryville, Crawford, Missouri, United States. There should be newspaper accounts of his death in the Sullivan, Bourbon, Steelville and/or Potosi newspapers. Those newspapers are kept at the State Historical Society in Cloumbia, Missouri and I had to travel to Columbia to get to read them. Usually I was permitted to have one day because I was a working father and had to raise a family at the same time I was trying to research my family line. I found some references to the Pratts, Blantons, Carters and other families in those papers but time prevented me from doing a thorough research. Maybe one day they will be online.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

"WANTED: The burial place of Alexander Pratt father of Winslow Pratt, was living on Crows Creek, died between 1910-1920. Reward of $20 for information. Write: Floyd Pratt, 2926 W. Washita, Springfield, Missouri 65807."

[I ran this advertisement hoping to find where Alexander Pratt was buried. I was hoping to pinpoint a birth and death date. Up to this point all I had was census records and nothing else to go on. And you must remember, back in 1982 I was still light years ahead of other researchers who did not even know who Alexander Pratt was or whom he married. Two people answered my ad and wrote back to me informing me of the location of Alexander's gravesite. The first was Elsie E. Conaway; born 31 October 1925 and died February 1988 from Cherryville and the second was Margaret Wagner from Sullivan, Missouri. Neither one wanted the $20 and when I drove out to see Elsie, she took me to where his gravesite was located. Whoa!! [I am still in coorespondence with Margaret Wagner as of this day 4 July 2010.]

But first I am getting ahead of myself. When Elsie wrote to me and told me where his grave was located I decided to ride my 750cc Honda Goldwing motorcycle up from Springfield, where I lived, to Cherryville. I remember going up highway 19 and getting off at the Cemetery. I had a radio on my Honda and I was fond of rock music, loud...rock music and of course everyone knows that rock music is not conducive to the Holy Ghost and when I arrived at the cemetery, I left my radio on and walked the entire cemetery looking for Alexander Pratt's grave. I thoroughly looked at each grave site in anticipation of finding his grave after all these years but something was wrong and I couldn't find him. I went over and over the cemetery checking carefully each headstone and marker and he was not there. At one point of my search, I remember walking straight towards the back of the cemetery fence and felt a strange sensation at about 2 or 3 graves in but did not see any marker or headstone. I was dissappointed to say the least and drove back home after doing more research that day and was despondent.

I called Elsie and told her I could not find the gravesite and she offered to take me there in person. So, sometime later, a week, a few days I don't remember, I rode my motorcycle back up to the cemetery and met Elsie, but this time I did not play rock music. And to my surprise she took me right to the spot that I had felt a strange sensation before but could not see the marker and lo and behold there it was...a steel metal marker which said "Alexander Pratt 1831-1912".

I became very humbled and realized how grateful I was to my Heavenly Father for allowing me to see the marker and to Elsie for taking the time to show me his gravesite. Why didn't I see it before? It must have been there. It's been there since Carac put in there before 1975. I believe the reason I didn't see it the first time was because my spirit was not in harmony with the Holy Ghost and I was not ready. After humbling myself, the Lord blessed me and we found the marker. Those of you who know what I am talking about...understand. I took a Polaroid picture of the marker and have it at this day. It is included in the pictures of Alexander Pratt's collection. Sadly, I was told that someone has taken the marker and it is lost. This is a true story-Floyd Thomas Pratt PS: In appreciation Elsie (WORLEY) Conaway and Fred C. Callahan have had their temple work completed.

Orville Carac Pratt

I found another grandson of Alexander Pratt living in Bethalto, Illinois. Sometime in the 1980's I made a trip and visited with Orville Carac Pratt, son of Carac Francis Pratt. Carac Francis Pratt was the last known living child of Alexander & Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) Pratt.

Orville related the following information about his Grandpa Alexander Pratt. Orville said his father; Carac told him that Alexander was a big man 6' 4" tall and weighed about 240lbs. Alex was a blacksmith, autioneer, and ran a threshing seperator rig for a while. Since Carac made railroad ties then probably he learned this from his father. Carac also told him that his dad, Alex made the gold rush to California in 1849. [If Alex made the gold rush maybe that's where his father Henry Pratt died. Maybe his dad went with him to California because Alex was only 17 years in 1849.]

Research Speculation

[In close proximity to Lick Creek in Greene County, Tennessee, next door to the Carter family, the Harmon family and the Blanton family, there was James & Ann (GIBSON) Pratt family from Rockingham County, North Carolina. A few years before Henry Pratt and Nancy (CARTER) were married on October 3, 1820 in Greene County, Tennessee, there was a Robert Pratt and Alexander Pratt getting married in Greene County, Tennessee. The question is; does the "R." in Alexander's middle name represent his uncle...Robert? Was Alexander named after another uncle...Alexander? Was Henry Pratt the son of James & Ann (GIBSON) Pratt since he named his first son James? Further research into this family needs to take place in the historical archives of Greene County, Tennessee.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008]

My Tribute to the Ambrose Marion Pennock Family by Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

When my 2nd great grandfather, Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt bought 40 acres from William & Martha () Hughes on 22 May 1856, this property transaction had a great deal more intrigue and suspense than a normal property transfer.

My 2ggfather, Alex was 1/2 Cherokee and Native Americans were not allowed to buy or own property.

When the Pratts were forced from their home in Monroe County, Tennessee by bayonets, they were force marched on the "Trail of Tears" from September 1838 to March 1839, this has been documented by personal journals of those who accompanied the Pratts on that journey.

When they arrived in the portion of Crawford County, Missouri which later became Washington County, before the 1840 census date, they settled near the local family of Rinard (Rhinehart) & Frances (PETERS) Kimberling family.

The Kimberlings hailed from Botetourt County, Virginia and had been in Missouri since 1825 and settled in the Richwoods Township area of Washington County where Alexander's father, Henry Pratt shows up in the 1840 census. Rinard later moved to Johnson Township and the Pratts followed.

One of Henry's sons; James Pratt took a liking to one of Rinard's daughter's; Catherine (KIMBERLIN). But, Rinard was not going to let James Pratt a Cherokee marry his daughter unless he settled down. I guess Catherine was relentless in her pleadings to her father and he finally consented to the marriage and James & Catherine were married sometime between 1847-1848. [No record has been located].

On 25 February 1854, Rinard sold 23 acres to his son-n-law, James Pratt. This was the first property transaction found for the Pratts. Their father, Henry Pratt never owned property because he was full blooded Cherokee and it was against tribal custom and government law. [Cherokees felt that everyone in the tribe owned the land and therefore it could not be bought or sold.]

Alexander, encouraged by James' success with land purchase but more intrigued by another of Rinard's daughter, Mary (KIMBERLIN) wanted to seek her hand in marriage. Rinard realizing that he wanted good stable husbands for his daughters, informed Alex that he had to purchase property and settle down, BEFORE, he would permit his daughter to marry him.

So, on 22 May 1856, Alexander purchased 40 acres from William Hughes and a little more than 1 month later, on 28 June 1856 he married Mary (KIMBERLIN). So these 40 acres were the original homestead of Alexander R. & Mary (KIMBERLIN) Pratt family.

Cherokees are not very good farmers and after trying to conform to the farming life, Alexander decided this wasn't for him and about that time a new family arrived in the Johnson Township area looking for good land to build a future. This is where the Ambrose Marion Pennock family purchased the old homestead of the Alexander Pratt family on 18 March 1859.

Alexander Pratt stayed in the Johnson Township area of Washington County until after his second wife...Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) Pratt died in 1892. He then moved to the Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri area to be closer to his son, Henry Winslow Pratt family and Alexander died in 1912.

As you see, because of the friendship our ancestors shared with others, the Ambrose Marion Pennock family will always have a special place in the hearts of the Pratts, this friendship transcends generations and binds our families together forever. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

Blanton Hollow now known as Hamilton Hollow

by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

There are two cemeteries on the hills at Hamilton Hollow across from each other. One is called Hamilton Cemetery and the other is the Blanton Cemetery. There are only a few headstones that have survived but both have many indentations in the ground where people have been buried.

Since the Pratt's were of Cherokee ancestry, the government made sure that native indians were not allowed to prosper. This included preventing them from voting, buying and selling land, holding legal offices and even buying fishing licenses and they suffered other abuses kin to the way the whites treated the blacks.

Therefore, there were many mixed native families living in the 39th and 40th townships of Johnson Township in Washington County, Missouri. These families found a common bond by seeking refuge from the abuses of the whites by living in close proximity. Only by marrying into local white families did these mixed natives begin to gain acceptance after the turn of the century.

In the meantime, they survived by hunting and cutting ties and staves for the railroad and mining companies.

My grandfather; Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt known as "Lum" to his friends was not only taught those trades by his father; Henry Winslow "Win" Pratt but also became known as an accomplished concrete and rock mason. My dad has shown me many structures still standing in Bourbon and the surrounding community that my grandfather had built.

Hamilton Hollow was named after the Hamilton Iron Works Mining Company who purchased the land from Absalom Blanton's son; Alexander A. Blanton Sr. in 1872 which comprised of property around Henry Pratt's log cabin and Absalom Blanton's mansion which has now become known in these latter days as Hamilton Hollow.

The old maps of the region show that the hollow was named Blanton Hollow in honor of Absalom Blanton and the creek the Blanton Creek. Near the creek is a cold water spring now called Pratt Spring named by the Missouri Corps of Engineers in honor of where Henry Pratt had built his log cabin on the bluff above. The large cave near the spring is named Pratt Cave.

Absalom Blanton had bought this property on 3 November 1849 and developed a mining operation which employed many in the area. He built a large mansion with a winding staircase, which has been written in numerous local newspapers.

Why did Alexanders R. & Mary (KIMBERLIN) Pratt name one of their sons; Henry Winslow Pratt? by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

The name Winslow is so unusual it is hard to determine where it came from. I can find no references or articles to famous people carrying that name circa 1860's or around the time of Henry Winslow Pratt's birth (1869). I can not find any family member in the Pratt, Carter, Blanton or Kimberlin lines that carried the Winslow name. However, there is a long shot I found through my research efforts, that may have a clue to the origin of the name.

David Jackson Staples married Mary Pratt (WINSLOW) in Boston, Massachusetts in 1848. This was the same year that gold had been discovered on the American River in California. David decided he had to go west to seek his fortune and with 25 men, including Mary's brother George Winslow from Newton, Massachusetts and her Uncle Jesse Winslow and others, formed the Boston-Newton Joint Stock Association.

In 1848 and with the intent of going to California to participate in the gold rush, David Staples kept a journal of the trip. Traveling by train and lake steamer they reached Ohio without incident. After reaching Cairo, Illinois by April 27th and heading north to Saint Louis (City) for provisions, the party was spurred on by a cholera epidemic in St. Louis and left for Independence, Missouri by paddleboat up the Missouri River.

On May 27th, Staples wrote of Indians, mule trouble, double-teaming the wagons through the wet prairie, a party"....returning haveing lost a husband father and friend of Cholera." Who this was and the party that returned is not mentioned. But, on June 8th, George Winslow died in Nebraska from cholera. David Staples and party continued on to California and in 1862 was one of the founders of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, in San Francisco.

Presumptive Conclusions

The following questions and assumptions are based on several coincidences from the David Jackson Staples story. These queries are meant to provoke contemplation and engage the reader into action, so someone, somewhere will desire to investigate and find the answers.

(1) Could the Mary Pratt (WINSLOW) from Newton, Massachusetts, that married David Staples have been a relative of Alexander or one of the other Pratts?

(2) Was Alexander Pratt familiar with the Boston Pratts?

(4) They may have stopped at Hannibal, Missouri for provisions. Hannibal is not far from our Pratts in Crawford County.

(5) Did the Staples-Winslow party stop and visit with the Pratts from Crawford County, Missouri?

(6) One thing is known...Alexander Pratt went to the California gold fields in 1848-1849. This story was passed down by Alexander to his son; Carac who told his son; Orville, who told me in the 1980's before he died about Alex making the trip to California.

(7) I have always speculated that if Alexander went west in 1848 to California for gold, he didn't go alone. I believe some of his brother's and maybe his father; Henry Pratt accompanied him.

(8) Let's take this one step further, could Henry & Alexander and his brothers have hooked up with the David Staples party when they were going through Missouri at about the same time?

(9) Could Henry Pratt, who we know was alive in 1842, could he have died on the trail out west? His wife, Nancy (CARTER) Pratt is a widow by the 8 October 1850 census date. After 35 years of researching, we still do not know where or when Henry Pratt died.

(10) David Staples' Journal says that "a party of their group lost a husband father and friend due to the cholera epidemic and returned". Could this have been Henry Pratt who died on the trail and his sons returned home to Crawford County, Missouri?

(11) Alexander is in the 1850 census with his mother and brothers. Why didn't he continue his westward trek to the gold fields of California? What would force him to return prematurely? Maybe the death of their father?

(12) Did Alexander's association with the Staples and Winslow men on the trail create an impression on Alexander, that in 1869 he named one of his sons--Henry after his grandfather and Winslow after his good friend George Winslow of Newton, Massachusetts?

(13) Alexander's son; Stonewall Jackson Pratt after reaching adulthood, dropped the "Stonewall" and took the middle name of "Newton". All the while he was alive in Columbia, Missouri since his adult life he was known as Jackson "Jack" Newton Pratt. Where did he get the name of Newton? From Newton, Massachusetts?

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

(14) Henry Winslow Pratt named one of his sons, Jesse Lee Pratt in 1894. I can find no previous references to the name Jesse in the Pratt, Kimberlin, Missey families other than Carter family which I am sure they, meaning Henry Winslow Pratt, was not aware of...Jesse Carter Sr. his great-grandfather. The Pratts did not have any written record of their family history so I am sure Jesse Carter Sr. was unknown to them. I think Henry Winslow Pratt named Jesse Pratt after Jesse Winslow from Newton, Massachusetts, who accompanied his father, Alex and David Staples westward to California.

(15) Once again Boston, Massachusetts pops up in my research. If the above hypothesis has any creditability, then maybe there was something to my great Aunt Eula's story about one of Jackson Pratt's boys stealing some Boston deeds from Laura (MISSEY) Pratt in the late 1920's or early 1930's. More on that story can be found in my article, "Who Stole the Deeds?" Should be noted that many older family members retold the stolen deed story to me, not just my great Eula Viola (RICHARDSON) Pratt.

I have a book titled "Still Flying and Nailed to the Mast", The First Hundred Years of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, by William Bronson, © 1963 by Doubleday & Company, Inc. Garden City, New York. This book gives an accounting of some of the journals of David Staples and the hardships they faced on their journey to California from Boston.

When my father was in the insurance business and owned his own agency, he contracted with Fireman's Fund Insurance Company as an agent (around 1969) and they gave him this book. He later gave me the book. Little did I know the mysteries I would find concerning the Staples, Winslow and Pratt families within its pages. I found it strange that the founder of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company had married Mary Pratt (WINSLOW). I realize without more collaborating evidence, the above hypothesis is purely speculation. In any case there are some coincidences that can not be overlooked. -Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

Since her brother Michael is listed as age 16 in the 1850 census and Mary as age 15 then Michael would have been born in 1834 and Mary in 1835. In the 1840 census Michael is in the 5-9 range which would put his birth at 1841 to 1835 and Mary is in the 4 & under range which would put her birth in the 1836 to 1840 range. Therefore, Michael was born 1834 and Mary was born 1835-1836.

1830-1840 Family Move

From Meremac Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Depends on when they moved. We cannot determine in what township the children were born.

1835-1840 Childbirth of unknown sister (KIMBERLING)

Unknown daughter (KIMBERLING) was born in either Meremac Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States or Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States between 1835 and 1 June 1840 census date.

1837 Childbirth of sister; Nancy (KIMBERLING)

Nancy (KIMBERLING) was born in either Meremac Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States or Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States in 1837.

1839 Good Friends

by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008

It should be noted here that Rinard Kimberlin was a good neighbor and a friend to the Henry Pratt family.

When the Pratts arrived in eastern Crawford County in March 1839, they moved into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimberlins and struck up a good friendship.

When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for indians to own or buy land. Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of the 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt.

Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother. After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themselves off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander's land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seal this day and date first above written.

Attest: J. M. Anthony William Hughes Martha Hughes"

[It should be noted that because Rinard Kimberlin sold some land to James Pratt who had married his daughter Catherine, this paved the way for Alexander to be able to buy land. It was law that Indians were not allowed to own or exchange property. Even though Alexander and James were only ½ Cherokee this still presented a problem. also I imagine that Rinard would not let Alexander marry his daughter, Mary unless he showed evidence that he was and could settle down. After Alex bought this land on 22 May 1856, a little over a month later Rinard agreed to Alex and Mary's marriage on 28 June 1856. This property was located near White's Creek and close to Alexander's brother; James & Catherine (KIMBERLIN) Pratt family.-Floyd Thomas Pratt]

[Seems to be a discrepancy of enormous proportions. When I read their marriage record I was new to research and as an untrained observer, I thought I saw her name as Mrs. Other researchers have now reported that the Mrs. was actually Misf which was a double "s" indicating she was a Miss not a Mrs. After viewing the actual record, I must now conclude that it is written as Miss not Mrs. I have found in the census records a Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) in Franklin County, Missouri who was 20 years old. Alexander would have been 53 years old at the time of this marriage and surely the newspapers should have written an article about the discrepancy in age of this marriage. I have not had the time to check the Sullivan, Potosi, Bourbon or Steelville newspapers to verify any such article. However, if Adaline, the 20 year old in the census is the one he married...that would explain her ability to bear two children and dying young, probably from childbirth complications in 1892.]

1857 Birthblock for Mary Ellen (PRATT) daughter of Alexander R. & Mary (KIMBERLIN) Pratt

Mary Ellen (PRATT) was born near Rock Spring Post Office, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 27 November 1857.

Date from 1860 census states she was born 1858 in Missouri.

Date from 1870 census states she was born 1857 in Missouri.

Date from 1880 census states she was born 1858 in Missouri.

Date from 1900 census states she was born September 1854 in Missouri.

Date from 1910 census states she was born 1856 in Missouri.

Date from 1920 census states she was born 1857 in Missouri.

Date from death certificate states her birth 27 November 1857.

Therefore she was born 1856-1858.

Since her parents lived near Rock Spring Post Office, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States, then this is where she was born.

"This deed made and entered into this 18th day of March 1859 Eighteen hundred and fifty nine between Alexander R. Pratt and Mary Pratt his wife of the first part and Ambrose Marion Pennock of the second part witness that the said parties of the first part for and in consideration of the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars to them in hand paid by said party of the second part the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged do by these presents bargain sell and convey unto the said party of the second part and to his heirs and assigns forever the following described tract of land in the County of Washington and state of Missouri to wit, The North East quarter of south west quarter of section No. eighteen in township No. thirty -nine of range No. one west containing forty acres to have and to hold unto the said party of the second part and to his heirs and assigns forever. In testimony whereof of the said party of the first part have hereunto set their hand and seal the day and year first aforesaid. Alexander (X) R. Pratt and Mary(X) Pratt
[It appears that after 3 short years the property almost doubled in value. Why they choose to move and leave is unknown. Rinard and Frances Kimberlin were still alive and according to the 1860 census Alex stayed in the area. Cherokees were not farmers so farming probably did not appeal to Alexander.]

1864 Father's Military Medical

Between 1860-1875, Dr. John B. Bell was commissioned by the Union Army to give physicals for pension applications in Potosi, Mo. These records are known as "The John B. Bell Papers" and are housed in the library at the University Of Missouri in the manuscript room at Rolla, Phelps, Missouri, United States.

"Persons belonging to the E.M.M. 32nd Reg. 22 March 1864

#57 Alex Pratt age 19 Diagnosis: Tuberculosis & debility."

[These medicals took place at Potosi, Washington, Missouri. Debility is weakness caused by long sickness. Alex is listed next to his brother John. Unknown why his age was given as 19. Apparently the Union Army was having trouble raising enough able -bodied men to fight or he was already in the war and was discharged due to medical condition. Since I can not find any Pratt's fighting in the Civil War for the white man, then probably this was all a ruse to avoid the civil war conflict.]

1856 Birthblock for James Franklin Studdard son of James William & Betsy "Bacey" Susie Nancy (PRUITT) Studdard

James Franklin Studdard was born Meramec Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States on 12 April 1856.

Date from 1860 census states he was born 1856 in Missouri.

Date from 1870 census states he was born ???

Date from 1880 census states he was born 1854 in Missouri.

Date from 1900 census states he was born January 1854 in Missouri.

Date from 1910 census states he was born 1856 in Missouri.

Date from 1920 census states he was born 1859 in Missouri.

Date from 1930 census states he was born 1859 in Missouri.

Date from the death certificate states he was born 12 April 1860 in Jefferson County, Missouri.

Since his parents listed his birth after his brother John in the 1860 census, then he must have been born in 1856.

Research Note

The surname Studdard has been loosely used by various members of these families. Even within siblings I have found the following variations...Stuthers, Struthers and so forth. Further research needs to be done to discover the origins of the Studdard name. Be mindful when researching legal as well as family records for these ancestors, the variations and include all known spelling possibilities. Remember, these people back in the 1700's and 1800's were not educated and pronounced everything phonetically. FTP

1864-1865 Mother's Marriage of John Murray and Betsy "Bacey" Susie Nancy (PRUITT) Studdard

John Murray and Betsy "Bacey" Susie Nancy (PRUITT) Studdard were married from 11 February 1864 the date she filed for a pension as widow Betsey Studdard to 9 months prior to the birth of Mary Ellen (MURRAY) on 3 October 1865. There are so many John Murray's in the 1860 census it is difficult to determine when he was born or if he was previously married (likely). See the report: "[What Happened to the Murray Children's Surname?" by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2010]

1865 Childbirth of step-sister; Mary Ellen Studdard-(MURRAY)

Mary Ellen (MURRAY) was born in Jefferson, Missouri, United States on 3 October 1865. Mary's death certificate said she was born in Jefferson County...how accurate that information is unknown.

1867 Childbirth of step-sister; Amanda F. Studdard-(MURRAY)

Amanda F. (MURRAY) was born in Washington, Missouri, United States on 5 December 1867. Amanda's death certificate said she was born in Washington County...how accurate that information is unknown.

1870 Federal Census age 14

Since we can't find them in the 1870 census, this puts us at a severe disadvantage for locating their residency. This also is important to acknowledge that Bacy was using John Murray's surname for his children. Lucas' death certificate says he was born in Crawford County in 1871 but using all kinds of variations on the Murray name as well as each of the two girls that we would know to be home in 1870 has produced no results.

1871 Childbirth of step-brother; Lucas Irvin Studdard-Murray

Lucas Irvin Studdard-Murray was born in Crawford, Missouri, United States on 4 December 1871.

1874 Childbirth of step-brother; Henry Harrison Studdard-Murray

Henry Harrison Studdard-Murray was born in Sullivan, Meramec Twp, Franklin, Missouri, United States on 9 February 1874 .

1873-1880 Death or divorce of step-father; John Murray

John Murray died or they were divorced between 1873-1880 near Sullivan, Meramec Twp, Franklin, Missouri, United States, because Bacey is listed in the 1880 census as a single woman with her children. Finding the divorce record would be immensely helpful.

James Studdard white widowed male born 12 April 1860 in Jefferson County, Missouri to James Studdard born [unknown] and Bacey Prewitt born Crawford County Missouri. James is a farmer and died on 29 October 1939 at 25 Marshall Road, Valley Park, Saint Louis (county), Missouri, United States where he had been a resident for 6 years. He was buried on 31 October 1939 at Odd Fellows Cemetery(IOOF), Sullivan, Franklin, Missouri, United States. The informant was Katie Ward, 25 Marshall Road, Valley Park, Saint Louis (county), Missouri, United States.

1939 Burial of James Franklin Studdard

Even though the death certificate states he was buried at Odd Fellows Cemetery(IOOF), Sullivan, Franklin, Missouri, United States, checking the burial book, "The Cemeteries of Meramec Township, Franklin County, Missouri" © 1997 by Four Rivers Genealogical Society page 67 does not list him. If his wife; Mary Ellen (PRATT) Studdard was buried in Hamilton Hollow Cemetery as reported by her granddaughter; Dollie (STUDDARD) Lohmann, then logic dictates he was buried beside her. However, without proof, i.e., newspaper, funeral home or other documents, we really don't know where he was buried. So, for now I will concede to believe Odd Fellows Cemetery(IOOF), Sullivan, Franklin, Missouri, United States as his burial location.

Children from this marriage were:

Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile for Pearlina "Pearl" (STUDDARD) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2012

In harmony with the first law of genealogy or family history research, i.e., documentation, I submit my famous Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile on this subject including all known documentation presented for the serious researcher. This has been done to help the serious researcher continue in their thirst for family history knowledge without a duplication of effort. All I ask is that you acknowledge my contribution to your family history research. My gift to you...Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

1892 Birthblock of Pearlina "Pearl" (STUDDARD) daughter of James Franklin & Mary Ellen (PRATT) Studdard

Pearlina "Pearl" (STUDDARD) was born in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 30 May 1892.

Date from the 1900 census states she was born May 1892 in Missouri.

Date from the 1910 census states she was born 1893 in Missouri.

Date from the 1920 census states she was born 1894 in Missouri.

Date from the 1930 census states she was born 1893 in Missouri.

1908 Death of grandmother; Betsy "Bacey" Susie Nancy (PRUITT) Studdard

Betsy "Bacey" Susie Nancy (PRUITT) Studdard died in Sullivan, Meramec Twp, Franklin, Missouri, United States on 23 December 1908.

Research Note

In order to determine where the children were born, one needs to know where the family was living. Checking the deed records of Franklin County might reveal where they bought land but subsequent census records indicate they always rented. Since they were married in Sullivan City they may have lived there when they began their family. However, the 1910 census states they were living in Central Township in Franklin County, Missouri which is not anywhere near Sullivan. Therefore all children born after 1910 could have been born in Central Twp, Franklin County or in Crawford County where Walter was living on 5 June 1917.

Name Change

What significance Confederate General Thomas Jonathan "Stonewall" Jackson had in Alexander R. Pratt's life is unknown. Since none of the Pratts in that family participated in the Civil War it is highly unusual for Alex to name one of his male children after a southern general. Obviously, Alex must have been influenced by others because he had no personal association with the general or the Civil War. Another observation, he named his son; Stonewall Jackson Pratt during the Civil War. When Stonewall Jackson Pratt met Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) he dropped "Stonewall" and went by Jackson Newton Pratt after his marriage. Since, Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) claimed her family was related to President Zachary Taylor, then obviously they were of northern affiliation and her husband having a southern general's name was not acceptable. So, shortly after Jackson's marriage, this new middle name of Newton appears on his legal documents. Also, when he married Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) in 1884, she being of Catholic faith, converted him to the Catholic church and upon baptism, he chose Newton as his name in the church and for legal purposes. Several of their children were christened in the Saint Stephen's Catholic Parish in Richwoods, Washington, Missouri, United States. This probably caused some alienation within Jackson Pratt's family that resulted in Jackson leaving the Johnson Township, Washington County area and moving to Columbia, Boone County, Missouri. First, most of the other Pratt family members were Methodists, Baptists or Penecostal...not Catholic. Second, Jackson changed his name and rejected his birth name. I have found even in modern times, due to a lack of religious tolerance among family members, many family relationships were severed and have never found reconciliation. Nevertheless, in Columbia he was known as Jackson Newton Pratt.--Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

1864 Father's Military Medical

Between 1860-1875, Dr. John B. Bell was commissioned by the Union Army to give physicals for pension applications in Potosi, Mo. These records are known as "The John B. Bell Papers" and are housed in the library at the University Of Missouri in the manuscript room at Rolla, Phelps, Missouri, United States.

"Persons belonging to the E.M.M. 32nd Reg. 22 March 1864

#57 Alex Pratt age 19 Diagnosis: Tuberculosis & debility."

[These medicals took place at Potosi, Washington, Missouri. Debility is weakness caused by long sickness. Alex is listed next to his brother John. Unknown why his age was given as 19. Apparently the Union Army was having trouble raising enough able-bodied men to fight or he was already in the war and was discharged due to medical condition. Since I can not find any Pratt's fighting in the Civil War for the white man, then probably this was all a ruse to avoid the civil war conflict.]

1906 Family Move

The Jackson Pratt family moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Sexton Road, Columbia, Columbia Twp, Boone, Missouri, United States in 1906. It seems strange that of all of Alexander's children, Stonewall Jackson Pratt left the tri-county area i.e., Washington, Crawford, Franklin counties and moved his family to Columbia, Mo. He appears in the 1900 Washington County, Missouri census however, when he died in 1941 his son stated that his father had lived in the Columbia, Missouri area for 35 years. This means Jackson Pratt left our area about 1906. Jackson's father; Alexander, was still alive then and hadn't died until 1912. You would think he would have stayed close in the area to his brothers and sisters. By the 1910 census the Jackson Newton Pratt name was official. Apparently, his wife who was of northern roots, didn't want him to use a southern general's name. On 17 May 1994, I made a trip to Columbia, Missouri and visited Ralph Alexander Pratt II and his wife Anita. Ralph said that he had lived with his grandpa and grandma until he was 11 years old and they told him that they moved up to Columbia so their children could attend College and for a better financial opportunity. Since, Mary Louise (TAYLOR) Pratt was a school teacher back in Washington County, then this move sounds plausible. According to the death record of their daughter; Alice (PRATT), she was a student in 1916 when she died of typhoid fever. She was 19 years old at the time and she must have been attending college. What concerns me about this statement is...Saint Louis had older and better accredited and more prestigious colleges than Columbia. There may have been an additional undiscovered motive for the move.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

1861 Birthblock for Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) daughter of Sr. Archibald Ritchie & Marie Louise (ROUSSIN) Taylor

Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) was born near Old Mines Post Office, Union Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 26 May 1861.

Date from 1870 census states she was born 1859 in Missouri.

Date from 1880 census states she was born 1861 in Missouri.

Date from 1900 census states she was born May 1863 in Missouri.

Date from 1930 census states she was born 1866 in Missouri.

Date from 1940 census states she was born 1866 in Missouri.

Date from husband's death certificate states she was 73 years old in 1941...thus she was born 1868.

Date from the death certificate states she was born 26 May 1865 in Columbia, Boone, Missouri, United States.

Date from headstone states she was born 26 May 1866.

On Ralph Alexander Pratt's death certificate she gave Postoi, Missouri as her birthplace.

[Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) was not born as the 1870 census states in 1859 because she is not listed in the 1860 census with her parents. Since my St. Joachim Catholic Church baptismal records only go to 1845 then I can not verify her exact birthdate and baptismal date. Seeing that her father or mother was the Catholic influence in her life, I am sure there is a record for her at the St. Joachim Catholic Church at Old Mines, Missouri. Otherwise, we can only speculate that she was probably born the 26 May but between 1861 to 1863.]

Name and Description

Mollie was her nickname. She was a petite woman and she was well educated. She taught school in Washington County, Missouri and spoke French fluently. She told Ralph, her grandson, that Zachary Taylor was her uncle or Great uncle. She also said that her family came with the Cajuns to Missouri. I believe she was a strong influence for Stonewall Jackson Pratt to drop the Stonewall since her family were of northern persuasion.

1906 Family Move

The Jackson Pratt family moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Sexton Road, Columbia, Columbia Twp, Boone, Missouri, United States in 1906. It seems strange that of all of Alexander's children, Stonewall Jackson Pratt left the tri-county area i.e., Washington, Crawford, Franklin counties and moved his family to Columbia, Mo. He appears in the 1900 Washington County, Missouri census however, when he died in 1941 his son stated that his father had lived in the Columbia, Missouri area for 35 years. This means Jackson Pratt left our area about 1906. Jackson's father; Alexander, was still alive then and hadn't died until 1912. You would think he would have stayed close in the area to his brothers and sisters. By the 1910 census the Jackson Newton Pratt name was official. Apparently, his wife who was of northern roots, didn't want him to use a southern general's name. On 17 May 1994, I made a trip to Columbia, Missouri and visited Ralph Alexander Pratt II and his wife Anita. Ralph said that he had lived with his grandpa and grandma until he was 11 years old and they told him that they moved up to Columbia so their children could attend College and for a better financial opportunity. Since, Mary Louise (TAYLOR) Pratt was a school teacher back in Washington County, then this move sounds plausible. According to the death record of their daughter; Alice (PRATT), she was a student in 1916 when she died of typhoid fever. She was 19 years old at the time and she must have been attending college. What concerns me about this statement is...Saint Louis had older and better accredited and more prestigious colleges than Columbia. There may have been an additional undiscovered motive for the move.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

1906 Family Move

The Jackson Pratt family moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Sexton Road, Columbia, Columbia Twp, Boone, Missouri, United States in 1906. It seems strange that of all of Alexander's children, Stonewall Jackson Pratt left the tri-county area i.e., Washington, Crawford, Franklin counties and moved his family to Columbia, Mo. He appears in the 1900 Washington County, Missouri census however, when he died in 1941 his son stated that his father had lived in the Columbia, Missouri area for 35 years. This means Jackson Pratt left our area about 1906. Jackson's father; Alexander, was still alive then and hadn't died until 1912. You would think he would have stayed close in the area to his brothers and sisters. By the 1910 census the Jackson Newton Pratt name was official. Apparently, his wife who was of northern roots, didn't want him to use a southern general's name. On 17 May 1994, I made a trip to Columbia, Missouri and visited Ralph Alexander Pratt II and his wife Anita. Ralph said that he had lived with his grandpa and grandma until he was 11 years old and they told him that they moved up to Columbia so their children could attend College and for a better financial opportunity. Since, Mary Louise (TAYLOR) Pratt was a school teacher back in Washington County, then this move sounds plausible. According to the death record of their daughter; Alice (PRATT), she was a student in 1916 when she died of typhoid fever. She was 19 years old at the time and she must have been attending college. What concerns me about this statement is...Saint Louis had older and better accredited and more prestigious colleges than Columbia. There may have been an additional undiscovered motive for the move.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

"The historic development of the Columbia Cemetery in Boone County follows the growth and prosperity of Columbia itself and is the final resting place of many of the community's most prominent citizens. Established as a small common burial ground in 1821, the site grew over the next 100 years to encompass not only the original grounds and early expansions but also the Elmwood Cemetery (est. 1914), and the Beth Olem Cemetery (est. 1880). In addition to thousands of historic markers, the cemetery also contains a Romanesque Revival style mausoleum and a relatively rare example of a stone receiving vault constructed in 1887." ~ State of Missouri Press Release

William Joshua Grindstaff died in Cedar Twp, Boone, Missouri, United States after the 9 January 1920 census date and before the 1930 census.

It disturbs me that I can't find William's death certificate. Looking at the SOS website:

<http://www.sos.mo.gov/archives/resources/deathcertificates/#search> should have produced his record. I would check the local cemeteries and the newspaper's obituary column. His information should be available. Call some of the funeral homes in Columbia and see if they have his burial records. You can also call the larger cemeteries and they usually look up their records while you are on the phone to see if he was interred there.

1926-1927 Father's Marriage of Oliver "Ollie" Samuel Grindstaff and Freda (??)

This marriage date is based on two items. First in the 1930 census Ollie says Freda is his wife. Second, she states in the same census that she was first married at age 18. She is 21 in 1930 this means she would have been married in 1826-1827.

[Seems to be a discrepancy of enormous proportions. When I read their marriage record in 1976, I was new to research and as an untrained observer, I thought I saw her name as Mrs. Other researchers have now reported that the Mrs. was actually Misf which was a double "s" indicating she was a Miss not a Mrs. After viewing the actual record, I must now conclude that it is written as Miss not Mrs. I have found in the census records a Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) in Franklin County, Missouri who was 20 years old. Alexander would have been 53 years old at the time of this marriage and surely the newspapers should have written an article about the discrepancy in age of this marriage. I have not had the time to check the Sullivan, Potosi, Bourbon or Steelville newspapers to verify any such article. However, if Adaline, the 20 year old in the census is the one he married...that would explain her ability to bear two children and dying young, from childbirth complications in 1892.]

1886-1887 Death of spouse; Jackman Whiteside

Jackman Whiteside must have died between 1886-1887. His youngest daughter, Mary (WHITESIDE) was born July 1887. I checked the divorce records in Washington County from 1884-1888 and could not find any divorce papers.

1886-1887 Death or Divorce of Jackman Whiteside

Jackman Whiteside must have died between 1886-1887. His youngest daughter, Mary (WHITESIDE) was born July 1887. I checked the divorce records in Washington County from 1884-1888 and could not find any divorce papers. Checking the local newspapers at that time should reveal his death or news that he had left the area abandoning his family. Since Fannie remarried in 1888 would indicate she was either a widow or separated.

[Seems to be a discrepancy of enormous proportions. When I read their marriage record in 1976, I was new to research and as an untrained observer, I thought I saw her name as Mrs. Other researchers have now reported that the Mrs. was actually Miss which was a double "s" indicating she was a Miss not a Mrs. After viewing the actual record, I must now conclude that it is written as Miss not Mrs. I have found in the census records a Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) in Franklin County, Missouri who was 20 years old.

Alexander would have been 53 years old at the time of this marriage and surely the newspapers should have written an article about the discrepancy in age of this marriage. I have not had the time to check the Sullivan, Potosi, Bourbon or Steelville newspapers to verify any such article. However, if Adaline, the 20 year old in the census is the one he married...that would explain her ability to bear two children and dying young, from childbirth complications in 1892.]

1900-1901 Marriage of _____ Key and Bertha Ann (WHITESIDE)

Family records one of the family researchers indicated that Bertha had been previously married to a _____ Key. Since she is in the 15 June 1900 census with her family listed as single, then logic would dictate she married Mr. Key after that date. Locating this record has been difficult. One should check the actual marriage record books of Washington County and surrounding counties, especially Crawford since the Key family heavily populated Crawford County. There maybe a marriage date and location. Also, checking the newspapers at that time might reveal what county they were married. If this is true, then the birth of son; Charles "Charlie" R. Stroup on 7 January 1901, 17 months before Bertha married 2nd spouse; William "Will" Alfred Stroup would explain that Charles was actually a Key and new spouse, William Alfred Stroup gave Charles his surname.

Another avenue of research would be so find out if Charles was adopted by William then the courthouse might have a record. Be mindful that Bertha's surname of Whiteside had been replaced by her step-father; David Campbell and she may have married _____ Key under the Campbell surname.

Also, so that you are not mistaken that maybe Charles belonged to Bertha's second spouse; William Alfred Stroup from his previous marriage, William's first wife; 1st Sarah Elizabeth (ADAMS) died in 1898 and little Charles wasn't born until 1901, therefore unless William had an affair and Charles was born as an illegitimate son, then William is not Charles' father.

Another interesting point, in the 1910 census Bertha states that William is her first marriage. Either she never married _____ Key and Charles was born out of wedlock, or she became pregnant while dating William Stroup and Charles was still born out of wedlock. If this was the case then why did they wait 17 months to get married? Regardless, if the newspapers or the marriage records and local church records do not reflect a marriage record for _____ Key and Bertha Whiteside or Campbell, then it looks like maybe the Key affair resulted in an illegitimate birth.

Check to see if there are any _____ Key single males living in close proximity to Bertha in the 1900 census. Interesting that Bertha is living in the Johnson Township area of Washington County and moves to near Hinch in Liberty Township, Crawford County right before the birth of son; Charles. Either, she was dating one of those Crawford County Key boys and they didn't marry or she left Washington County due to her pregnancy and wanted to be near the Key father. Remember, William Alfred Stroup moved from Desloge, Saint Francois County to Liberty Twp, Crawford County about the same time period 1900-1901.

1915 Burial of David McDonald Campbell

Hamilton Hollow Cemetery, Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States.

[Location given to me from son, Harry Campbell. I suspect Elizabeth (RUSS) Campbell had been buried in Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States when she died between 1872-1876. My reasoning for this is when David died in 1915 he was buried in this cemetery. When his 3rd wife Fannie (PRATT) Whiteside Campbell died in 1934 she was buried in the I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Sullivan, Meramec Twp, Franklin, Missouri, United States where most of her children and their spouses have been buried. Therefore, it appears David wanted to be buried next to his first wife, Elizabeth (RUSS) Campbell...if my hypothesis is correct.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009]

Research Note

You might notice there are several children missing from this Allen Carter family in the 1900 census. Apparently, all of Allen's previous children and all of Margaret's previous children were too many for their household to manage. Margaret's children from her marriage to James West namely, William Lloyd West, Cora Matilda (WEST) and Bertha M. (WEST) were all living with Allen's brother; William McKinley & Cynthia Ellen (BURGESS) Carter family as was Allen and Margaret's mutual children; Jesse Valentine Carter, Virgil Epperson Carter and Frederick Calvin Carter. To the novice, this "splitting" of the family may have indicated that the West and Carter children living with William and Cynthia were actually theirs. Even though William told the censustaker, that the West children were his brother's step-children, the censustaker only wrote down they were William's step-children, thereby confusing the issue. In the subsequent census' listing Jesse, Virgil and Fred are back in their parent's household. Also in the 1900 census, it looks like 3 of William McKinley & Cynthia Ellen (BURGESS) Carter's children were living with his brother Allen namely; John Wesley, Pinkney Albert and Sarah C. Research Note

Seems to be a discrepancy in identifying the parents of brother's; Virgil Epperson and Frederick Calvin Carter.

If you notice in the 1900 census Virgil and Fred are not listed with the Allen and Margaret Ann (LYNCH) Carter family. However, Allen's brother; William McKInely &

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Cynthia Ellen (BURGESS) Carter family in the 1900 census lists both these boys as their children. Other than the fact they list Virgil as a female it appears cut and dried that these boys belong to the William Carter family. However, in the 1910 census of Allen & Margaret's family both boys are now listed as their children and they are not listed in the 1910 census of William and his 2nd wife; Nancy Jane (STROUP) Carter's family. To make matters worse, in our attempt to identify these boys' parentage, in the 1900 census they state their father was born in Tennessee, which is where William McKinley Carter was born. However, in the 1910 census they state their father was born in Georgia, which is where Allen Carter was born. Therefore, without seeing the death or delayed birth certificates, we really can't identify their parents.

1899 Birthblock of Frederick "Fred" James Campbell son of David McDonald and Frances "Fannie" Minerva (PRATT) Campbell

Frederick James Campbell was born in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 2 October 1899.

Date from 1900 census states she was born September 1899 in Tennessee..

Date from 1910 census states she was born 1900 in Missouri.

Date from the World War I Draft Registration card states he was born 2 October 1899

Date from 1920 census states she was born 1900 in Missouri.

Date from the death certificate states he was born

Date from a newspaper death notice states he was born

Date from the funeral home records states he was born

Date from the SSDI states he was born 2 October 1900

Date from the obituary states he was born

In the 1900 census his parents state he is 8 months old on the 15th of June 1900. This would make his birthdate as being October 1899. Therefore, he was born 2 October 1899.

Name Confusion

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

In the 1900 census he is called Frederick. In the 1910 census he is called Fred J. In the WWI draft registration he signed his name as James Frederick. In the 1920 census he is called James F. In the 1930 census he is called Fred J. In the 1940 census he is called James Frederick. The name on the headstone states James Fred. Therefore, there is some confusion as to the order of his name. When he was a young man, his parents named him Frederick James Campbell. When he is 20 years old and older, he changed the order of his name, however, without any real consistency. Therefore, I am going to believe his parents by calling him Frederick James Campbell.

Research Note

Unknown what prompted Thomas Livey & Polina (PRATT) Callahan family to move from Johnson Township in Washington County to Osage Township in Crawford County. Both of Thomas Calahan's parents had died long ago. One hint is Polina's father; Alexander moved from Johnson Twonship after the death of his spouses and moved to Boone Township in Crawford County living with his son Henry Winslow Pratt family. He lived with Henry in the 1900 census and the 1910 census. Apparently, Alexander was either living with Tom and Polina or visiting with them near Cherryville in Osage Township, Crawford County when he died in 1912. Checking the Washington County Deed Records might reveal if Tom owned property and when he sold it after 1900. Crawford County deed records won't help much since in the 1910 census he states he was renting. _

1982 Story about the death of Alexander Pratt

21 June 1982 Story about the death of Alexander Pratt

[In 1982, I used to travel throughout the middle portion of Missouri tracking down ancestors and related families. One such family was Thomas Livey and Polina (PRATT) Callahan family; Alexander's daughter who had lived in Cheryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri for many years and had children who still lived in that area. One such child was Fred C. Callahan born 4 July 1907 in Cherryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States and died 29 January 1992 at Rolla, Phelps, Missouri, United States. After receiving a reply to my newspaper ad

looking for Alexander Pratt's grave from Elsie Conaway, who told me where the gravesite was located, I started to contact the Callahan family and drove to Cherryville to visit Fred Callahan on 21 June 1982. He related the following story to me about his grandpa...Alexander Pratt.] When he was a little boy...about 5 years old, Grandpa Alex (Alexander R. Pratt) came to visit his Mom and Dad (Lina & Tom Callahan) who lived near Cherryville, Missouri. Little Freddie used to "pick" on his Grandpa by climbing on him and playing with him like little grandchildren do with their grandfather. [I know from personal experience that Brian and Jacob love to wrestle with me and get me down on the floor and climb on top of me and "beat me up". I've watched my father play with his great-grandchildren the same way.]

One day, Grandpa Alex was rockin' in a rockin' chair by the fireplace chewin' tobacco, when little Freddie ran into the kitchen where his mother was cookin' and said "Momma, sumptins wrong with Grandpa", Lina said, "You quit pickin' on Grandpa or I'll box your ears." They went into the front room and Lina found that Alex Pratt had died of a heart attack in his rocking chair. He was 79. This happened in 1912. Unknown if it was in the earlier part of the year or the winter months of the year.

Fred told me because the roads were slick with ice from an ice storm, they couldn't get the wagon with Alexander's body up the hills to take him back to his home in Sullivan to be buried, so they buried him in the Freeman Cemetery outside of Cherryville, Missouri. [I have driven those roads at Cherryville and they are extremely steep and even hard to drive up them when the road is clear let alone when there is snow or sleet on the highway.] Carac Pratt, Alex's son from his second marriage, put a small metal marker at the grave site in 1975, which was still there when I visited the grave in 1982. Luckily, I took a picture of that metal placque because I have now been told that someone took the placque from the cemetery and it is missing. This is a drawing of where he is buried. It is now 2008, so I am trying to remember from my 1982 visit.

Freeman Cemetery

back fence

Freeman Cemetery Road off of Highway 19

His gravesite was about 3 or 4 in from the back fence towards the gate. I had made 2 attempts to find his grave. I had ridin' my motorcyle from Springfield, Missouri where I was living and operating an insurance agency. On my first visit I walked all over the cemetery and found nothing. I had left the radio on the motorcycle and it was playing "rock" music and I was not in tuned with the spirit and I was unsuccessful. There was a spot that I felt a strange feeling come over me but I didn't know why, there was nothing there. On my second trip on a different day, this time, I left the radio off and Elsie Conaway came with me and showed me where he was buried. To my surprise, it was in the same spot I had previouly searched but found nothing. There it was...the metal marker clearly sticking out of the ground. How did I miss it the first time, I do not know. Maybe I wasn't intuned with the spirit and was blinded by the ways of the world and failed to see. I don't know.

That is the story on how Alexander Pratt became buried in the Freeman Cemetery, Cherryville, Crawford, Missouri, United States. There should be newspaper accounts of his death in the Sullivan, Bourbon, Steelville and/or Potosi newspapers. Those newspapers are kept at the Missouri Historical Society in Cloumbia, Missouri and I had to travel to Columbia to get to read them. Usually I was permitted to have one day because I was a working father and had to raise a family at the same time I was trying to research my family line. I found some references to the Pratts, Blantons, Carters and other families in those papers but time prevented me from doing a thorough research. Maybe one day they will be online.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

1982 Lou Bobbit's recollections of his Grandmother; Polina (PRATT) Callahan

Lou Bobbit is the Grandson of Thomas & Lina Calahan. He lives on Hiway 49 between Davisville and Cherryville. He stated that Polina Pratt often told the story of how her family came from Tennessee in a cart pulled by oxen. When I asked him why the Pratts settled in Washington and Crawford Counties of Missouri he said his grandmother Polina AKA "Aunt Lina" to the locals in the Cherryville area said the area looked a lot like their home in Tennessee. He also said she was a midwife and has delivered much of the population of Cherryville, Missouri. Story related to Floyd Thomas "Tom" Pratt on 21 June 1982.

Paulina married Thomas "Tom" Lively Callahan, son of James Madison Callahan and Annie Elizabeth "Betsy" Yoder, on 3 February 1887 in Washington, Missouri, United States. Thomas was born on 8 May 1853 near Elm Grove Post Office, Union Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States, died on 23 March 1932 in Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States at age 78, and was buried on 24 March 1932 in Martin Cemetery, Cherryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States.

1900-1910 Family Move

From Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States

Research Note

Unknown what prompted Thomas Livey & Polina (PRATT) Callahan family to move from Johnson Township in Washington County to Osage Township in Crawford County. Both of Thomas Calahan's parents had died long ago. One hint is Polina's father; Alexander moved from Johnson Twonship after the death of his spouses and moved to Boone Township in Crawford County living with his son Henry Winslow Pratt family. He lived with Henry in the 1900 census and the 1910 census. Apparently, Alexander was either living with Tom and Polina or visitng with them near Cherryville in Osage Township, Crawford County when he died in 1912. Checking the Washington County Deed Records might reveal if Tom owned property and when he sold it after 1900. Crawford County deed records won't help much since in the 1910 census he states he was renting. _

1900-1910 Family Move

From Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States

Research Note

Unknown what prompted Thomas Livey & Polina (PRATT) Callahan family to move from Johnson Township in Washington County to Osage Township in Crawford County. Both of Thomas Calahan's parents had died long ago. One hint is Polina's father; Alexander moved from Johnson Twonship after the death of his spouses and moved to Boone Township in Crawford County living with his son Henry Winslow Pratt family. He lived with Henry in the 1900 census and the 1910 census. Apparently, Alexander was either living with Tom and Polina or visitng with them near Cherryville in Osage Township, Crawford County when he died in 1912. Checking the Washington County Deed Records might reveal if Tom owned property and when he sold it after 1900. Crawford County deed records won't help much since in the 1910 census he states he was renting. _

Unknown what prompted Thomas Livey & Polina (PRATT) Callahan family to move from Johnson Township in Washington County to Osage Township in Crawford County. Both of Thomas Calahan's parents had died long ago. One hint is Polina's father; Alexander moved from Johnson Twonship after the death of his spouses and moved to Boone Township in Crawford County living with his son Henry Winslow Pratt family. He lived with Henry in the 1900 census and the 1910 census. 1900-1910 Family Move

Research Note

Unknown what prompted Thomas Livey & Polina (PRATT) Callahan family to move from Johnson Township in Washington County to Osage Township in Crawford County. Both of Thomas Calahan's parents had died long ago. One hint is Polina's father; Alexander moved from Johnson Twonship after the death of his spouses and moved to Boone Township in Crawford County living with his son Henry Winslow Pratt family. He lived with Henry in the 1900 census and the 1910 census. Apparently, Alexander was either living with Tom and Polina or visitng with them near Cherryville in Osage Township, Crawford County when he died in 1912. Checking the Washington County Deed Records might reveal if Tom owned property and when he sold it after 1900. Crawford County deed records won't help much since in the 1910 census he states he was renting. _

1900-1910 Family Move

From Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States

Research Note

Unknown what prompted Thomas Livey & Polina (PRATT) Callahan family to move from Johnson Township in Washington County to Osage Township in Crawford County. Both of Thomas Calahan's parents had died long ago. One hint is Polina's father; Alexander moved from Johnson Twonship after the death of his spouses and moved to Boone Township in Crawford County living with his son Henry Winslow Pratt family. He lived with Henry in the 1900 census and the 1910 census. Apparently, Alexander was either living with Tom and Polina or visitng with them near Cherryville in Osage Township, Crawford County when he died in 1912. Checking the Washington County Deed Records might reveal if Tom owned property and when he sold it after 1900. Crawford County deed records won't help much since in the 1910 census he states he was renting. _

From Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States

Research Note

Unknown what prompted Thomas Livey & Polina (PRATT) Callahan family to move from Johnson Township in Washington County to Osage Township in Crawford County. Both of Thomas Calahan's parents had died long ago. One hint is Polina's father; Alexander moved from Johnson Twonship after the death of his spouses and moved to

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Boone Township in Crawford County living with his son Henry Winslow Pratt family. He lived with Henry in the 1900 census and the 1910 census. Apparently, Alexander was either living with Tom and Polina or visiting with them near Cherryville in Osage Township, Crawford County when he died in 1912. Checking the Washington County Deed Records might reveal if Tom owned property and when he sold it after 1900. Crawford County deed records won't help much since in the 1910 census he states he was renting. _

The Death of Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 1982

21 June 1982 Story about the death of Alexander Pratt

In 1982, I used to travel throughout the middle portion of Missouri tracking down ancestors and related families. One such family was Thomas Livey and Polina (PRATT) Callahan family; Alexander's daughter who had lived in Cheryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri for many years and had children who still lived in that area. One such child was Fred C. Callahan born 4 July 1907 in Cherryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States and died 29 January 1992 at Rolla, Phelps, Missouri, United States.

After receiving a reply to my newspaper advertisement looking for Alexander Pratt's grave from Elsie Conaway, who told me where the gravesite was located, I started to contact the Callahan family and drove to Cherryville to visit Fred Callahan on 21 June 1982. He related the following story to me about his grandpa...Alexander Pratt.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

When Fred was a little boy...about 5 years old, Grandpa Alex (Alexander R. Pratt) came to visit his Mom and Dad (Lina & Tom Callahan) who lived near Cherryville, Missouri. Little Freddie used to "pick" on his Grandpa by climbing on him and playing with him like little grandchildren do with their grandpa. [I know from personal experience that my grandchildren; Brian and Jacob love to wrestle with me and get me down on the floor and climb on top of me and "beat me up". I've watched my father play with his great-grandchildren the same way.]

One day, Grandpa Alex was rockin' in a rockin' chair by the fireplace chewin' tobacco, when little Freddie ran into the kitchen where his mother was cookin' and said "Momma, sumptins wrong with Grandpa", Lina said, "You quit pickin' on Grandpa or I'll box your ears." They went into the front room and Lina found that Alex Pratt had died of a heart attack in his rocking chair. He was 79. This happened in 1912. Unknown if it was in the earlier part of the year or the winter months of the year.

Fred told me because the roads were slick with ice from an ice storm, they couldn't get the wagon with Alexander's body up the hills to take him back to his home in Sullivan to be buried, so they buried him in the Freeman Cemetery outside of Cherryville, Missouri. [I have driven' those roads at Cherryville and they are extremely steep and even hard to drive up them when the road is clear let alone when there is snow or sleet on the highway.]

Carac Pratt, Alex's son from his second marriage, put a small metal marker at the grave site in 1975, which was still there when I visited the grave in 1982. Luckily, I took a picture of that metal placque because I have now been told that someone took the placque from the cemetery and it is missing. This is a drawing of where he is buried. It is now 2008, so I am trying to remember from my 1982 visit.

His gravesite was about 3 or 4 in from the back fence towards the gate. I had made 2 attempts to find his grave. I had ridin' my motorcyle from Springfield, Missouri where I was living and operating an insurance agency.

On my first visit I walked all over the cemetery and found nothing. I had left the radio on the motorcycle and it was playing "rock" music and I was not in tune with the spirit and I was unsuccessful. There was a spot that I felt a strange feeling come over me but I didn't know why, there was nothing there.

On my second trip on a different day, this time, I left the radio off and Elsie Conaway came with me and showed me where he was buried. To my surprise, it was in the same spot I had previously searched but found nothing. There it was...the metal marker clearly sticking out of the ground. How did I miss it the first time? I do not know. Maybe I wasn't intune with the spirit and was blinded by the ways of the world and failed to see. I don't know.

That is the story on how Alexander Pratt became buried in the Freeman Cemetery, Cherryville, Crawford, Missouri, United States. There should be newspaper accounts of his death in the Sullivan, Bourbon, Steelville and/or Potosi newspapers. Those newspapers are kept at the State Historical Society in Cloumbia, Missouri and I had to travel to Columbia to get to read them. Usually I was permitted to have one day because I was a working father and had to raise a family at the same time I was trying to research my family line. I found some references to the Pratts, Blantons, Carters and other families in those papers but time prevented me from doing a thorough research. Maybe one day they will be online.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

My interview with Fred in 1982

Part of the above story that I had not related to the reader was my interview with Fred Callahan. Not only did I get information about Alexander Pratt but I asked Fred about his personal history. He related his story concerning his 4 wives but when it came to the dates and places, he had a poor memory and could not relate all the facts. Future family hisotry researchers are going to have to dig into the marriage books and records to verify and document marriages, divorces, dates, locations, spouses, including children of Fred's in order to complete his Cradle to Grave Profile. I have used what records are available up to 2013 taking me a whole day to researh, discover and compile all his spouses and a lesser individual would not have taken the time. At this point, I know more about Fred and his 4 wives than anyone alive but a field trip is going to be required in order to get those dates from those Crawford County Courthouse Records. FTP

[Seems to be a discrepancy of enormous proportions. When I read their marriage record in 1976, I was new to research and as an untrained observer, I thought I saw her name as Mrs. Other researchers have now reported that the Mrs. was actually Misf which was a double "s" indicating she was a Miss not a Mrs. After viewing the actual record, I must now conclude that it is written as Miss not Mrs. I have found in the census records a Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) in Franklin County, Missouri who was 20 years old. Alexander would have been 53 years old at the time of this marriage and surely the newspapers should have written an article about the discrepancy in age of this marriage. I have not had the time to check the Sullivan, Potosi, Bourbon or Steelville newspapers to verify any such article. After researching the Dugan family, I am convinced Adaline, the 20 year old in the census is the one he married...that would explain her ability to bear two children and dying young, from childbirth complications in 1892.]

1893 Childbirth of son, my grandfather; Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander Pratt

Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander Pratt was born 1 December 1893 at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States.

[Concerning his place of birth, my grandmother, Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt told me Lum was born in Catawissa, Calvey Twp, Franklin, Missouri. However, this is contrary to the location of his parent's residence which was at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Since the 1890 census was destroyed by fire, we do not have the location of his parent's exact residence. The 1880 census states his father was in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri and the 1900 census states his father lived in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri since both censuses are in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri then I would conclude that he was born in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri not Catawissa, Calvey Twp, Franklin, Missouri. Also, on his brother's, Jesse Lee Pratt's death certificate, it states that Jess was born near Sullivan, Missouri. Since Sullivan is the closest town to Hamilton Hollow then this also supports my assumption that Columbus was born in Hamilton Hollow. Without stronger evidence supporting the Catawissa birthplace, I believe that Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt was born at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Therefore, until new proof can be found to support the Catawissa birthplace, henceforth based on the above evidence I stand by my presumptive conclusions.]-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

Even though Henry Winslow Pratt says he owned the home in the 1910 census, I could not find the deed recorded in Crawford County deeds. I checked 1881 to 1917 deed records and could not find an entry where Henry Winslow Pratt was grantor or grantee. The home that my aunts and uncles remember between Crows Creek and Brazil Creek (see map) belonged to Columbus Francois Missey, Laura's father. He had entered a deed for 120 acres on 20 April 1889. Either he sold the property to Henry Winslow Pratt and they never filed the deed or the land was given to his daughter and son-in-law as a gift. The deed records need to be searched from 1917 to Laura's death to find out when C. F. Missey sold that land or how it was disposed. -Floyd Thomas Pratt]

Henry Winslow & Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) Pratt's Crows Creek Family Home by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 16 August 2010

Back in the early 1990's Bonnie and I were attending the Pratt-Graddy family reunion in Bourbon, Missouri. They always held the reunion on the 2nd Saturday of each September.

After much coaxing, I was able to convince Dad, Uncle Jim and Aunt Edith to take me to Henry Winslow Pratt's cabin location on Crows Creek. I had never been there and after all these years I now knew some history of that property. I wanted to research the property and surroundings taking pictures for future posterity.

So, with about 15 to 20 people, piled into several cars, we drove out of Bourbon to Sullivan took Highway D to Sappington Road and drove down to Thickey Ford Road near Greens Branch creek...I think. I think we had to cross Greens Branch to get to the cabin's location because there were no roads into the property.

When we got to the section where Thickey Ford Road makes a sharp left, the dirt road continued straight on down the hill...but, at the entrance of someone's property there was a padlocked gate so, we had to park our cars up by the gate and walk to the creek.

We walked down the hill towards the creek about 100 yards and when we got to the creek, the 2 wheeled road drove right into the creek and up the other side. You've seen those roads, where you have weeds and grass growing up in-between where the wheels drove. The creek was about 30 feet wide but not very deep.

It had rained the night before and the creek was up to about our knees-waist and it was flowing rather quickly and it was cold.

I was excited about being able to see the cabin location that Columbus Francis Missey had owned and gave to Henry & wife; Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) Pratt family.

Uncle Jim knew the most about the location and said that when they were little, he and his brothers used to visit the cabin before it burned down. Now all that was left was a rock foundation and maybe a chimney. He said he would like to take a metal detector and look for old coins around the cabin.

I was of course, gung ho! And ready to wade the creek but the rest being of older years, feigned off and I did not get to cross the creek and walk to the Pratt family home site. Uncle Jim said it was quite a ways up the hill.

So, my fellow readers, cousins, brothers, nieces, nephews, grandchildren and children I can not give you an exact location or my impressions of the area...maybe one day, you may get to visit it.

Besides my 30-year insurance career, I also held two real estate licenses; one for Gundaker Realty in St. Charles, Missouri (about 1992-1993) and one for All Aces Century 21 Real Estate Company in Bradenton, Florida (1995-1996).

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

One of the purposes of getting a real estate license besides making money-selling properties was to teach myself how to read maps. This has come in handy when reading deed records and looking for ancestor's property.

In the C2G Profile of François Columbier Columbus "Lum" Missé, I list the exact location of that property he bought on Crows Creek in 1890.

That property he lived at from 1890 to 1911, when Henry & family moved in, I guess it became too much for Lum, because the Sullivan Sentinel newspaper article on 3 November 1911 said Lum was moving to Bourbon, Missouri.

I imagine Lum's second wife; Mary Lavina (CAUFIELD) Missey may not have liked being crammed into a small cabin with Henry's large family.

He left Henry and Mary the house on Crow's Creek and Lum and wife moved to Bourbon where Lum died on 26 April 1916.

So, there you have it, one of my disappointments of life...locating the cabin where my 2nd great grandfather; François Columbier Columbus "Lum" Missé (Lum) lived and owned, where my great grandfather Henry Winslow Pratt (Win) lived and died (1914) and where my grandfather; Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt (Lum) was born (1896).

Who knows, maybe...one day I may still get there yet. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2010

1914 Sullivan Sentinel News

Sullivan Sentinel Newspaper, 27 March 1914, Friday:

"Winslow Pratt of Crow's Creek died Wednesday, March 25. He had been sick since Christmas. He leaves a wife and 8 children."

1970 John McCormick's Book (as it was written)

"Forest Hills and Vicinity" by John Steele McCormick, 1970, states the following about Henry Winslow Pratt family, Page 376:

Over a century ago Alex Pratt came from Pennsylvania and settled on Brazeal Creek and Greens Branch. He married a Kimberlin. Their four children were.

I. Henry Winslow,

II. Rynard,

III. Carric,

IV. Cleave.

Henry Winslow Pratt married Laura M. Missey, daughter of Columbus and Cynthia (TALBOT) Missey. They were the parents of the following eight children:

1. Columbus, b. Nov. 1, 1893; d. July 27, 19 ; married April 12, 1919, Rue Johnson, daughter of James Millard and Mary Jane "Dosia" (BARTON) Johnson of Bourbon. The family always lived in or near to Bourbon. Their children;

A. Edith, who married Chester Skaggs.

B. Carl, m. Mary of St. Louis.

C. Roy, of near Steelville.

D. Floyd, who with his family of wife and three sons lives in Sioux Falls, S.D. where he is executive vice- president of Atlas Life Insurance Company and is regarded as a leading efficiency expert.

E. Nadine, who died young.

F. James, of California.

2. Jesse L., b. 1895; d. 1962; buried National Cemetery at Jefferson Barracks; of Leasburg; m. Nadine (SKAGGS).

3. Allan

4. Virgil of Bourbon m Eula, daughter of Pete Richardson of Steelville.

5. Arthur, b. Jan 2, 1902; d. May 7, 1961; m. (1) Hazel Belle Stall of Kansas City; m. (2) Mrs. Beulah Cross of Detroit, Mich.; no children.

6. Mary

7. Ruth, b. Aug. 8, 1904; d. Sept. 26, 1961; married Oct. 23 1919, Allan Graddy of Coffeyton, Oct. 23, 1919; all their children attended Forest Hill School.

8. Orville, of Kansas City.

There was also a John Pratt family whose descendants spread into northern Crawford County. This family came from Tennessee, but if related to the Alex Pratt family, it is not known. John A. Blanton of Sullivan married Sarah (PRATT) of this family. There were two other wives.

The 1850 census, always unsatisfactory, especially in giving initials instead of given names of member of the families, lists a Pratt family in Crawford County at this date as follows:

"J. Pratt, age 23, b. in Ohio, and his wife, R. Pratt, aged 20, b. in N.C." and their two sons: N.C. aged 3 and J.M. aged one both here." (end of article)

This is the entirety of the text. However it is riddled with errors. When John McCormick was gathering information for his book, he sent letters to all the surnames he could find in the Crawford, Washington, Franklin county areas. One of these letters came to Floyd Theodore Pratt, my father.

Dad, not knowing a great deal about ancestors sent a copy of the letter to Rue Flavilla (JOHNSON) Pratt his mother; my grandmother. She wrote what she knew on letter paper about the Pratt, Johnson and allied families and sent it back to Dad in Sioux Falls, South Dakota where we lived in 1961. Dad added his comments to the information and sent all he knew with Grandmother's information and sent it to Mr. McCormick. Without my grandmother's effort there would have been no reference to the Pratt's let alone related families.

Concerning the validity of the information, as you know by now Alexander R. Pratt was born in Monroe County, Tennessee in 1831-1832. After a forced march on the "Trail of Tears" with his family, Henry and Nancy (CARTER) Pratt jumped trail in Crawford County, Missouri and by the 1840 census had settled in Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri.

After some time Henry and family settled in what is now called the Hamilton Hollow area of the Johnson Township of Washington County, Missouri.

In 1856 Alexander 1st married Mary (KIMBERLIN) daughter of Rhinard & Frances Jane (PETERS) Kimberlin(g). Alexander and Mary had 8 children; (1) Mary Ellen (PRATT) married James Franklin Studdard; (2) Michael Pratt died young; (3) Stonewall Jackson Pratt married Mary Louise (TAYLOR); (4) Frances "Fannie" Minerva (PRATT) 1st married Jackman Whiteside, 2nd David McDonald Campbell; (5) Polina "Lina" (PRATT) married Thomas Livey Callahan; (6) Henry Winslow Pratt married Laura Mary Magdalene

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

(MISSEY); (7) Rhinehart "Rinard" Pratt never married; (8) Minnie (PRATT) married George William Richter.

On 20 August 1885, Alexander Pratt married 2nd; Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) they had 2 children; (1) Carac Francis Pratt married Olivea Jane (JARVIS); (2) Cleveland Pratt died young. It appears Catherine (DUGAN) Pratt died in childbirth in 1892.

Even though John McCormick's article was full of errors, written back in 1970, it gave me a roadmap to verify and validate the information I discovered about the Pratt family...thank you, John McCormick...good job, well done. And thank you Dad and Grandmother Rue. -Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009]

1980's Family Story

Sometime in the 1980's, Ethel Isgriggs told me the story about Winslow and Columbus having an argument over cutting firewood. The story goes that "Win" told his son "Lum" to cut some firewood. Lum refused and Win told him he would have whip him if he didn't obey. Lum still refused and Win and Lum started to fight and brawl until Win won and Lum cut the firewood. The amazing thing about this story is Lum was around 14 to 16 years old. Win was in his 40's!

Ethel also said the Pratt's were hard cases and rough people. They were also financially poor. This hard case characteristic in their personality is a carryover from their "Trail of Tears" heritage and Cherokee culture when life was rough and survival was the order of the day. Hard times required hard men and the Pratt's took second seat to none.

This had it's positive influence and negative influence. The positive was that the Pratts were taught to stand on their own two feet and be accountable for their actions. This led to independence and strength. The negative result was a lack of ability to love unconditionally or to express their affections. Without our dear wives teaching us to even the scales of justice with love, we Pratts could not be the loving husbands and fathers that we are today. This story was also verified by my Great Aunt Eula Viola (RICHARDSON) Pratt.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

1994 Newspaper Article

Bourbon Beacon Newspaper, Thursday, February 24, 1994 page 12 (as it was written)

"The Henry Winslow Pratt Family" by Submitted by Harry H. Missey & James King
Over a century ago Alex Pratt came from Pennsylvania and settle on Brazil Creek and Green's Branch. He married a Kimberlin. Their four children were Henry Winslow, Rynard, Carric, and Cleave.

Henry Winslow Pratt married Laura M. Missey, daughter of Columbus and Cynthia (Talbot) Missey.

They were parents of the following eight children:

Columbus was born on November 1, 1893 and died on July 27, 19___. He married Rue Johnson, daughter of James Millard and Mary Jane "Dosia" (Barton) Johnson of Bourbon on April 12, 1919. The family always lived in or near Bourbon. Their children were: Edith, who married Chester Skaggs; Carl who married Mary of St. Louis; Roy, who married Bernice Clark; Floyd, who married Dorothy Bebmimi; James who moved to California; Nadine who died young.

Jess L. Pratt was born in 1895 and died in 1962 and was buried in the National Cemetery at

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Jefferson Barracks. He married Nadine Skaggs.

Virgil Pratt of Bourbon married Eula Richardson, daughter of Pete Richardson of Steelville.

Children of Virgil and Eula (Richardson) Pratt were: Rosalee married Jim Mayberry, Thelma married Dave Roland, Mary married Calvin Ivy, Don married Wilma George; Eugene married Lucille ?; Virginia married Leonard Slabert.

Arthur Pratt was born on January 2, 1902 and died on May 7, 1961. He married (1) Hazel Belle Stall of Kansas City, and then (2) married Mrs. Beulah Cross of Detroit, MI. There were no children born to either union.

Mary died young and is buried at Harrison Cemetery.

Ruth was born on August 8, 1904 and died on September 26, 1961, She married Allan Graddy of Coffeyton, on October 23, 1919, All 14 of their children attended Forest Hill School. Their children were: Dorothy who married Ernest Wilaker; Mildred married Allie Hurst; Bill who married Parline Davis; Harold who married a Mick, first name not know; Hilda who married PEarl Phillips; Ed married Cathleen Reeves; Evelyn who the A. Schmidt; Ben who married Evelyn Vayless; Don who married Faye Broy; Hazel married Ronnie Pennock; Dean married Pearl ?; Cecil married Rose Mary Madison; Betty married Leo Mayberry; and Ronnie who married Kathy McMillian.

Orville married Olive Mellow. Three children were bom to this union. They lived in Kansas City. Their and children were Orville, Jr., Kenneth, and Kathleen.

There was also a John Pratt family whose descendants spread into northern Crawford County. This family came from Tennessee, but if realted to the Alex Pratt family, it is not known. John A. Blanton of Sullivan, married Sarah Pratt of this family. There were two other wives.

The 1850 census, always unsatisfactory, especially in giving initials instead of given anmes of member of families, lists a Pratt family in Crawford County at this date as follows: "I J Pratt, age 23, born in Ohio, and his wife, R. Pratt, age 20, born in North Carolina and their two sons: N C aged 3, and J M aged one, both were born here." (end of article)

[This is what happens when people take other people's information without research or collboration. As you probably already have seen the similarities between the John McCormick book and the above information Harry Wrote in this article. When Harry was alive in 1990's I visited him at his home in Leasburg and he gave me many newspaper articles about the people of Crawford County. I have those in my collection of family artifacts. He admitted he did not do any research and just collected information for his weekly article in the Bourbon Beacon. This prompted my decision to submit articles to the Bourbon Beacon about families of Crawford County but the difference being, my material would be original with documented evidence. That's when I sent my articles to the Bourbon Beacon for about a year before they went out of business.

Concerning the article above, on the newspaper original that I have in the Henry Winslow Pratt family file, it is unknown to me where I got that article or who had written on it and made corrections. So, I did not write on it but maybe it was in Grandmother Rue's stuff that dad had given me.]

My 2008 Rebuttal to the error ridden articles

First of all Alexander Pratt married Mary Kimberlin, daughter of Rinhard (Rhinehart) Kimberlin(g) and Frances Jane (PETERS). Alex was from Tennessee not Pennsylvania. Looking at the 1860 census it looks like the censustaker wrote PENN for a birthplace for Alex but if you compare the T's you will see it acutally is TENN for Tennessee. Alex and Mary had 8 children. Alex married 2nd Miss Catherine Adlaine (DUGAN) and had sons; Carric & Cleveland Pratt.

Children of Alex and Mary (KIMBERLIN) Pratt: (1) Mary Ellen (PRATT) married James Franklin Studdard; (2) Michael Pratt died young; (3) Stonewall Jackson Newton Pratt married Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR); (4) Frances "Fannie" Manerva (PRATT) married 1st Jackman Whiteside, 2nd David McDonald Campbell; (5) Paulina "Lina" (PRATT) married Thomas Livey Callahan; (6) Henry Winslow "Win" married Laura Mary Magdalene (MISSEY); (7) Rhinehart "Rinard" Pratt never married; (8) Minnie (PRATT) married George William Richter.

Concerning the John Pratt family that Harry refers to, no connection can be found at this time. However, Harry's information was wrong again because the Sarah (PRATT) he mentions is not the daughter of John Pratt but the daughter of Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt.

Sarah Ann (PRATT) born 31 October 1834 and died 7 December 1896 married John Anderson Blanton son of Joshua and Benthany (HARMON) Blanton. After Sarah Ann died, John Blanton married 2nd Emma J. (TROUTT), 3rd wife _____ (SKAGGS).

Harry speaks of another J. Pratt in the 1850 census but I have not been able to connect him to the above Pratts. All the above information is documented in my 35 years of research database.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008]

Why did Alexander R. & Mary (KIMBERLIN) Pratt name one of their sons; Henry Winslow Pratt?
by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

The name Winslow is so unusual it is hard to determine where it came from. I can find no references or articles to famous people carrying that name circa 1860's or around the time of Henry Winslow Pratt's birth (1869). I can not find any family member in the Pratt, Carter, Blanton or Kimberlin lines that carried the Winslow name. However, there is a long shot I found through my research efforts, that may have a clue to the origin of the name.

David Jackson Staples married Mary Pratt (WINSLOW) in Boston, Massachusetts in 1848. This was the same year that gold had been discovered on the American River in California. David decided he had to go west to seek his fortune and with 25 men, including Mary's brother George Winslow from Newton, Massachusetts and her Uncle Jesse Winslow and others, formed the Boston-Newton Joint Stock Association.

In 1848 and with the intent of going to California to participate in the gold rush, David Staples kept a journal of the trip. Traveling by train and lake steamer they reached Ohio without incident. After reaching Cairo, Illinois by April 27th and heading north to Saint Louis (City) for provisions, the party was spurred on by a cholera epidemic in St. Louis and left for Independence, Missouri by paddleboat up the Missouri River.

On May 27th, Staples wrote of Indians, mule trouble, double-teaming the wagons through the wet prairie, a party"....returning haveing lost a husband father and friend of Cholera." Who this was and the party that returned is not mentioned. But, on June 8th, George Winslow died in Nebraska from cholera. David Staples and party continued on to California and in 1862 was one of the founders of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, in San Francisco.

Presumptive Conclusions

The following questions and assumptions are based on several coincidences from the David Jackson Staples story. These queries are meant to provoke contemplation and engage the reader into action, so someone, somewhere will desire to investigate and find the answers.

(1) Could the Mary Pratt (WINSLOW) from Newton, Massachusetts, that married David Staples have been a relative of Alexander or one of the other Pratts?

(2) Was Alexander Pratt familiar with the Boston Pratts?

(4) They may have stopped at Hannibal, Missouri for provisions. Hannibal is not far from our Pratts in Crawford County.

(5) Did the Staples-Winslow party stop and visit with the Pratts from Crawford County, Missouri?

(6) One thing is known...Alexander Pratt went to the California gold fields in 1848-1849. This story was passed down by Alexander to his son; Carac who told his son; Orville, who told me in the 1980's before he died about Alex making the trip to California.

(7) I have always speculated that if Alexander went west in 1848 to California for gold, he didn't go alone. I believe some of his brother's and maybe his father; Henry Pratt accompanied him.

(8) Let's take this one step further, could Henry & Alexander and his brothers have hooked up with the David Staples party when they were going through Missouri at about the same time?

(9) Could Henry Pratt, who we know was alive in 1842, could he have died on the trail out west? His wife, Nancy (CARTER) Pratt is a widow by the 8 October 1850 census date. After 35 years of researching, we still do not know where or when Henry Pratt died.

(10) David Staples' Journal says that " a party of their group lost a husband father and friend due to the cholera epidemic and returned". Could this have been Henry Pratt who died on the trail and his sons returned home to Crawford County, Missouri?

(11) Alexander is in the 1850 census with his mother and brothers. Why didn't he continue his westward trek to the gold fields of California? What would force him to return prematurely? Maybe the death of their father?

(12) Did Alexander's association with the Staples and Winslow men on the trail create an impression on Alexander, that in 1869 he named one of his sons--Henry after his grandfather and Winslow after his good friend George Winslow of Newton, Massachusetts?

(13) Alexander's son; Stonewall Jackson Pratt after reaching adulthood, dropped the "Stonewall" and took the middle name of "Newton". All the while he was alive in Columbia, Missouri since his adult life he was known as Jackson "Jack" Newton Pratt. Where did he get the name of Newton? From Newton, Massachusetts?

(14) Henry Winslow Pratt named one of his sons, Jesse Lee Pratt in 1894. I can find no previous references to the name Jesse in the Pratt, Kimberlin, Missey families other than Carter family which I am sure they, meaning Henry Winslow Pratt, was not aware of...Jesse Carter Sr. his great-grandfather. The Pratts did not have any written record of their family history so I am sure Jesse Carter Sr. was unknown to them. I think Henry Winslow Pratt named Jesse Pratt after Jesse Winslow from Newton, Massachusetts, who accompanied his father, Alex and David Staples westward to California.

(15) Once again Boston, Massachusetts pops up in my research. If the above hypothesis has any creditability, then maybe there was something to my great Aunt Eula's story about one of Jackson Pratt's boys stealing some Boston deeds from Laura (MISSEY) Pratt in the late 1920's or early 1930's. More on that story can be found in my article, "Who Stole the Deeds?" Should be noted that many older family members retold the stolen deed story to me, not just my great Eula Viola (RICHARDSON) Pratt.

I have a book titled " Still Flying and Nailed to the Mast", The First Hundred Years of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, by William Bronson, © 1963 by Doubleday & Company, Inc. Garden City, New York. This book gives an accounting of some of the journals of David Staples and the hardships they faced on their journey to California from Boston.

When my father was in the insurance business and owned his own agency, he contracted with Fireman's Fund Insurance Company as an agent (around 1969) and they gave him this book. He later gave me the book. Little did I know the mysteries I would find concerning the Staples, Winslow and Pratt families within its pages. I found it strange that the founder of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company had married Mary Pratt (WINSLOW). I realize without more collaborating evidence, the above hypothesis is purely speculation. In any case there are some coincidences that can not be overlooked. -Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

In any case, in the Crawford County area, Henry Winslow Pratt was known by his contemporaries as "Win" Pratt.

My Mission Statement by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

The above information has taken 35 years to track down, collect, aquire and accumulate. When I began my research into the Pratt family in 1975, to fupill the requirements of my church, very little was known about the Pratts.

Some knew of Winslow Pratt, only one person I met within the Pratt circle of family members knew of Alex Pratt, but just his name, but none not even the Blanton researchers had the facts straight or had done any serious research.

The research process was hard and difficult. Information could be obtained from very limited sources. Libraries, courthouses, cemeteries and personal stories from those who had lived and made history. Many hours were spent in front of microfilm machines looking at page after page, rolls after rolls of microfilm hoping to find your ancestor. Cemetery after cemetery were visited when one could make time between rasing a family and working to support that family.

In the process, I met many new friends and shared stories with people, like ships passing in the night, sharing what I knew and finding out what they knew. This research process has and always will be a collective effort.

The research process required me to drive hundreds if not thousands of miles and led me into dusty record rooms of old courthouses, hundreds of cemeteries, small libraires in little towns across the United States documenting and looking for my roots and origins.

I traveled in pursuit of the truth from coast to coast, we have been to Washington D.C. to the Library of Congress, the Library of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the National Archives to name a few places.

I have sat in the chairs of Senators of Congress and seen the great hall, have picked up from the dirt a hand made nail in Spotsylvania, Virginia from my wife's family ancestral homestead. Brought back a homemade brick from the same ancestral home.

Have copied countless numbers of documents from all over this country and spent a small fortune in pursuit of the great question...Who was I, why was I here and who were those who had blazed trails before me? And most important of all...Why wasn't I rich?

I was not only able to answer those questions, but much, much more.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

I discovered our Cherokee heritage and felt the sadness and heartbreak of Henry, Nancy and children leaving our Tennessee homeland, forced by bayonet on the "Trail of Tears", suffering the loss of children and family members on the journey. Having to jump the "trail" in order to prevent confinement in another concentration camp in Indian Territory...now known as Oklahoma.

I have walked over the hills of Monroe County, Tennessee on land where my Pratts and Carters lived.

Feeling, the struggle of the Pratts as they marched in the cold, without means and food to march over 800 miles to a strange land that they did not want to go to. Because of their Cherokee heritage, they were denied the rights of other men, to vote, to own land and to prosper as white men prospered.

Hiding in the caves of Johnson Township, Washington County, Missouri, from the US Army so they would not be forced to go to Indian territory, the Cave they hid in is now named Pratt Cave by the Army Corps of Engineers.

Henry and sons, building a log cabin on the bluff overlooking Pratt Spring, while white men like Absalom Blanton who married Henry's sister Cynthia, a Cherokee princess, was able to buy land and develop a mining operation and built a mansion in what used to be called Blanton Hollow is now known as Hamilton Hollow.

Living in fear of the government, Henry and family scratched a meek meager existence as did other natives in the region. Eventually, their sons and daughters had children who attended schools and became prosperous. Leaving a proud legacy for future generations.

I climbed the hills to see Blanton Cemetery and on the other hill, Hamilton Cemetery and found the unmarked graves of many of my ancestors. Many indentations of a burial site with a rock or a mason glass jar as a headstone, with artifacts inside, as was Cherokee custom.

So, remember my reader, while you bask in your proud heritage of your pioneer ancestors, remember...they walked over the bones of my native ancestors to get where they were going. Since my Pratts are only one line, I am a man in conflict, because the rest of my ancestors were those European pioneers.

Has my life been enriched because of my genealogy research? Indeed. Do I have any regrets, none, just wish I had more time on this earth to continue more research and find the answers to some intriguing questions. But, I leave that to you, the next generations, to find the answers...or not.

I and many like me have given you a road map to follow and pointed you in the right direction to find your family. To answer your questions for instance, "Who do you think you are?" I have found mine and I challenge the next generation to magnify what you have been given and leave a true legacy for your children and grandchildren. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 3 June 2010

Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile for Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 17 August 2010

In harmony with the first law of genealogy or family history research, i.e., documentation, I submit my famous Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile on this subject including all known documentation presented for the serious researcher. This has been done to help the serious researcher continue in their thirst for family history knowledge without a duplication of effort. All I ask is that you acknowledge my contribution to your family history research. My gift to you...Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

1874 Birthblock for Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) daughter of François Columbier Columbus "Lum" & Cynthia N. (TALBOT) Missé Missey

Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) was born in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 20 February 1874.

Date from 1880 census states she was born in 1874 in Missouri.

Date from 1900 census states she was born February 1876 in Missouri.

Date from 1910 census states she was born 1875 in Missouri.

Date from 1920 census states she was born 1875 in Missouri.

Date from 1930 census states she was born 1874 in Missouri.

Date from death certificate states she was born 20 July 1874.

Date from headstone states she was born 20 July 1874.

[This is another instance where the birthdate is not conclusive. In the 1900 census at age 24 she states she was born in February 1876. Her parents in the 1880 census states she was born in 1874. On the death certificate her son, Virgil was the informant and he made errors on the death certificate. Therefore, apparently he really didn't know when she was born. I believe that the 20th day was correct, that February was the correct month and 1874 was the correct year. Therefore, I'm going with 20 February 1874.]

Name Variations

I was told that her name was Laura Mary Magdalene (MISSEY), however, her mother in the 1880 census states her name is Mary Laura (MISSEY). Therefore since we are striving to record accurate information she will be recorded as Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY). Also, my father; Floyd Theodore Pratt gave me the information of the middle name of Magdalene.

[Should be noted that this is the only reference to Winslow's name as William. 1893 Childbirth of son: Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander Pratt

Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt was born 1 December 1893 at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. [Concerning his place of birth, my grandmother, Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt told me Lum was born in Catawissa, Calvey Twp, Franklin, Missouri. However, this is contrary to the location of his parent's residence which was at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Since the 1890 census was destroyed by fire, we do not have the location of his parent's exact residence. The 1880 census states his father was in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri and the 1900 census states his father lived in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri since both censuses are in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri then I would conclude that he was born in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri not Catawissa, Calvey Twp, Franklin, Missouri. Also, on his brother's, Jesse Lee Pratt's death certificate, it states that Jess was born near Sullivan, Missouri. Since Sullivan is the closest town to Hamilton Hollow then this also supports my assumption that Columbus was born in Hamilton Hollow. Without stronger evidence supporting the Catawissa birthplace, I believe that Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt was born at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Therefore, until new proof can be found to support the Catawissa birthplace, henceforth based on the above evidence I stand by my presumptive conclusions.]-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

The home that my aunts and uncles remember between Crows Creek and Brazil Creek (see map) belonged to Columbus Francois Missey, Laura's father. He had entered a deed for 120 acres on 20 April 1889. Either he sold the property to Henry Winslow Pratt and they never filed the deed or the land was given to his daughter and son-in-law as a gift. 1914-1916 Postcard

It looks like my Grandmother Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt's writing of the names on the postcard which states..."Mrs. Laura Pratt, Ruth Pratt, Mary Pratt and Arvill Pratt". The other writing says "from Mother to Lum" that looks like Laura's writing and addressed to her son, "Columbus "Lum" Pratt, Patsy, Missouri". This was in the possession of my Aunt Evelin Juanita (MILLER) Pratt, wife of James Henry Pratt and she sent a copy of the picture and postcard to my father with the following note, "This picture was a postal card that Luara Pratt sent to your father. I have copied it for you. In case you wonder, Patsy, Missouri was around Cherry Valley. Don't know what he was doing there unless he was doing a home. Juanita." Lum worked in masonry and was a tie maker. Unknown, if this took place before the death of Henry Winslow Pratt in 1914 on afterwards. I figure the date to be circa 1914-1916 because Ruth looks like she is 10-11, Mary looks like she is 6-7, Orville looks like he is 3-4 years old. Floyd Thomas Pratt, F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

Another picture Aunt Juanita (MILLER) Pratt sent to my dad is this picture showing Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) Pratt lying instate. Dad (Floyd Theodore Pratt) was 9 years old when he attended her funeral. She died on Sunday, 17 April 1938 at her home on Spruce Street at Bourbon, Missouri. This picture shows the open aired viewing of Laura in her front yard on Spruce Street. The funeral service was at the Pentecostal Church which became the Assembly of God Church across from her home where she attended for years. Dad says her coffin was opened for viewing sometime between Monday the 18th and Tuesday the 19th before she was buried on Wednesday the 20th. The woman standing at the head of the procession is her daughter-in-law; Nadine Mae (SKAGGS) Pratt, wife of Jesse "Jess" Lee Pratt. Family Story

Carl Benjamin Pratt told me that he remembers Grandma Laura Pratt used to carry a tobacco pouch under her petty coat. And when she chewed tobacco she would take a chunk out of the pouch and cut a slice off with a pocket knife. (Pioneer woman) FTP

Family Story

Floyd Theodore Pratt told me the story that his Grandma Laura Pratt told him that the Missey's owned land that the city of Boston is built on. Great Aunt Eula Pratt added to this that Laura Pratt had the deeds in her possession and one of the Pratt boys stole the deeds. She mentioned him by name, however I cannot verify this so no names are mentioned. FTP [See the report "Who Stole the Pratt Deeds"]

Family Story

Edith (PRATT) Skaggs told me the following story about her Grandma Laura Pratt. One day when Edith was a small child, she was riding in a buckboard wagon with Grandma Laura Pratt when they came to Brazeal Creek. It had rained the night before and the river was flooded. Grandma Pratt decided to go ahead and cross the creek without the benefit of a bridge. Edith said Grandma Pratt stuck her corn-cob pipe between her teeth and told the mules to giddy-up. As they crossed the high river, Edith said that the sides of the buckboard were almost flooded with river water. But this did not phase Grandma Pratt and they made it across to the other side safely. Edith said she was scared to death when the water almost overflowed into the wagon. [This shows the pioneer spirit that our frontier women possessed. Strong women raised strong men and kept families together in a time when survival against the animals, wildness and weather was a primary concern. Laura Dea Pratt my daughter; was named in honor of this courageous ancestor. FTP]

1893 Birthblock for Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander Pratt son of Henry Winslow & Laura Mary Magdalene (MISSE) Pratt

Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander Pratt was born in Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 1 December 1893.

Date from 1900 census states he was born December 1893 in Missouri.

Date from 1910 census states he was born 1894 in Missouri.

Date from 1917 WWI draft registration states he was born 1 November 1893 in Missouri.

Date from 1920 census states he was born 1894 in Missouri.

Date from 1930 census states he was born 1894 in Missouri.

Date from 1940 census states he was born 1894 in Missouri.

Date from the death certificate states he was born 1 November 1893 in Missouri.

Date from the headstone states he was born 1 November 1893.

Date from the obituary states he was born

In the 1900 census, his mother says he was born in December 1893, then I would be inclined to believe his birth date to be December 1, 1893.

[This is a prime example of ancestors celebrating their birthday on the wrong day, month or year. It happens so often it's not even funny. Due to the lack of availability to the participants and the reluctance of the government to release records, any one of us is at the mercy of the recorded document or heresy about our birth. Not only was

Lum's month wrong, but also Rue's birth month was also wrong. At this state, it doesn't really matter because what is important is to identify the individual for ancestral verification.-Floyd Thomas Pratt]

AKA

My father, Floyd Theodore Pratt told me his Dad's full name was Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt.

Nickname "Lum". Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander Pratt's name is a collection of names from ancestors. When "Win" and Laura were naming their children they liked to use ancestor's names. Since Grandpa Lum died before I was born, I guess he was named for the following reasons. Columbus after Laura's father; Francois Columbian Misse or better known as Columbus Frank Missey. This is where the "Lum" comes from. Benjamin I am at a mystery as to who this name belongs to. There were no Benjamins on the Pratt family side and on the Missey side there was Laura's brother; John Benjamin Missey. Maybe that's where they picked up the name Benjamin. Alexander is from "Win's" father's name; Alexander R. Pratt. So I am guessing but this seems a logical explanation.-Floyd Thomas Pratt (FTP)

Birth Location of Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander Pratt

Concerning his place of birth, my grandmother, Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt told me Lum was born in Catawissa, Calvey Twp, Franklin, Missouri. However, this is contrary to the location of his parent's residence which was at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Since the 1890 census was destroyed by fire, we do not have the location of his parent's exact residence. The 1880 census states his father was in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri and the 1900 census states his father lived in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri since both censuses are in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri then I would conclude that he was born in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri not Catawissa, Calvey Twp, Franklin, Missouri. Also, on his brother's, Jesse Lee Pratt's death certificate, it states that Jess was born near Sullivan, Missouri. Since Sullivan is the closest town to Hamilton Hollow then this also supports my assumption that Columbus was born in Hamilton Hollow. Without stronger evidence supporting the Catawissa birthplace, I believe that Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt was born at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Therefore, until new proof can be found to support the Catawissa birthplace, henceforth based on the above evidence I stand by my presumptive conclusions.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

"Meet Me in St. Louis, Louis", better known as just Meet Me in St. Louis, was a popular song from 1904 which celebrated the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, i.e., the St. Louis World's Fair. The song was published in 1904 in New York by Mills's firm operating under the name F. A. Mills . It was recorded by many artists such as William F. Denny and Billy Murray. The song and the fair were focal points of the Judy Garland , Meet Me in St. Louis . Garland recorded the song in 1944.

"Louis" in the song is pronounced "LOO-ee", akin to the French. The song is one of the few instances of pronouncing the city's name that way. It is normally pronounced "LOO-is". The song, which is generally styled in the form of a limerick , has many and varied verses, few of which are remembered today — unlike the chorus. In the original sheet music, the chorus is the same for the first two verses but varies in verses three through six, which are essentially jokes with the punch line in the chorus.

It has been suggested that the song was inspired, or its details influenced, by one or more actual murders. One of these took place in St. Louis, Missouri , on October 15, 1899, when Frankie Baker, a 22-year-old dancer, stabbed (or shot) her 17-year-old lover Allen "Al" Britt, who was having a relationship with a woman named Alice Pryor. Britt died of his wounds two days later. On trial, Baker claimed that Britt had attacked her with a knife and that she acted in self-defense ; she was acquitted and died in a Portland, Oregon mental institution in 1952. The song has also been linked to Frances Silver, convicted in 1832 of murdering her husband Charles Silver in Burke County, North Carolina . Unlike Frankie Baker, Silver was executed.

1906 Song: "King Porter Stomp"

Song: "King Porter Stomp"

"King Porter Stomp" is a tune by Jelly Roll Morton.

Morton first recorded the number in 1923 as a piano solo, but did not file a copyright on the tune until 1924. That year, Morton recorded a duet version with Joe "King" Oliver on cornet. Morton said that he had actually written the tune almost 20 years earlier, and that it was named after his friend and fellow pianist Porter King.

The Caisson Song

The song is based on the "Caisson Song" written by field artillery (later Brigadier General) Edmund L. Gruber, Lieutenant William Bryden, and Lieutenant (later Major General) Robert Danford while stationed at Fort Stotsenburg in the Philippines in March 1908. The tune quickly became popular in field artillery units. In 1917 the Secretary of the Navy and Army Lieutenant George Friedlander of the 306th Field Artillery asked John Philip Sousa to create a march using the "Caisson Song." Sousa changed the key, harmony, and rhythm and renamed it "U.S. Field Artillery." The recording sold 750,000 copies. Sousa didn't know who had written the song and had been told that it dated back to the Civil War. Although an Army magazine claims that Sousa passed on his royalties to Gruber other sources state that Gruber became involved in a prolonged legal battle to recover the rights to music he had written and that had been lifted (unknowingly or not) by Sousa and widely sold by sheet music publishers who reaped profits while Gruber received nothing. The music became so popular that it was also used in radio ads by firms such as the Hoover

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Vacuum Company. Gruber lost his battle in the courts. They ruled that he had waited too long to complain and that his music was by that time in the public domain. "The Caisson Song" was never designated as the official U.S. Army song likely because the lyrics were too closely identified with the field artillery and not the entire army. The official song retains Gruber's music, but with re-written lyrics.

1908 Song: "Take Me Out To The Ballgame"

Song: "Take Me Out To The Ballgame"

The words were written in 1908 by vaudevilles star Jack Norworth, who while riding a subway train, was inspired by a sign that said "Baseball Today — Polo Grounds". In the song, Katie's (and later Nelly's) beau calls to ask her out to see a show. She accepts the date, but only if her date will take her out to the ballgame. The words were set to music by Albert Von Tilzer, (Norworth and Von Tilzer finally saw their first Major League Baseball games 32 and 20 years later, respectively). The song was first sung by Norworth's then-wife Nora Bayes and popularized by many other vaudeville acts. It was played at a ballpark for the first known time in 1934, at a high-school game in Los Angeles, and researchers think it made its debut at a major-league park later that year.

1908 Song: "Shine On, Harvest Moon"

Song: "Shine On, Harvest Moon" "Shine On, Harvest Moon" is the name of a popular early-1900s song credited to the married vaudeville team Nora Bayes and Jack Norworth. It was one of a series of moon-related Tin Pan Alley songs of the era. The song was debuted by the composers in the Ziegfeld Follies of 1908 to great acclaim. It became a pop standard, and continues to be performed and recorded into the 21st century.

1909 Song: "Casey Jones"

Song: "Casey Jones"

<http://www.contemplator.com/america/casyjones.html>

There are several songs about Casey Jones, the famous railway man of the Illinois Central. The songs are based on the train wreck of April 1900 at Vaughan, Mississippi. Jones was a well-known and respected driver. He was driving No. 382, possibly for a sick friend. The switching station at Vaughan did not have enough room to accommodate the length of trains there. Flagmen were sent to warn Jones, but for unknown reasons, he was unaware of the problem until it was too late. Jones was killed in the accident. He left a wife and three children.

The first Casey Jones ballad was written by Wallace Saunders, Casey's African-American engine wiper. It was sung to the tune Jimmy Jones, which was popular at the time. Engineer William Leighton heard the song. His brothers Frank and Bert, vaudeville performers, polished the song, added a chorus, and began to perform it in their act. When the ballad was published in 1902 the words were credited to T. Lawrence Seibert, and Eddie Newton was credited with the music.

2008 Character Profile of Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander Pratt

According to my Dad, Uncle Carl and Aunt Mary, Lum was known as honest and hard working. Through research, I have discovered that monetary wealth seemed to elude him, but he was never poor because he had good friends and family. As a stonemason, he is responsible for building most of the fireplaces and many of the stone retaining walls that are still standing in the city of Bourbon to this day.

My father took me to several of the houses, barns, chimneys and retaining walls which he built and as a credit to his skill, engineering and professionalism, with less than a grade school education, these structures are still standing and functioning after almost after 70 years.

He was a disciplined man and he helped built character in his children. Those hard times required discipline and hard work to get through the depression years.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

He professed a belief in the Savior before he died and has been greatly missed all these years.

I never had the privilege of knowing my grandpa, in the flesh, but I knew him before I came to this earthly existence. We passed each other after he died on July 24, 1947 and before I was born January 3, 1948.

So, we got to visit for a little while, before it was my turn. I am looking forward to seeing him again and after all I have learned and know about him...I feel it will be even more of an honor to share his company.- Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

Date from the SSDI states she was born 19 January 1894.

Date from the obituary states she was born [none located]

[Since her parents said she was born March 1894, I would be inclined to believe that her birth month was March and not January. Where the mix up happened I do not know. Checking the newspapers at that time of birth might produce articles on the family and birth of the children.]

1922 Death of grandfather; William Barton

William Barton died at the home of son; Zacariah Alonzo & Mary Alice (SELF) Barton family on Blue Springs Road, Bourbon Town, Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States on 7 January 1922.

Research Note

The Barton house owned and lived in by William and Harriet Barton was located behind and south of the Johnson House down in the field. Sometime before their deaths, son; Zacariah Alonzo "Lon" & Mary Alice (SELF) Barton family moved into that home and took care of his parents. When they died in 1920-1922 respectively, Lon and family inherited that dwelling and moved out and rented that home to the Columbus & Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt family.

1924 Childbirth of son; Roy Lee Pratt

Roy Lee Pratt was born at Bourbon Village, Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States on 13 November 1924.

1924-1927 Family Move

Roy was born in Bourbon and Dad told me he was born at the Uhlinger Farm on Highway "C" outside of Bourbon, Missouri. Therefore they left the Johnson house at Walnut and Blue Springs Road and moved to the Uhlinger Farm between 1924-1927.

1927 Childbirth of son; Floyd Theodore "Ted" Pratt

Floyd Theodore Pratt was born at the Unlinger Farm, outside of Bourbon, Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States on 6 January 1927.

1938 Death of mother-in-law; Laura Mary Magdalene (MISSEY)

Laura Mary Magdalene (MISSEY) died 17 April 1938 at Bourbon, Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States.

1939 Spouse bought Life Insurance

Columbus B. Pratt bought a life insurance policy on Roy Lee Pratt, Floyd T. Pratt, James H. Pratt on 14 August 1939 from the Central Mutual Insurance Co.

1939 Death of daughter; Nadine Wilma Pearl (PRATT)

Nadine Wilma Pearl (PRATT) died on 9 December 1939 at McFarland Hospital, Hiway 63 & Pine Street, Rolla, Phelps, Missouri, United States.

1939-1942 Spouse's Occupation

Between 1939-1942 Columbus B. Pratt was an entrepreneur as a stone mason around the Crawford, Franklin, Washington County area. He kept good records of accounts from various work jobs and wages earned. I have included some of these records in the following pages.

miner. This was before the married Mary Edith (PRATT) in 1938. Columbus worked as a laborer doing road improvements, Lee Sr., worked as an assistant cashier in a bank, Chester worked as truck driver for a feed store. This was for Hartung Feed in Bourbon, Dad says Uncle Chester taught him how to drive in that old feed truck. Chester would slide over by the door and Dad would get behind the wheel and that's how he learned to drive. Chester and Edith lived upstairs in the house and had seperate cooking facilities.]

Reserch Note

James Millard Johnson Sr. owned the home at Walnut and Blue Springs Road. Even though Columbus is shown in the 1940 census as head of the house, it was actually owned by his father-in-law; James Millard Johnson Sr. As explained above, Chester and Edith lived upstairs and had seperate cooking facilities and would cook great meals that other members of the house would smell and envy.

1941 Death of father; James Millard Johnson Sr.

James Millard Johnson Sr. died in Bourbon, Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States on 21 May 1941.

1942 Spouse's Selective Service Registration Card

Grandma Rue could sign

Grandmother Rue's father; James Millard Johnson Sr. with partners started the Bourbon Bank. He also owned a mercantile store in Bourbon before he lost his fortune in the depression of 1929-1930. My Dad, Floyd Theodore Pratt says that his mother, Rue worked in her Daddy's store as a clerk when she was a young girl. Around the Bourbon area lived several deaf families. Grandmother Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt learned sign language, probably from her well educated and talented mother; Mary Jane Theodosia "Dosia" (BARTON) Johnson and could communicate with the deaf when they came in to purchase goods. He said that she was so fast that she could hold a whole conversation on one hand. Her mother also taught her to play the organ and piano, which she played for her church. Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

1961 June Inquiry

June 1961 Floyd Pratt received a letter from John Steele McCormick about family history to go into a book about the families of Crawford Co., MO. He sent this request to his mother Rue Pratt and she responded with the information below which some of it has been printed in the book " Forest Hills and Vicinity" by John Steele McCormick 1971. This information about the Pratts was forward to Mr. McCormick by my father Floyd T. Pratt.

1961 July Letter

[This letter was handwritten by Grandmother Rue and sent to my dad after John McCormick sent a letter to him requesting Pratt family information for his upcoming book; " Forest Hills and Vicinity". Dad sent the request to Grandma and this is one of the reply's she sent. I have laminated her letter for future posterity. Floyd Thomas Pratt]

Dear Children,

I received your letter, pictures and check this morning. I sure do thank you. and I was so glad to get the pictures and see what the kid's pony looked like. It sure looks good. The boys will soon be western cow boys, but they had better be careful. It seems so long since you folks were here.

Carl and Mary never comes out and I never see Roy I know he could come by and see me once in awhile and of course you and Jim lives to far away.

Calvin and Mary came back from Cal if but they haven't got work yet. I haven't seen them since they came back about a month ago.

Chester got fired from R.E.A. about a month ago. It sure hit them hard. He has got a few little carpenter jobs but don't amount to much. I don't know what he is going [Page2] to do. Draw unemployment I guess.

I am sending you all I can find out about the Pratts and Missey. Ed Missey at Potosi, Mo might know more If he wants to write to him.

I don't know when they came to Anthony's Mill, Brazil Creek, Greens Branch, and Crows

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Creek, they all lived around that neighbor hood.

Chester and John Beckett went fishing and caught some good catfish. Edith brought me over some and I am frying them for my supper.

Ruth Graddy is in Columbia Hospital again they don't think she can live long. Charlie is home from the hospital but has to be awful careful he can't do anything. [page 3]

married William Barton & Harriet King children- William, Alonzo, Docia (Barton)

Johnson, She married James M. Johnson who lived in around Bourbon. He was in the Mercantile business most of the time after he married. Their children- Claud, Glenn, Lee, Joy, Rue, and Millard Jr. (Deceased Claud and Glenn.) Lee lives in Mosquero, N.M. Joy married Chas T. Record of Anthony's Mill son of Thomas and Melzina Record. They live in Leasburg now.

Rue married Columbus B. Pratt son of Henry Winslow & Laura Pratt in 1919 their children, Edith (Pratt) Skaggs of Bourbon, Carl of St. Louis, Roy of near Steelville, Floyd of Sioux [page 4] Falls, South Dakota and James of California. These children were all born and raised in and around Bourbon.

Laura Missey's father was Columbus Missey. Her mother was Cynthia Talbot.

H. Winslow Pratts father was Alex Pratt, his other boys were Rynard, Carric, Cleave. His mother was a Kimberlin. He came from Pennsylvania and settled around Brazil Creek and Greens Branch.

If he [McCormick] wants to write to Ed Missey at Potosi, he might find out more. [end]

Research Note

[1] Uncle Chester was a victim of corporate downsizing and lost his job in 1961. As is the custom of businesses's in the US, when an employee becomes older and the corporations have to deliver more benefits, then they find ways to sever the relationship on older employees. Until the government puts a stop to this practice, older employees will always be replaced by cheaper, younger employees. Remember, business is the great whore of Babylon.

[2] This letter is where the information came from which Mr. McCormick wrote in his book. If you will read my notes on Henry Winslow Pratt I clarify this information and correct the errors.

[3] Grandmother Rue was a fantastic woman and knew a great deal of family history much more than this letter reveals. I wish I had spent more time with her, however, I would not have known what to ask her about the family, it has been only after all these 35 years of research do I now feel I could actually ask intelligent questions about the family. Floyd Thomas Pratt 26 Dec 2007]

Grandmother Rue's Family History

In response to John McCormick's request, Grandmother Rue wrote more loose leaf pages on family history. The originals are in the Pratt Archives. There are no dates as to suggest when she may have written this information. It is almost as if she was writing it for me and future generations. This is an equivalent of a Pratt Family Bible.

Research Note

Grandmother Rue's written family history is the tempplate I used to begin my family research in December 1975. Without this roadmap it would have been very difficult to connect the families. Remember, back then there were no computers, no databases, no genealogy programs and the sources where...libraries, headstones, courthouses, census records, death certificates, marriage licenses and word of mouth. Most sources had to be bought and researched from scratch. Thousands of man hours had to be expended in order to get the information you now enjoy with a click of the mouse. I am thankful and proud to have been one of the genealogical pioneers of the Pratt, Barton, Missey, Osborn, Johnson, Carter, Blanton, Brown, Bednarek, Kimberlin(g) and allied families which comprise the Pratt Progenitor Papers. month ago. I thought my gas bill would not be so big but it was so I called John Rohrer he said he would come and see about it but he hasn't so far, I have shut off all my gas but the hot water heater, am cooking[page 2] on my hot plate to see what is wrong if this gas is that high I am going to hunt me another place. I hate to move from here I like the place but that "housegas" sure robs you.

Jess Pratt is in the Veterns Hospital very bad with a heart attack he had early monday morning he was taken to the Sullivan Hospital then yesterday they taken him to the veterans. then they called last night and said he was worse and the Drs there said [page 3] there wasn't any chance for him to live.

Jim & Juanita were up by Saturday going to Rolla they taken me with them.

Is the kids school out up there yet? This is the last week of school here I sure dread it as we have some pretty mean kids living in these appart some of the churches are going to have vacation Bible school for about 2 weeks that will help.

Danny is going to the Baptist Vacation Bible school if they stay here long enough.

Chester is out of work [page 4] again and they are thinking of going to Florida. I was sorry to hear of Dorothy feeling so bad sure hope she is feeling better by now, and if she has to have an operation everthing will be fine. Will close and try and get this in the mail soon., Love Mother [end]

Dear Children:- Hope you had a nice Christmas. has Floyd ever went to the hospital for a check up. Hope he is feeling better. I had a nice Christmas I went to Edith Monday and stayed till today (Wed) afternoon. We all went over to Jims afternoon a while Christmas day Jim was home. I had bad luck before Christmas as my T.V. went out I had to have it fixed, then I broke my lower plate of my teeth [page 2] I have an awful time trying to eat. I grind my meal on the food grinder and have to pass up nuts (candy of some kind) apples and oranges. I did think I would try and sell my washing machine to have my teeth fixed but afraid I could not get what it is worth. I will just have to live on soup. if that old house over by Eulas ever gets empty I will have to go back and live in a cheaper house. My T.V. has started to acting up it keeps cutting off and on all the time since I got home, I think [page 3] I will sell out everything and go to the Soldiers home. Edith taken Danny to Sullivan this after noon to see the Dr and may go on to the hospital to have his tonsils out tomorrow. I am going over to Jim & Juantis tomorrow to stay with the kids while they go in to St Louis. Juanitas kids thought I just had to have a Christmas tree so Juanita got me one and I trimmed it up with some things Edith let me have. Must close Love Mother [end]

[page1] Bourbon, Mo Feb 23, 1963

Dear Children:- What has become of you? Are you sick? Have not heard from you for so long. We are still having around close to zero weather surely the real cold weather will let up some day. I went down to allenton and stayed a week with Mrs. Miller and Lottie. I stayed over at Jim's last night until 12 oclock with the kids while they went bowling Jim and his buddies that haul for Von der Ache and their wives were bowling. Juanita just told me Roy was in and she was afraid the bunch would [page 2] want to go again to night. I was sleeping a while ago and the next door neighbor ran in and wanted to call the fire department we had a fire, it was around my house and the wind is blowing and so strong. I heard the fire department called out again in about ½ hour after

I am having my teeth made will get them about the first of March. It will cost me $60.00. Juanita said they would pay $15.00. Roy said he would pay $15.00. Chester and Edith will pay that much and if you could pay that much they would be paid for. I sure hate to ask you kids to pay[page3] for them for I know you have expense of your own. I thought maybe he would let me pay for them by the month and I could pay for them this summer. I never ask him yet but he patched my old teeth up till I can wear them, but take them out of my mouth when I eat part of the time so if he won't let me have them I can get by just having them in when I set around it rests my jaws.

I am looking forward to you coming home Easter. I hope the other kids can be home then also. I am going to try and get two hens and have baked [page 4] chicken, dressing, dumplings and hope it won't cost you so much for eats when you are here. I am sending a picture of Roy's truck for Mike. Roy said he wanted one and he gave it to me and told me to send it to him. Well must close. Now answer soon and let me know how you all are. Love Mother

Snow is just about gone but we are supposed to get some more to-night. [end]

[page1] Bourbon, Mo Mar 27, 1963

Dear Children:-I recieved your letter sorry you are having trouble with the co. hope it gets straightened out. If you need the money you can quit sending it as I am in hops the cold weather is over and my gas bill will not be so big anymore and I think I can get along with out it this summer. We have decided to get a ham and bake it for Easter and are going to try and have all the kids home sure hope Jum and Roy will be in.

I liked to never got over the flu still feel weak and effects of it being so long to get over it. Joy and I went to Union Sun.[page 2] to the funeral parlor where Raymond Vaughn was. We got to see all the folk it had been so long since we seen them. He was burried here at the Boubon Cemetery Mon eve. Must close as I am running out of paper and I still want to write to Carls and Roys. Hope to see you soon. Love Mother

Jim and Juanita bought a brand new car. Edith had a tooth pulled yesterday and is going to Rolla Hospital the 8th to have all her teeth pulled. We will have to make her soup for Easter.[end]

Shanklin Memorial Trusts Funeral Plan

Rue Pratt bought a Memorial Trust Plan from Shanklin Memorial Trusts. The plan was $1202 the Shanklin Trust knocked off $202 and Grandmother Rue paid $40 cash and $10 check. Apparently, she was not able to keep up the $13.50 a month payment beginning 5 October 1966. She was concerned that she would be a burden on her children upon her death and as is apparent in her letters she tried to take care of herself but sometimes she needed help. Since Lum died in 1947, she has been alone taking care of herself with assistance from her children, mostly Edith & Chester. She is a strong and remarkable woman. 1 September 1966

16 May 1970 Letter

Between 1969 and 1970 Grandmother Rue was moved into a nursing home. By this date she was living at the McFarland Nursing Home in Rolla, Missouri. After living an active life for 76 years it was hard for her to adjust to the idleness of a nursing home. Also, as a good Christian woman all her life she found her roommates intolerable.

Dear children:-Well as I don't have anything to do but set and listen to this talking machine is going and can't be shut off and it is a broken record because it keeps repeating all the time. Orville and Marie were here to see me last Sunday eve, they were on their way home from Bourbon. They live up at the lake of Ozarks. He wants me to go to the family reunion in July but I don't think I will. I sure did enjoy the ride we taken while you were up here. Edith was here twice this week. I got a bouquet of Red Carnations in a big vase for Mother's Day from Roy and Bernice and your card thanks for remembering me on Mother's day. I also got a new duster. (I guess that is what you call them a dreww anyway) from Edith, three dollars from Jim and Juanita, $5.00 from Carl and [page 2] Mary. I taken the $5.00 from them and $2.50 of Jim's money and got me a permanent it cost $7.50.

Has Tom and Mary got a late picture of the baby if they have tell them to send me one. What is Roy and Berniece address send it to me so I can write and thank them for the flowers.

We have to go to bed at 7:30 the sun still shinning. I generally get afterwards and set up a while. Of course Betty (the talking machine) don't go to bed until 11 o'clock. Well I will close as it is 7:30 ans soon. Love Mother [end]

Dear Son:-I stayed up here from church this afternoon. I thought sure you or Jim would come and see me, but no you can't be bothered. I have sttod this just as long as I can. Edith won't listen to me, but there are two more nursing home starting in Bourbon. As many homes as there are in Bourbon but no I am stuck off in Rolla where my folks can't come see me you helped get me [page 2] up here, now help get me out of here and down to Bourbon were all my folks and friends can come to see me and I will know what is going on down there. Two women in this room smokes all the time and works on Sunday just the same as any other day. One curses and talks all the time, when no one listens she talks to her self.

Now if you boys don't get a hold of Edith and see that they cant find me [page 3] a place in Bourbon I am going to disown you all. I set here and want to cry all the time. I am piecing quilts but they treat us so dirty I don't feel like doing that. I don't care what a place you find for me I will live in a hog house just so it is in Bourbon so I could see Joy and Eula. Eula wrote and said there was a home putting up between Bourbon and Sullivan, there is where I would like [page 4] to be now please do something I have not long to live and let me have my last request (back in Bourbon) your mother Rue Pratt [end]

Dear Children:-What has become of you, I haven't seen you folks for so long. Did you sell your place (cabin). I have been looking for you folk out for so long. Carl, Mary and 4 children were out last Sunday morn. They sent me $10.00 not very long ago then they wanted to buy a quilt top but I never had any [page 2] finished and Mary gave me $30.00 then 2 quarters before they left. John is in the coast guards and was home waiting for an assignment. I got moved from 3 wing up on 3 floor I have a nice place and can look out and see the birds and Squirrel, and can watch the reays come up and be carried out to everyone and the bunch comes in here and sets and talks while [page 3] they wait on some more trays to come up. I have a sewing machine to sew on but I am having so much trouble with my back and head and eyes. O yest I forgot to tell you they have a yard out side where they bring the men out and I can watch them.(Ha Ha) They taken me over to have my eyes tested last Thursday, I thought they were going to fit me up for new [page 4] glasses but they just told me to go and be fitted up for glasses and go to a Doctor for a physical examination. Has Mike ever got married yet or is he going to school or working someplace. I haven't heard from Tom and Mary since they were here to see me long time ago. Well I must close answer and tell me all about everybody. Love Mother [end]

Subject: Rolla Hospital

Dear Mary, My aunt died on 9 December 1939 at the ?Farland Hospital in Rolla, Phelps, Missouri. I can't seem to find any information about the hospital. Could you please tell me the actual name of the hospital so I get it right in my records? Thank You, I have enclosed a copy of the death certificate. Floyd Pratt

Floyd, I ask the president of the Phelps county genealogy society your question. Here is her reply. If you need more here is her address Sheila Wood swood@rollanet.org

Mary,

OH YES!!!!!!!!!! It started out as McFarland Hospital and then to a nursing home. You never wanted to go there. That was the worst place, but some people had no other place to go when they got old or sick. I will try and tell you where it was: On Hwy 63 & Pine street (the corner) there a rock house there now,(on the south side) next to the campus book store. Behind the rock house was the hospital, where Vessel fitness center is now. I don't know if there was a street name at that time, and I don't know if there is street name now. I know that Gene McFarland is off this family and he might know more then I. My husband was in the hospital in 1945, when his great uncle was dying Bill's mother was always taking care of someone and this was Bill's dad side. She should been a doctor. You haven't been sending me any more queries. I know we have really slowed down for the holidays and it happens every year. Then spring hits. We now have a new mico reader printer, we went ahead and got it, left us with very little money to work with, but we needed that machine. Sheila [end]

In Memoriam to Rue Flavilla (JOHNSON) Pratt

I knew Grandma Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt very well. I used to stay with her when I was a small boy. I can remember she was one of the best cooks in the world. She made blackberry cobbler the best I have ever tasted. We used to go on trips to her house when we lived in Saint Louis and the whole family, Dad, Mom and us kids and grandma would go out into the country on some dirt road around Bourbon and pick blackberries on the side of the road. The bushes grew wild..I ate more than I picked.

Grandma Rue possessed a strong character with a righteous sense of good. She read the bible and attended the Pentecostal Church in Bourbon and played the piano or organ when called upon to do so. Later she changed to the Bourbon Assembly of God Church in Bourbon.

As a young boy always getting in trouble, she would defend me from my Dad when I would do something wrong and would say "Ted, you leave him alone." I used to run to her and hide behind her and she protected me from punishment from my Dad. Sometimes I would climb up on her lap and lay my head on her shoulder and just feel safe and comforted. I know I probably deserved the punishment but as small child I could get sympathy from her and enjoyed the attention and loved every minute of her protection. I remember giggling and laughing because I thought I was getting away with something.

When I was young, I can remember her going with us on trips to the zoo in Saint Louis and the Missouri State Capitol in Jefferson City, Missouri.

When I became a grown man with a family of my own, I used to bring my family out to Bourbon from Saint Louis to visit with her. She would give them the same unconditional love that she had always given me.

I remember one time she told me that as a little girl she took the train from Bourbon to Saint Louis to see the 1904 World's Fair. She said her Daddy bought her a new pair of shoes for the trip. She told me that the Johnson's were merchants and businessmen and well-to-do before the great depression. [This I have verified through research on the Johnson family.]

She was born of upper middle class stock and I don't know what she saw in a poor Missouri dirt farmer and war hero; named Columbus Benjamin "Lum" Alexander Pratt. She was probably taken over by the famous Pratt charm, that I have found all us Pratt boys possess. However, fortunate for us Lum and Rue married and raised our parents.

Her Johnson brothers didn't approve of the marriage and gave Grandma Rue a hard time. In fact it has been said that they didn't have much to do with her for a long time because of her spousal choice. Rue, being a woman of strong character overcame her brother's objections and prejudices and raised good children that are well respected and loved by those who know them.

Not all the Johnsons were against her, because her father, Judge James Millard Johnson Sr. let Lum and her after they were married, stay at the Johnson house on Blue Springs Road and Walnut Street until Millard died in 1941. Dad says that Lon Barton either bought that house or inherited it and charged the Pratt family for rent, $8 dollars a month while they lived there.

I can remember attending Sunday School with Grandma Rue at Bourbon at the Old Penecostal Church and feeling a sense of love from the people I met.

We picnicked and swam in the Blue Springs Creek and was scared when we crossed the infamous two wheeled Hog-Trough Bridge. If any of you remember that bridge, it was a nightmare. This bridge expanded the Meramec River with two small lanes that barely fit the wheels of the vehicle you were driving. Between the lanes was an opening where you could see the river flowing. There were only a few supports and the bridge was only about 1 to 2 feet above the river, mostly 1 foot or less. In some places, the water came right up onto the lanes and flowed over the wooden bridge. After a storm, in high water, the bridge disappeared under the river. As you drove over the bridge it would creak and crack and groan from the weight of the vehicle and always scared me to death. I think they have closed it now due to its unsafe condition.

Rue was an overflowing fountain of knowledge and stories of the past but being a child, I thought as a child and was too busy to listen or be interested.

One day when she was at the Rolla Nursing Home, I asked her why she named my father...Floyd. She said that during the great depression the Pratt family like others were in hard times and there wasn't much money for food and supplies. The grocer in Bourbon would give the family credit and would go out of his way to help the family. She said his name was Floyd and so to honor his kindness and generosity she named one of her sons after him.

After hearing that story, what used to be an unusual name, which I always disliked, I now wear with pride in honor of a man whose kindness and generosity helped families in time of need.

Now that she has passed over, I don't feel an acute sense of loss because I took advantage of the opportunity to fellowship and get to know her while she was here. I felt helplessness and cried because of the unhappiness and pain she suffered in her latter years from a body stricken with disease. When she passed on, I was happy that she would no longer suffer as she had.

I am glad her spirit is co-mingling with her father, mother, brothers, sisters and children and delight in the knowledge that she is fellowshiping in the presence of our Heavenly Father. I am thankful for the privilege of her association and because of that association, my life has been enriched with her acts of kindness and loving memories. This family history legacy I have compiled and leave behind is my way of honoring her for her unconditional love she offered everyone. I rejoice in the knowledge that I will one day fellowship with all the ancients and especially Grandmother Rue. To me, she will always be a rare star in the cluster of our Heavenly Father's heaven. -- Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

Rue F. Pratt was born January 19, 1894 in Missouri to James M. Johnson and Theodosia Barton. She was a widowed homemaker and died June 26, 1983 at the Briarwood Manor Nursing Home, 410 North Franklin Street, Cuba, Crawford, Missouri. She was buried at the Bourbon Cemetery, Bourbon, Missouri on June 29th, 1983. The Britton Funeral Home of Cuba, Missouri officiating. The informant was son; Floyd Pratt of 12706 Brumley Drive, Bridgeton, Missouri.

Research Note

When Grandmother Rue died, my family and I attended her funeral at her Assembly of God Church in Bourbon, Missouri. The pastor of the church was new to the congregation and area and since Grandmother Rue had been in a nursing home for several years, he didn't know her at all. Instead of asking if anyone would like to say a few words about her, no one who knew her was allowed to speak. In retrospect, I guess I should have forced their hand and said a few words. Aunt Edith and Uncle Chester were on vacation in the state of Washington and were traveling by motor home, so they missed the funeral. Otherwise, Dad, Uncle Jim, Uncle Carl and Uncle Roy and their families were in attendance and many friends who had known her. After her interment in the Bourbon Cemetery, we all went across I-44 and had lunch at a local restaurant and that's when Crystal said her famous line to Uncle Jim. As we were sitting there, Uncle Jim was sitting across from us at the table and I turned to Crystal; my 5 year old daughter and said, "That's your Great Uncle Jim" pointing my finger towards him. She pondered the statement for a minute and with an innocent query, looked him straight in the eye and said, "What makes you so great?" Uncle Jim and I were both startled and caught off guard and he said, "Because I just am." Satisfied, she focused her attention on something else. But Uncle Jim and I got a big laugh from that because it caught us both off guard and...it was a good question!

Letter to My Children (no date)

Dear Children,

I am sorry that I can't find time to talk with you about things that I have on my heart. We live in much too busy a world and our time together are usually so brief we have touched on the subject several times, but I find it difficult to say the things I feel in my heart lest I create the impression of being a "meddling" mother or fuddy duddy. However, I do feel very concerned about all of you, I dearly love you, I am very proud of all of you.

There may be nothing particular wrong with taking part in the activities of the world, but when it causes you to lose out spiritually or when it crowds out your testimony as a Christian, then it can not be the right thing to do. You know the bible says, "what fellowship hath right with darkness" and also "come out from among them be ye seperate". The truth is they are influencing you, you are not influencing them. There are days when we need spiritual strength.

Moses became a great influence for God because he refused the pleasures and fame of Egypt, choosing rather to suffer afflictions with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season. Our responsibilities are not only God-ward but man-ward. Our bodies should be presented as a sacrifice to God as a channel thru which he could work. The enemy of our soul is very subtle and he has only one objective...to devour us, he will endeavor to do it by fair means or foul.

Our love for Christ can cool so gradually that we are scarcely aware of it. I have seen this happen so often, they were on fire for God once, now they are let down, nothing but wasted years, nothing to look back but regret and can't hardly get a hold of God and feel a real peace again. The bible plainly declares that in the last days men shall be lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, and that "because of sin, many shall wax cold." I know you don't want this to happen to you.

There is no greater joy than to see your children walk in the ways of the Lord. It is also true there is no greater sorrow than to see them grow careless and indifferent in their love for God.

You are parents and realize the weight and responsibility that is yours, you need to be very consistent and faithful when it comes to your responsibilities to God. Further, your example and consistency is influencing your children.

I have tried to talk to you about these things but I hope and pray I won't say anything wrong or in the wrong way or do anything that would discourage you. I have brought you up in Sunday school and church. "O, God don't let me fail". I look around in church on Sundays and see so many with their children, like I use to do, and look around for my own children and grandchildren and wonder where they are.

These are the best years of your life. In them you should give of your best to him. The coming of the Lord can not be far off. The world will not become better, your children will have greater temptations to face than you had. They will need to be stronger than you have been, much depends upon you as a parent. I have tried to do my best and I am hoping and praying the Lord will keep his hand on you and protect you until you find him precious to your souls.

I hope and pray you will understand the spirit in which I write these things. I do not wish in any sense criticize you or be censorious, "God forbid", but I do feel a great responsibility for your spiritual welfare and would like to steer you by the danger points along the road if possible. I have always been very proud of you. You have never made me ashamed. I love you all, Oh so much. Now I have told you the weight I feel, I leave it with you.

I would of talked to you face to face, but find it difficult as I feel it so deeply and cannot restrain the tears. You must do as you wish, not to please me, but because you want to please the Lord.

With my prayers and hope to meet you all in heaven and the circle will not be broken...Love Mother

[No date on this letter, appears to be the last letter that Grandmother Rue Flavilla (JOHNSON) Pratt, wife of Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt wrote. Was given to me after Uncle Chester died. Aunt Edith gave it to Dad and he sent it to me. What a wonderful and powerful mother's plea to her children to follow the Savior and avoid the wicked ways of this world. How humble and loving she was, just as I remember her. If I didn't know she was of the Assembly of God faith I would say she was a Latter Day Saint because she demonstrates in this letter Latter Day Saint (Mormon) principles and doctrine. I love her dearly and miss her, but I know she is waiting in the Celestial kingdom with her family and I hope each of MY children will heed her words of wisdom. I figure she wrote this close to the end of her life after the 1960's. Love you all...Dad]

2012 Reminiscing by Floyd Thomas Pratt 9 March 2012

When I was a young boy, my parents would drive from St. Louis to Bourbon, Missouri to visit my Grandmother Rue Flavilla (JOHNSON) Pratt. The drive was long and tedious so, to pass the time I would play games in the car with my brothers.

One of those games was to see who could spot the Bourbon water tower first. The Bourbon water tower stood 50 or more feet up on steel stilts and could be seen from quite a distance down highway route 66.

Route 66 was a winding road and followed the contours of the landscape as characteristic of the gentle rolling hills of Missouri. From St. Louis to Bourbon was a long and tiresome drive and the roads were not as good as they are today with the new super highways.

The Bourbon water tower stood on a hill on Route 66, outside of Bourbon, and looked like a titan showing the way to Grandmother's house. Seeing the tower was an indication that we would be arriving at our destination shortly.

If we arrived on a Saturday, we would always stay overnight at her home, which was the old Johnson house at Walnut and Blue Springs Road and in my later years, was the home located across from my Great Uncle Virgil & Great Aunt Eula (RICHARDSON) Pratt's home behind her Pentecostal Church on Blue Springs Road.

We would all dress up in our Sunday best and attend church with Grandmother Rue and she was delighted that she could show off her son and his family to her Bourbon friends and family. Since, my parents took great pains to avoid the insides of a church their whole life, then this was amazing that Grandmother Rue could still exercise some form of influence over my father and have him agree to attend church with her.

I remember the inside of the church as small with rows of pews and being very hot in the summer. There were many people always in attendance and much excitement with song and testimonies. I remember they would pass around the basket for tithing and offerings and would hear the murmur from some of the attendees about the amount of money that someone gave or failed to give, in any case, this murmuring left an impression on my young mind and I always felt that tithe and offerings should be a private thing and not open to public scrutiny.

One of the attendees of the church, besides Great Uncle Virgil and Great Aunt Eula's family, was Charles "Charley" Thomas "Champ" & Joy Mildred (JOHNSON) Record family. Uncle Charley and Aunt Joy to me. Now I realize they were my Great Uncle Charley and Great Aunt Joy but at the time, being my Grandmother's sister, I always called her Aunt Joy, because that's what Dad called her.

She was a tall thin woman with not much weight on her bones but kind and loving and always helpful. Uncle Charley and Aunt Joy lived in a white house next to the church and after the main church meeting, the children would disperse to various locations for Sunday School lessons and at my age, our group would go to Uncle Charley and Aunt Joy's house and we held our lessons in the living room which was spacious.

Even though Aunt Joy was kind and loving, I can't say that about her husband...Charley.

Uncle Charley was a tall and also thin in stature and as I remember, very dark skinned...almost black. As an adult, I now realize why his skin was so dark but at the age of 5 or 6, I didn't understand.

Charley worked for Meramec Caverns as a tour guide and wore a visor on his head, you know, the kind of visor that had no top but covered his eyes from the sun. Due to his constant exposure to the outdoors, his skin received much sun and he darkened with a deep dark suntan.

Another peculiar thing about Great Uncle Charley...was his hair. His hair was long and thick, I would say 4 or 5 inches and coal black and when he put on the visor, the visor would push his long hair straight up and would stay like that even after he took his visor off!!!

I remember being at his house one time and he came home from work and with his dark skin and white eyes, he took off his visor and his hair was standing straight up. I became frightened by this sight and ran to my father for protection.

Now, in Uncle Charley's defense, he didn't purposely try to scare me but just the sight of his dark face, white eyes and long black hair standing straight up on his head, did the job.

After years of association with Charley Record, I started to call him "scare me Charley". Apparently, I was describing what I was feeling at that tender age.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Every time, I saw him, even with his hat on or hair combed, I called him "scare me Charley". That was my name for Charley Record. I remember my father; trying to console me and holding me for protection but I also remember they all got a good laugh out of my perceived fear.

As a child, he looked scary, but now, as I look back on that event, secure in the knowledge that it was not intentional and no harm was intended.

In retrospect, I remember, on several occasions, in my adult life, after beginning my family history research in 1975, walking through the Old Record family cemetery located on the old Thomas Hargis & Melzena Ann (PINSON) Record farm, which had overgrown with weeds up to my waist and only a few headstones could be read, and thinking of "scare me Charley" and the love I now have for him and his family.

Through the Gospel of Jesus Christ, I have been inspired to do my family history research and perform the Temple work necessary to reunite these families. In addition to the blessings I receive from my Temple experiences, I get to share with my readers, humorous anecdotes concerning some of these wonderful and extraordinary people.

In a way, I am blessed by my association with them, blessed by performing their temple ordinances and blessed in the knowledge that we will all be together again. In other words, family history research performed for the right reasons is a win, win situation for everybody.

Jesse "Jess" Lee Pratt was born in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 23 November 1894.

Date from the 1900 census states he was born November 1894 in Missouri.

Date from the 1910 census states he was born 1895 in Missouri.

Date from the WW1 draft registration states he was born 23 April 1893 in Washington County, Missouri.

Date from the 1920 census states he was born 1896 in Missouri.

Date from the 1930 census states he was born 1896 in Missouri.

Date from the 1940 census states he was born 1896 in Missouri.

Date from death certificate states he was born 23 April 1895 in Sullivan, Missouri.

Date from the grave marker at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery states he was born 23 April 1895.

Research Note

As usual in research, conflicting dates and places are evident in this individual. Since his mother stated on 15 June 1900 census he was born November 1894, and Jesse was 5 years old at that time then I suppose his mother knew his actual birthdate. Therefore, I would believe his mother and father in 1900 and say his birth was 23 November 1894 even though he used 23 April all his life. His father was living at the Blanton mansion at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Township, Washington, Missouri, United States, therefore his statement that he was born in Washington County in the WW1 draft registration is correct. At that time he filled out the registration card (5 June 1917) he was living in Sullivan, MO. -Floyd Thomas Pratt

"Meet Me in St. Louis, Louis", better known as just Meet Me in St. Louis, was a popular song from 1904 which celebrated the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, i.e., the St. Louis World's Fair. The song was published in 1904 in New York by Mills's firm operating under the name F. A. Mills . It was recorded by many artists such as William F. Denny and Billy Murray. The song and the fair were focal points of the Judy Garland , Meet Me in St. Louis . Garland recorded the song in 1944. "Louis" in the song is pronounced "LOO-ee", akin to the French. The song is one of the few instances of pronouncing the city's name that way. It is normally pronounced "LOO-is". The song, which is generally styled in the form of a limerick , has many and varied verses, few of which are remembered today - unlike the chorus. In the original sheet music, the chorus is the same for the first two verses but varies in verses three through six, which are essentially jokes with the punch line in the chorus.

It has been suggested that the song was inspired, or its details influenced, by one or more actual murders. One of these took place in St. Louis, Missouri , on October 15,

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

1899, when Frankie Baker, a 22-year-old dancer, stabbed (or shot) her 17-year-old lover Allen "Al" Britt, who was having a relationship with a woman named Alice Pryor. Britt died of his wounds two days later. On trial, Baker claimed that Britt had attacked her with a knife and that she acted in self-defense ; she was acquitted and died in a Portland, Oregon mental institution in 1952. The song has also been linked to Frances Silver, convicted in 1832 of murdering her husband Charles Silver in Burke County, North Carolina . Unlike Frankie Baker, Silver was executed.

"King Porter Stomp" is a tune by Jelly Roll Morton.

Morton first recorded the number in 1923 as a piano solo, but did not file a copyright on the tune until 1924. That year, Morton recorded a duet version with Joe "King" Oliver on cornet. Morton said that he had actually written the tune almost 20 years earlier, and that it was named after his friend and fellow pianist Porter King.

The Caisson Song

The song is based on the "Caisson Song" written by field artillery (later Brigadier General) Edmund L. Gruber, Lieutenant William Bryden, and Lieutenant (later Major

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

General) Robert Danford while stationed at Fort Stotsenburg in the Philippines in March 1908. The tune quickly became popular in field artillery units. In 1917 the Secretary of the Navy and Army Lieutenant George Friedlander of the 306th Field Artillery asked John Philip Sousa to create a march using the "Caisson Song." Sousa changed the key, harmony, and rhythm and renamed it "U.S. Field Artillery." The recording sold 750,000 copies. Sousa didn't know who had written the song and had been told that it dated back to the Civil War. Although an Army magazine claims that Sousa passed on his royalties to Gruber other sources state that Gruber became involved in a prolonged legal battle to recover the rights to music he had written and that had been lifted (unknowingly or not) by Sousa and widely sold by sheet music publishers who reaped profits while Gruber received nothing. The music became so popular that it was also used in radio ads by firms such as the Hoover Vacuum Company. Gruber lost his battle in the courts. They ruled that he had waited too long to complain and that his music was by that time in the public domain. "The Caisson Song" was never designated as the official U.S. Army song likely because the lyrics were too closely identified with the field artillery and not the entire army. The official song retains Gruber's music, but with re-written lyrics.

1908 Song: "Take Me Out To The Ballgame"

Song: "Take Me Out To The Ballgame"

The words were written in 1908 by vaudevilles star Jack Norworth, who while riding a subway train, was inspired by a sign that said "Baseball Today - Polo Grounds". In the song, Katie's (and later Nelly's) beau calls to ask her out to see a show. She accepts the date, but only if her date will take her out to the ballgame. The words were set to music by Albert Von Tilzer, (Norworth and Von Tilzer finally saw their first Major League Baseball games 32 and 20 years later, respectively). The song was first sung by Norworth's then-wife Nora Bayes and popularized by many other vaudeville acts. It was played at a ballpark for the first known time in 1934, at a high-school game in Los Angeles, and researchers think it made its debut at a major-league park later that year.

Song: "Casey Jones"

<http://www.contemplator.com/america/casyjones.html>

There are several songs about Casey Jones, the famous railway man of the Illinois Central. The songs are based on the train wreck of April 1900 at Vaughan, Mississippi. Jones was a well-known and respected driver. He was driving No. 382, possibly for a sick friend. The switching station at Vaughan did not have enough room to accommodate the length of trains there. Flagmen were sent to warn Jones, but for unknown reasons, he was unaware of the problem until it was too late. Jones was killed in the accident. He left a wife and three children.

The first Casey Jones ballad was written by Wallace Saunders, Casey's African-American engine wiper. It was sung to the tune Jimmy Jones, which was popular at the time. Engineer William Leighton heard the song. His brothers Frank and Bert, vaudeville performers, polished the song, added a chorus, and began to perform it in their act. When the ballad was published in 1902 the words were credited to T. Lawrence Seibert, and Eddie Newton was credited with the music.

Barbara, apparently you are LDS? What I have is extensive information about the family of Ire Skaggs from Londonderry, Ulster, Ireland following his line son; William & Mary (HATCH) Skaggs of same location.

These people are Nadine's ancestors. Since, I have all this information about the Skaggs family, i.e., my Aunt Mary Edith (PRATT) married Chester Milford Skaggs. Therefore, the Skaggs family interconnects in several locations with the Pratts. Why are you trying now to get Nadine's information? Floyd

I am not interested in going way back in time, just trying to fill in some of the more current missing dates and places. No, I am not LDS, however, I did volunteer at the church libraries in Sandy Springs and Marietta for several years. Barbara in Georgia genengolf@aol.com May God Continue to Bless America!

Thanks for your info on the Missee family. I too have found it "odd" Charlotte and her family seemingly dropped off the face of the earth! How research has changed, I had to apply to a judge in Ste G to obtain a copy of Jacques Rev War Affidavit, back in the late 1970's. JoAnn Missey, wf/o Lawrence, gave me her Missee research data back in the late 1970's. It was a wonderful start! Barbara in Georgia genengolf@aol.com May God Continue to Bless America!

Barbara, do you know the names of Emmett Ray Davidson's parents? I realize you think that he is Davison but not true. He did not fill in his World War I Draft Registration record...someone else did. He signed it and look at his pennmanship. He could not have written that information so clearly. Also, I found him always listed in the census records as Davidson. Let me know if you know about his parents. Floyd

Barbara, Check ancestry.com again for Emmett's ancestors, a miracle happened yesterday and I will be sending you a letter I wrote about it. Enclosed is a C2G Profile on Nadine. I will send you one also on Emmett.

I realize you think he is Davison, but what happened yesterday has not set that to rest. His parents are Major F. & Nancy Elizabeth (SMITH) Davidson Cupples and I have updated ancestry.com with that information.

Up until yesterday I did not know anything about his parents and neither did anyone else on ancestry.com.

So, something extraordinary has happened for the benefit of his family. Floyd

I had a note that I had this obit. However, I have been donating my old obits to various groups, found it this morning on the Franklin Co site. Ed Mackley is about to download thousands of more local obits I gave him a few months back on his site. Talmadge Sapp of Bourbon, Missouri passed away Monday, January 6, 2003 at the age of 81 years.

Mrs. Sapp was born on July 4, 1921 at Rosebud, Illinois to Emmett and Nadine (Skaggs) Davidson. At the age of six she moved to the St. Louis area. For a time, she was a waitress at the Holiday Inn in St. Louis and later, when she made her home in Bourbon, Missouri she was employed at Proctor Products. She retired from there after twelve years of employment. She was known as a loving mother and friend and will be fondly remembered by all who knew her.

She is survived by two daughters, Ruth Ann Hoerath and husband, Herman of Bourbon, Sondra Jane Mooney of Hallsville, Missouri, 7 grandchildren, Robin, Lynnette,

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Sheila, Joe, Stacie, Tracie and April, 21 great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends. Along with her parents, Mrs. Sapp was preceded in death by a brother, Emmett R. Davidson and a sister Ruth Hisaw.

Funeral services were conducted at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, January 9, 2003 from the Chapel of the Eaton Funeral Home in Sullivan with the Rev. Bill Hanshew officiating. Cremation with private interment followed.

The children of Nadine seemingly used Davison, Her son has his military records/social security as Davison. My guess is her husband used both. Ray, 1894-1946, has an X in the middle of his signature, obviously wasn't able to read and fill in the required info on his WW 1 draft card, poor fellow. But he does read Davison.

Yes, I do believe some power beyond us compelled me to contact you about Nadine. I am busy trying to get approximate birth dates for all the entries I have in my data base, VERY big job! Barbara in Georgia

Hello all...this just happened to me yesterday. Thought you might find it interesting and

Email 11 July 2011 to Barbara Geisert genengolf@aol.com

Barbara, I will need some time to digest your last emails and to "update" my records with what you have sent me before I can formulate some conclusions for you. Also, I want to prepare a Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile on Emmett but I have a lot of processing to do with the new found information. I will contact you when I have it prepared. Floyd

Email 11 July 2011 to Barbara Geisert genengolf@aol.com

Barbara, ok, I read one of your emails and you have her parentage confused. Enclosed is a pedigree chart showing 5 generations for her. When I send you my C2G profiles you will see my documented "proof" because by now you know I try to validate everything. Floyd

Email 11 July 2011 to Barbara Geisert genengolf@aol.com

Barbara, I have been able to look at some of the information you have been sending me on Emmet and have come to the conclusion, that most of my names, dates and places that Nadine had given me was not necessarily correct. First of all, she said his name was Emmett Ray Davidson. I see now some of his legal records call him Roy. Therefore, I am going to have to add Roy to his middle name in order to be able to "catch" other records when I search for information. Second, even though his relatives all spelled their names as Davidson, the frequent use of Davison has to be addressed and I have now added Davison to his last name of Davidson to catch all records pertaining to him. As I build his C2G profile, I will contact you to let you know what else I need. I will address his children later. Dad says they use to call Emmett Ray Davidson Jr....Junior when he lived around Bourbon. Floyd

Email 11 July 2011 from Barbara Geisert genengolf@aol.com

Thanks for the chart, I had already fixed Nadine's Skaggs connection. I note one other surname in question. You have Counce, as listed on son John's death certificate. 1826 Nancy Stearman Marriage Date: 20 Oct 1826 Marriage County: Washington Spouse Name: Jeremiah Wilkerson; Thanks again, Barbara in Georgia genengolf@aol.com May God Continue to Bless America!

Email 11 July 2011 to Barbara Geisert genengolf@aol.com

Barbara you did it again. You started talking about something that does not make sense. What chart? I sent you a Cradle to Grave profile C2G for Nadine which is far and above a chart. It shows a chronological history of an individual from birth to death, listing all major events that took place in a person's life including documentation validating the information. Second, Nadine didn't have a son named John and who are the Stearmans and Wilkersons. I know nothing about a death certificate for a John or Counce. Now down to something I have found. When you prepare a C2G Profile on an individual you must start with their parents so you can cover all the important events from the time of their birth until they get married and start their own family. This includes, sibling birth, family moves, deaths of parents and grandparents and so forth. In my preparation for a C2G for Emmett Ray or Roy Davidson or Davison I found the following information:

1910 Federal Census

Civil District 9, Chester, Tennessee, United States, page 196a, 19 April 1910, line 22, house 27, family 27

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

CUPLER, R.[Reuben] C.[Cloyd] head w m 57; Nancy C. wife w f 36; Lorader dau w f 11; Lorah H. dau w f 9; Aly N. dau w f 6; Rubin C. son w m 2; SPATH, E. R. step-son w m 15

[All born in Tennessee as was their parents except Reuben's mother born in North Carolina. They both have been married twice. They have been married for 12 years. Nancy says she has had 5 children born and 5 are living. Reuben is a farmer and is renting.]

Research Note

E. R. Spath is the above census is actually Emmett Ray or Roy Davidson, son of Major F. & Nancy Elizabeth (SMITH) Davidson. Why he was listed as a Spath one can only speculate. Maybe he was wanted by the law or was in trouble with local people but the giveaway here is that Reuben listed him as a step-son. Nancy had two boys in that age group; Elvis and Emmett Davidson. Elvis in the 1910 census is living with his grandparents but Emmett can not be located. In order for this boy to be a Spath would require that Nancy would have married a Spath. Checking the Tennessee marriages showed no Davidson-Spath marriage, therefore, this Spath boy fits the age of her son, Emmett. Also, in the above census Nancy says she has had 5 children born and 5 are living. These would be Elvis and Emmett Davidson, Lorada, Alley and Rubin Cupples, therefore accounting for all her known children. Therefore, E. R. Spath above IS Emmett Ray Davidson. Floyd

Email 11 July 2011 to Barbara Geisert genengolf@aol.com

Barbara, what you are talking about in the Pedigree Chart on Nadine not the C2G Profile. I forgot I even sent that to you. I apologize. Now concerning your questions. On John's death certificate they stated his mother's maiden name was COUNCE.

see: <http://www.sos.mo.gov/images/archives/deathcerts/1913/1913_00019033.PDF>

Either Counce was a previously married name or her maiden name. On the burial records it states the following:

Palmer Cemetery, Palmer, Harmony Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States
WILKINSON, JOHN P. 14 FEB 1837 07 MAY 1913 S/O JEREMIAH & NANCY (STEARMAN) WILKINSON. H/O MARTHA ANN (CASH) 10 SEP 1857. CO. I 33RD MO.

WILKINSON, MARTHA ANN (CASH) 13 FEB 1840 19 NOV 1905 D/O WILLIAM & MARY

Someone needs to investigate her C2G Profile to see if she had been a Counce or a Stearman. Floyd

Barbara, you are correct, the name is Smith, I see when I enlarged the census to 100%, that the tail of the P actually is the crossing of the T for the name Thomas on the next line merging with the m making it look like Spath. However, regardless of my misinterpretation of the Smith name, I guess by your silence you have concluded the same that E.R. Smith is Nancy's son, Emmett Ray or Roy Davidson? Floyd

Checking the Tennessee marriages showed no Davidson-Smith marriage after 1895, the death of Major Davidson and 1898 the year she married Reuben Cupples. In fact, we can't even find on-line Major Davidson and Nancy Elizabeth (SMITH)'s marriage, therefore, this Smith boy fits the age of her son, Emmett. Even though Henry Winslow Pratt says he owned the home in the 1910 census, I could not find the deed recorded in Crawford County deeds. I checked 1881 to 1917 deed records and could not find an entry where Henry Winslow Pratt was grantor or grantee. The home that my aunts and uncles remember between Crows Creek and Brazil Creek (see map) belonged to Columbus Francois Missey, Laura's father. He had entered a deed for 120 acres on 20 April 1889. Either he sold the property to Henry Winslow Pratt and they never filed the deed or the land was given to his daughter and son-in-law as a gift. The deed records need to be searched from 1917 to Laura's death to find out when C. F. Missey sold that land or how it was disposed. -Floyd Thomas Pratt]

PI Greenlee, you have messed around with my Cradle To Grave Profile once again on Find A Grave Memorial# 63327383. When I submitted these records they were not open for censorship or modification by amateurs like yourself. Because of your actions, you have made me an enemy and when we meet across the veil you will have to answer to me for your interference. This work was commissioned by Heavenly Father and interfering with the data and details is prohibited. I have spent 38 years perfecting my research material and you are such a coward that you won't even respond to my emails and apologize or even explain your actions. Taking someone else's work and altering the content is not permissible without written permission and since the content belongs to the original author, not FAG, not the manager of the gravesite, you are legally liable. I have requested find-a-grave to remove my bio material from your gravesites but they are inept and seem to fail in responding to complaints. Because of your interference with my hard earned work and FAG's lack of response to my complaints, for these reasons I have withdrawn my fellowship from FAG and will no longer help those who need assistance with family members. You are the ONLY person in all the thousands of submissions I have made to FAG to alter, change and delete material on any of my submissions. Remember me, for WE WILL MEET in the next life and I am looking forward to confronting you face to face. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

This person is quite a delemma. She should be with Albert in the 1930 census since they were married in 1926. But I can't find him or her. Albert died at an early age (39) in 1936. So we know where she was in 1936 in Kansas City, MO. The only other piece of information we have in that she was under the age of 21 in 1926 and her father J. H. Shepard gave his consent to the marriage so we know she was in Sullivan, Franklin Co., MO in 1926. Dad said they moved to California and then back to Missouri. Also, Albert had a brand new Excelsior convertible automobile when he came to visit Lum & Rue when dad was 5 or 6 years old. That would be 1933 or 1934.

Occupation

Mining Foreman.

1930-1935 Family Move

Albert moved to California.

1930-1935 Family Move

From California to Kansas City, MO.

Note

Dad said that Alber P. Pratt came to visit his mom and dad when he was 5/6 years old (1932-1933). Albert was driving a brand new Excelsior Convertable Automobile and had lots of money. That's all he remembers. The Excelsior-Mascot was a German manufactured in Cologne-Nippes from 1911 until 1922. Only a few, with two- and four-cylinder proprietary engines of 8 hp to 18 hp, were produced.-Floyd Thomas Pratt

Even though Henry Winslow Pratt says he owned the home in the 1910 census, I could not find the deed recorded in Crawford County deeds. I checked 1881 to 1917 deed records and could not find an entry where Henry Winslow Pratt was grantor or grantee. The home that my aunts and uncles remember between Crows Creek and Brazil Creek (see map) belonged to Columbus Francois Missey, Laura's father. He had entered a deed for 120 acres on 20 April 1889. Either he sold the property to Henry Winslow Pratt and they never filed the deed or the land was given to his daughter and son-in-law as a gift. The deed records need to be searched from 1917 to Laura's death to find out when C. F. Missey sold that land or how it was disposed. -Floyd Thomas Pratt]

1990 Obituary of Eula Viola (RICHARDSON) Pratt

Eula Pratt

Eula V. Pratt, daughter of the late William Eli and Jessie Coffman Richardson was born November 21, 1909 in Patsy, Mo. and departed this life on May 4, 1990 at the Rolla Manor Care Center in Rolla, having attained the age of 80 years, five months and 13 days.

Eula was a lifelong resident of Bourbon. She was employed at Paramount Cap in Bourbon for 12 years, and was a member of the Slenderella Club.

She professed her faith in Christ, was baptized and a member of the First Assembly of God Church in Bourbon.

On February 27, 1926, she was united in marriage to Virgil Pratt who preceded her in death on January 21, 1971.

Surviving her are: three daughters, Thelma Rowland and husband David of Bourbon, Mary Dye and husband Dannie of Waynesville, Gay Slankard and husband, Leonard of Bourbon: three sons, Curtis Pratt and wife Wilma of Waynesville, Eugene Pratt and wife Norma of Perryville, 21 grandchildren; 31 great-grandchildren: other relatives and many friends.

Besides those previously mentioned she was preceded in death by a daughter, Rosalie Mayberry; three grandchildren; and three brothers, Orville, Curtis and Earl Richardson.

Funeral Services were held at 11am., Monday, May 7, 1990 from the First Assembly of God Church in Bourbon with Bro. Harold Harrison and Rev. Martin Ivie officiating.

Interment was in the Hill Cemetery, Bourbon.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Hassebroek's Bourbon Chapel, Bourbon.

In Memoriam of Eula Viola (RICHARDSON) Pratt

What a hard life it must have been to have lost your young bride at the tender age of 26...when Jessie (COFFMAN) Richardson died. It was a shock to the whole community. William suddenly found himself a widower raising 4 children. Orville was 8 years old, Eula was 7 years old and Curtis was 5 years old and Earl was 2 years old and when their mom died, they also lost their beloved mother.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

When trying times befall upon a family like this, they are sustained by their faith and somehow endure. This endurance is a credit to the human character and gives hope to those of us who follow.

Eula grew up around her family, uncle & aunts, brothers and grandparents. As the only daughter in the house she learned self reliance very quickly having to take care of three brothers and her father. You would have to have a very loving spirit to be able to cope with all those boys.

This hard working, self reliant, independent woman appealed to the rough rugged Virgil Ranson Pratt in 1926 when they began courting. Eula was 16 years old and that tall lanky Pratt boy must have been handsome.

After a period of courtship, a union took place on 27 February 1926 and another strong, outstanding family took it's place in the Bourbon community.

My Great Aunt Eula, that I knew, in her latter years was mostly confined to a wheelchair. She was always happy to visit with her family at the annual Pratt Family Reunion held in Bourbon, Mo. held the second Sunday of September.

I remember she was very friendly and loving to all who took the time to visit her. Like all Pratt women, she was a great cook.

She took special interest in my family research and helped me with a great deal of information. She was a warehouse of knowledge about family and community history. After spending her whole married life in the Bourbon community, she knew everything that went on about the people.

At one family reunion I explained the reason for this research and was criticized by other family members. She told them "Hush, leave him alone", and quoted the biblical account of the Savior walking with his disciples, when they came upon other men not of their own faith teaching the gospel. The disciples criticized the men for teaching differently than what they taught, and the Savior told them to be quiet. He stated that if they are not against him then they are for him.

I was very moved by Great Aunt Eula's defense. I feel her support was from her understanding of this important work and I will always think of her with a warm loving feeling in my heart.

I wish I had spent more time with her concerning her life as a child growing up in Patsy and the Bourbon community. However, what always gets in the way of these interviews is time and responsibilities. Not enough time to take the time to get to know her better.

I miss her but will be seeing her soon.-Floyd Thomas Pratt

Date from death certificate states he was born on 3 January 1902 in Bourbon, Missouri.

Name Comment

It appears to be some confusion over his name. If you look at the 1910 census you will note that his father and mother call him Henry A. Pratt age 7. However, on the death certificate he is called Arthur Henry Pratt and the informant is Arthur H. Pratt. I think that he was called Arthur as he was growing up and figured that Arthur was his first name and Henry was his second name. In the 1920 census he is 17 years old and he is called Arthur H. Pratt. So, do we believe his mother and father when he is 7 years old? I believe he was born Henry Arthur Pratt and his family called him Art and he grew up using Arthur Henry Pratt.-Floyd Thomas Pratt

Research Note

Even though Henry Winslow Pratt says he owned the home in the 1910 census, I could not find the deed recorded in Crawford County deeds. I checked 1881 to 1917 deed records and could not find an entry where Henry Winslow Pratt was grantor or grantee. The home that my aunts and uncles remember between Crows Creek and Brazil Creek (see map) belonged to Columbus Francois Missey. He had entered a deed for 120 acres on 20 April 1889. Either he sold the property to Henry Winslow Pratt and they never filed the deed or the land was given to his daughter and son-in-law as a gift. The deed records need to be searched from 1917 to Laura's death to find out when C.F. Missey sold that land or how it was disposed. -Floyd Thomas Pratt

1970 John McCormick's Book (as it was written)

"Forest Hills and Vicinity" by John Steele McCormick, 1970, states the following about Henry Winslow Pratt family, Page 376:

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

5. Arthur, b. Jan 2, 1902; d. May 7, 1961; m. (1) Hazel Belle Stall of Kansas City; m. (2) Mrs. Beulah Cross of Detroit, Mich.; no children.

The Amazing Wives of Henry Arthur "Art" Pratt by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 8 June 2008

Starting with the 1970 book, "Forest Hills and Vicinity" by John Steele McCormick, 1970, stated the following about the Henry Winslow Pratt family, on page 376;

5. Arthur, b. Jan 2, 1902; d. May 7, 1961; m. (1) Hazel Belle Stall of Kansas City; m. (2) Mrs. Beulah Cross of Detroit, Mich.; no children.

That's all I had, very little to go on, but the John McCormick book gave me a hint as to Art's first wife's name.

On the surface Hazel Belle sounds like given names Stall did not sound like a maiden name.

Checking ancestry.com resources left a blank. To make matters worse, Art and Hazel had not been listed in a census together to give me an age for her or a birth location. All I knew about her...she was Hazel Belle Stall from Kansas City, Missouri.

When researching deceased ancestors going from birth to grave in the normal procedure (C2G) or cradle to grave. However, when looking for recently live ancestors going from last point known to birth is the correct procedure. This was no exception.

Starting with the last known available census 1930, I was looking for a Hazel Belle Stall hopefully in Kansas City, Missouri. Longshot...Bingo!

Living at 6910 East 37th Street, Ward 14 Block 368, Kansas City, Jackson, Missouri, United States, page 160b, 12 April 1930, line 62, house 6910 was the following information:

STALL, Charles G head w m 52; Hazel B wife w f 36; SCHWARTZ, Albert sson w m 16; DARNELL, Harold D sson w m 19; COZIAH, James boarder w m 76; Joseph H boarder w m 45; WALTON, Ethel M boarder w f 40; VINCENT, Aden boarder w m 31; PHILPOTT, Elmer boarder w m 35; STALL, Harold nephew w m 22; SALING, Rutherford H boarder 69; Mary E boarder w f 65

[Charles was born in Missouri his parents in Germany; Hazel was born in Idaho her parents in Illinois; Albert was born in Wyoming his father in Pennsylvania his mother in Idaho; Harold was born in Wyoming his father in Iowa his mother in Idaho; Harold Stall the nephew was born in Missouri as was his parents. James Coziah, first married at age 21; Hazel's widowed father was born in Illinois and was his parents. Joseph H.[Harvey] Coziah first married at age 27; Hazel's divorced brother born in Iowa his parents in Illinois, Charles was first married at age 48, Hazel was first married at age 18. Charles owns a boarding house. Albert, Harold D, and Harold are single]

This census was the key to unlocking Hazel's life. It told me her husband's name Charles G. Stall and she had a son named Albert Schwartz age 16 born in Wyoming and another son named Harold D. Darnell age 19 in Wyoming and her father's name James Coziah age 76 from Illinois and a brother named Joseph Coziah born in Iowa..

It also told me that Hazel B. was 36 and born in Idaho. It also told me that Hazel's maiden name was Coziah, she had been married to a Schwartz, and she had been married to a Darnell. She had also been born in 1894 and was first married at age 18 in 1912.

Now it was time to arrange the order of these marriages and families. This was an unusual woman.

Timetracking...I went looking for her or her father or children in the 1920 census in either, Kansas City, Missouri, Wyoming or Idaho or Illinois maybe Iowa. Longshot...Bingo!

In the 1920 census of Freedom Precinct, Election District 13, Lincoln, Wyoming, United States, page 122b, 13 February 1920, line 96, farm 249, family 266 I found the following:

COZIAH, James head w m 61; BELLAMY, Hazel dau w f 27; Harold gson w m 9; Albert gson w m 5

[James is a widower and was born in Illinois as was his parents, Hazel is a widow and was born in Idaho her parents were born in Illinois, Harold and Albert were born in Wyoming, their father in Iowa, their mother in Idaho. James is a farm laborer.]

This threw another wrench in the works...Hazel had married a Bellamy! Now, let's get this straight, there was Great Uncle Art Pratt, Charles G. Stall, ? Bellamy, ? Schwartz and ? Darnell...so far.

The 1920 census told me that she was a widow, since son; Harold D. Darnell was born in 1911 in Wyoming this gave me an approximate marriage date to? Darnell. Albert Schwartz was born 1915 also in Wyoming; this also gave me an approximate marriage date to his father between 1911-1915. Also it said that Harold and Albert's father were born in Iowa.

Timetracking...I went looking for her in the 1910 census...who knows what her surname would be this time? Longshot...Bingo!

I was amazed to find her in the following:

The 1910 census of Red Oak City, Ward 2, Montgomery, Iowa, United States, page 123a, 26 April 1910, line 69, house 1211, dwelling 324, family 333 living with her Aunt and Uncle.

KIRBY, Edward head w m 27; Stella wife w f 34; Opal dau w f 2; unnamed son w m 3/12; COZIAH, Hazel niece w f 17

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

[Edward was born in the United States his parents in England. Stella (COZIAH) was born in Iowa her parents in Illinois. Opal & unnamed were born in Iowa their father in US their mother in Iowa. Hazel was born in Idaho her father in Illinois her mother in Iowa. Hazel is a housekeeper living with her Aunt Stella. This is Edward and Stella's first marriage and they have been married for 3 years. Stella says she had had 2 children born and 2 are living.]

This census verified that Hazel was a COZIAH and using her maiden name. She was consistent with the birthplaces of her parents. It also gave me a clue that her Aunt Stella was a COZIAH before she married Edward Kirby.

So far, what this told me was that Hazel married Darnell first and right after this census date. Her son, Harold Darnell was born in 1911 in Wyoming. So, either she married in Iowa or for some reason she moved to Wyoming before Harold's birth.

The next step, you guessed it...look for the 1900 census. Bingo! Not what I was looking for. I was looking for her father, mother and siblings since she was born in 1894 she should be 6 years old.

Here's what I found...1900 census of Cokeville Precinct, Election District 5, Uinta, Wyoming, United States, page 185a, 8 June 1900, line 1, house 56, family 56 with the following:

STOFFERS, Claude head w m born February 1865 age 66; Annat wife w f born October 1852 age 47; Fredrick son w m born July 1871 age 28; Laroncy son w m born March 1876 age 24; Laura P. dau w f born February 1878 age 22; Louella dau w f born April 1882 age 18; Johnny son w m born May 1884 age 16; George E. son w m born December 1886 age 13; Oscar son w m born March 1893 age 7;

COZIAH, Hazel boarder w f born January 1893 age 7; TITTENGER,

Voluma boarder w m born May 1885 age 15

[Hazel was born in Idaho her parents in Illinois. Her father; James Coziah and sister Ethel Coziah are boarders in separate homes a few houses away. It appears James could not handle all four children after the death of their mother, so he split them up in different houses.]

This was unfortunate...no intact family. This told me that a great tragedy had befallen this family.

Checking neighbors I saw that other Coziah children had been spread out over the Wyoming territory. This told me from experience that when a widowed spouse has to contend with a large family, they needed help; neighbors and friends were the best choice.

My heart began to sorrow for this fragmented family and I wondered what else I would find. Checking the New Family Search files (NFS) on my church's website for a James Coziah born 1863 in Illinois, I found some help.

James J. Coziah born 31 August 1863 at Galesburg, Knox, Illinois, United States to Joseph (1840-1911) & Nancy (18342-1907) (WOOLEY) Coziah from Iowa and

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Illinois. He had married Eva May (OSTRADER) on 1 January 1886 in Atwood, Rawlins, Kansas, United States.

KANSAS!!! KANSAS!!! In my 35 years of research I have never seen anything like this family.

New Family Search information is submitted by church members. Most of the time, they fail to document their information. Remember, genealogy without documentation is mythology!

The submitters said that Eva died on 14 November 1893 in Logan, Utah. Based on my research into James Coziah, I was able to piece together a chronological history of his family.

James J. Coziah

James J. Coziah is born in 1863 in Galesburg, Knox, Illinois, United States, by the 1870 census he is living near the Colfax Post Office, Mound City Twp, Jasper, Iowa, United States with his parents.

By the 1880 census he is still with his parents and living in Mound Prairie Twp, Jasper, Iowa, United States.

By 1886 he has moved to Atwood, Rawlins, Kansas, United States and marries Eva May (OSTRANDER).

During that year he moved from Kansas to Des Moines, Polk, Iowa, United States where his son; Joseph Harvey Coziah is born on 7 September 1886. On 20 August 1887, a daughter; Ethel May (COZIAH) is born.

Sometime after 1887 they moved from Des Moines to Sun Valley, Logan, Idaho, United States.

I know you are saying, what possessed them to move there. You'll have to ask them.

Son; Frank Lee Coziah is born on 13 March 1889 in Sun Valley, Logan, Idaho, United States. Daughter; Hazel Belle (COZIAH) is born on 6 December 1892 and on 14 November 1893 the family losses their mother and James lost his wife; Eva May (OSTRANDER) Coziah.

With 4 children all under 7 years of age, and the prospects of remarriage in the western wilderness unlikely, he places his children with local families.

In the 1900 census he is living in the Cokeville Precinct, Election District 5, Uinta, Wyoming, United States with OLSON, Peter W 33; Fannie 28; Arthur G 4; Leslie K 3; Tressie M 9.12; JOHNSON, Millie 15; COZIAH, James boarder w m born August 1858 age 41; McKEE, John 42; Clara 26

[James was born in Illinois as was his parents. He is a ranch laborer. His daughter Ethel is living with the Henry Wheelock family on page 184a; his daughter Hazel is living with the Claude Stoffer family on census page 185a.]

James daughter Ethel is living with the Henry Wheelock family on census page 184a; James daughter Hazel is living with the Claude Stoffer family on census page 185a. His son Joseph is living at Nuphar Precinct, Election District 5, Bear Lake, Idaho, United States, page 313b, 27 June 1900, line 67, house 262, family 267 with MILLER, John O 32; Mary E 23; Boyd C 6; Mabel C 4; COZIAH, Joseph foster son w m born September 1885 age 14
[Joseph was born in Iowa and he didn't know where his parents were born. He goes to school.]

His son Frank is living with his grandparents at Hilburn Twp, Madison, Arkansas, United States, page 150a, 18 June 1900, line 43, house 235, family 245 with WOOLLY, Silas E. head w m born March 1836 age 64; Ellen K. wife w f born August 1834 age 65; COSIAH, Frank L. gson w m born March 1891 age 9
[Silas was born in Illinois, his father in Kentucky and his mother in Indiana, Kate was born in New Jersey as was her parents, Frank was born in Idaho as was his parents.

Silas was first married at age 43, Ellen at age 43. Ellen has had 3 children born and 0 are living. Silas is a farmer and is renting.]

By the 1910 census James is in Pilot Grove Twp, Montgomery, Iowa, United States.

Hazel Belle (COZIAH)

After the death of her mother, Hazel moved from Sun Valley, Blaine, Idaho, United States to Cokeville Precinct, Election District 5, Uinta, Wyoming, United States.

Hazel moved from Cokeville Precinct, Election District 5, Uinta, Wyoming, United States to Red Oak City, Ward 2, Montgomery, Iowa, United States to live with her Aunt Stella (COZIAH) Kirby between 1900-1910.

Paul E. Darnell and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) were married after the 26 April 1910 census date and before 22 October 1911. Probably in Iowa.

Hazel and Paul Darnell moved from Red Oak City, Ward 2, Montgomery, Iowa, United States to Freedom Precinct, Election District 13, Uinta, Wyoming, United States after they were married and son Harold James Darnell was born.

Paul E. Darnell born 12 March 1892 in Madison, Nebraska according to his World War I draft registration card in 1917.

Paul E. Darnell and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell were divorced from 1912 to date of Hazel's second marriage probably in Freedom Precinct, Election District 13, Uinta, Wyoming, United States.

John Albert Schwartz and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell were married 1913-1914 probably in Freedom Precinct, Election District 13, Uinta, Wyoming, United States.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Son; Albert Schwartz was born in Freedom Precinct, Election District 13, Uinta, Wyoming, United States in 1914.

John Albert Schwartz and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz were divorced or she was widowed from 1914 to date of 3rd marriage probably in Uinta or Lincoln Counties, Wyoming, United States.

?_____ Bellamy and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz were married from date of 2nd divorce or widowhood to 13 February 1920, the date of the 1920 census probably in Freedom Precinct, Election District 13, Lincoln, Wyoming, United States.

Husband Bellamy died between their marriage date and 13 February 1920 of the federal census probably in Freedom Precinct, Election District 13, Lincoln, Wyoming, United States.

Hazel is a widow in the 1920 census of Freedom Precinct, Election District 13, Lincoln, Wyoming, United States, page 122b, 13 February 1920, line 96, farm 249, family 266 with her father; James Coziah and her sons.

Widow Hazel (COZIAH) Darnell, Schwartz Bellamy moved from Freedom Precinct, Election District 13, Lincoln, Wyoming, United States to East 37th Street, Ward 14 Block 368, Kansas City, Jackson, Missouri, United States between 1920-1930.

Delbert Vail and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz Bellamy were married from 1920 to 1926.

Delbert Vail and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz Bellamy Vail were divorced in 1926.

Charles G. Stall and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz Bellamy Vail were married after 1926 before 12 April 1930 census date.

This is the census that started it all.

And then Hazel shows up in the 1930 census of 6910 East 37th Street, Ward 14 Block 368, Kansas City, Jackson, Missouri, United States, page 160b, 12 April 1930, line 62, house 6910 with STALL, Charles G head w m 52; Hazel B wife w f 36; SCHWARTZ, Albert sson w m 16; DARNELL, Harold D sson w m 19; COZIAH, James boarder w m 76; Joseph H boarder w m 45; WALTON, Ethel M boarder w f 40; VINCENT, Aden boarder w m 31; PHILPOTT, Elmer boarder w m 35; STALL, Harold nephew w m 22; SALING, Rutherford H boarder 69; Mary E boarder w f 65

Charles G. Stall and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz Bellamy Vail Stall were divorced or she was widowed after 1930.

Sometime after the divorce or widowhood of Charles G. Stall, Henry Arthur "Art" Pratt or Arthur Henry Pratt and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz Bellamy Vail Stall were married after the divorce date and before 1939, probably in the Kansas City area.

Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz Bellamy Vail Stall Pratt became a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and was baptized on 2 September 1934.

Henry Arthur "Art" Pratt or Arthur Henry Pratt and Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz Bellamy Vail Stall Pratt moved from Kansas City, Jackson, Missouri, United States to 2633 Park Avenue, Saint Louis, Missouri, United States sometime in the 1930's.

Hazel's father; James J. Coziah was residing with his daughter; Hazel and son-in-law; Henry Arthur Pratt at 2633 Park Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri died on 28 April 1939. The informant on the death certificate was Hazel Pratt. James was buried in the Green Lawn Cemetery, 8251 Hillcrest Road, Kansas City, Jackson, Missouri, United States.

My dad, Floyd Theodore Pratt says he paid $10 a month to Art & Hazel Pratt for room & board in 1942. He said they lived in a flat on Texas Avenue in St. Louis.

Henry Arthur "Art" & Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Pratt bought a home in Bourbon, Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States.

Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz Bellamy Vail Stall Pratt died at her home in Bourbon, Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States on 24 December 1959.

Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Darnell Schwartz Bellamy Vail Stall Pratt was buried with her father in the Green Lawn Cemetery in Kansas City, Missouri.

Hence; John McCormick's statement: Arthur's 1st wife: Hazel Belle Stall of Kansas City

Email from Pat Jameson on 3 May 2009

I met Hazel in California in the 40's while on a visit with my grandmother, Jessie Sizemore. We had lunch at her home and at that time, I believe she was married to a Pratt. They had a lovely home with a basement full of beautiful furniture from all over the world. But that is all I can remember.

She was the first wife of Delbert Vail who became the husband to my grandmother,

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Jessie Sizemore. Delbert Vail died and years later, my grandmother had her own temple sealing to Joseph Harvey Coziah set aside and was sealed to Delbert Vail on October 24, 1967 in the Oakland Temple. In NFS, it shows someone re-did this sealing March 5, 2008 in the Cardston Temple. Hazel and husband (Bellamy) had 2 children (Harold and Albert).

I do not know when Ellen Katherine Coziah married the second time to Silas E. Wooley (who happens to be related to another member of my family). Her death therefore, would be listed as Ellen Katherine Wooley. She is in one of the census as living as a widow with Eva May Coziah.

Eva May Ostrander was born 19 March 1868 in Galesburg, Knox, Illinois.
Eva May Ostrander Coziah died November 14, 1893 in Sun Valley, Idaho.

My notes on Ellen Katherine Price are - Home in 1880 was Wataga, Knox, Illinois per the 1880 Census. Mother and Father were both from New Jersey.
1910 census shows Kate E. married to Silas E. Wooley and her age as 75.

I am 73 years old and have been on 2 missions to Salt Lake City working on the NFS starting in 2002. I teach in the FHC on Sunday and work there on Wednesdays. I work in the Houston Temple Office on Thursday mornings. I am on a Service Mission now out of Salt Lake. I work with Quality Assurance checking the e-mails that Salt Lake missionaries send out to make sure they are kind, helpful and correct. The computer has a knowledge base that can be reached through the Help Center on the front page of NFS. Lets keep in touch and work together on this mutual line. Thanks for your information. Pat

Sister Jameson, my interest in the Ostrander and Coziah families comes from Hazel Belle (COZIAH). These two families have been a real pain to research. I have never seen in my 35 years of family history research a family move around so much. Hazel's 6th husband was my Great Uncle; Henry Arthur "Art" Pratt.

Concerning the Ostranders they were fun to research up to a point...after Henry P. Ostrander married a second time. Henry had married first Angeline () born 1811 in New Jersey listed in the 1850, 1860 census records. They had...6 verified children. Angeline died after the 1860 census and before her husband's second marriage to Ellen Catherine "Kate" (PRICE) you mentioned above. Now it gets sticky.

When I researched the Ostrander's I did not go into detail because my interest was the Coziah line. But after your inquiry and email I decided to investigate the Ostrander family line. This is where I ran into a problem. I thought that I had gotten my information from New Family Search, which is how I found you are a member, and upon investigation did not find the answers there.

I thought maybe I found this info from ancestry.com "trees" and did find others but it looks like they copied what I had put in. So, at this point I don't know where I made the connection and after investigation I now think that Jeremiah B. & Huldah (SALTER) Price (1850, 1860, 1870 census) are not her parents. I am not sure that she is even a Price.

Somewhere, someone gave me that info otherwise I would not have put it into my records. One of the problems with Ellen Katherine is she did not know how to tell the truth when it came to her birth year. In the 1870 census she says she is 35, same for the 1880 census. In the 1900 census she finally states she was born August 1834.

Do you know when she died? I figure between 1917-1920. This is where I lose her in the records. It is imperative that we find her death certificate or death notice in the newspapers in order to verify her parents. After looking at Jeremiah Price's census records in New Jersey, I believe his daughter Ellen A...; who was 5 in 1850 and Ellen 15 in 1860 and he had a dau Annie E. age 25 in the 1870 census which looks like Ellen Annie (PRICE) is not our Ellen Catherine "Kate" () that married Henry P. Ostrander around 1866-1868. Getting a copy of Eva May (OSTRANDER) Coziah's death certificate or newspaper obit might disclose her mother's maiden name.

If Ellen died between 1917-1920 do you have a copy of her death certificate? Probably in Lincoln County, Wyoming.

In the 1910 census she states that she and Silas were married around 1880-1881. This exact date would be helpful. If you are doing the temple work for this family let me know and I will let you do it. If not then I will process these family members.

Enclosed are my notes on the family. I am a Family History Consultant in the Bradenton 2nd Ward and have been researching for 35 years. Let me know what other help you may need. Please answer directly to: floydpratt59@verizon.net <mailto:floydpratt59@verizon.net> Floyd Pratt M.A.G.I., F.H.C. 2009

End of emails

If all goes well, I plan on a trip to visit Dad in September and he said he would show me the house that Art and Hazel lived in Bourbon and it turns out that Art's second wife Beulah lived there. If I get to go, I will take a picture for those of you who are interested.

Hazel had 6 husbands and maybe more. She had 2 known children and maybe more.

With all that she had been through and all of her trials and difficulties, she still managed to find the time to listen to the spirit and heed the calling for membership in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

I have a great respect and admiration for Hazel; I feel she was an amazing woman. I am looking forward to meeting her.

Beulah Trassy (COFFMAN)

After Hazel's death in 1959, Art married his second wife; Mrs. Beulah Cross from Detroit, Michigan.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

All I had to go on was John McCormick's statement Mrs. Beulah Cross of Detroit, Michigan.

This appeared to be impossible to track since I was looking for a marriage after 1959 and before Arthur's death on 7 May 1961.

So, I had resigned myself the obvious...someone else will have to figure out this mystery.

However, sometimes I feel the Lord moves mountains to solve mysteries especially when eternal consequences are involved.

For 35 years since I had known about Mrs. Beulah Cross of Detroit, Michigan, no one else in my family circles knew about her much except Dad, he said that Art and Beulah lived in Art's house in Bourbon, Missouri when Art died.

She lived in the home for a while after Art's death and then apparently moved back to Michigan. But, wait, I am getting ahead of myself.

One thing I knew; Cross was not her maiden name and she had lived or did live in Detroit.

With no census information to help, no death certificate, no marriage records, I had nothing...until.

I had self imposed a deadline to finish with this genealogy research by December 2010 when my annual subscription to ancestry.com renewed. I was going to be done once and for all after 35 years and wanted to start and finish some other projects I had started.

So, I worked my way down through my 27,000 people in this Pratt Progenitor Papers family tree starting with Henry Pratt, then updating the Carters, then each of Henry and Nancy's children and their spouses and parents, working my way from generation to generation to me.

When last month I got to Ambrose James Missey and Parry Jane (RICHARDSON) family and began updating the Richardsons, Parry Jane's brother is William Eli "Pete" Richardson who married Jessie (COFFMAN) on 5 January 1907 at Steelville, Meramec Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States.

William and Parry's parents are George Washington & Mary Lucinda "Cindy" (HOLLINGSWORTH) Richardson, old family in Crawford County, Missouri.

So, as I began my updating of William & Jessie (COFFMAN) Richardson family I remembered that one of their children is my great Aunt Eula Viola (RICHARDSON) who married my great uncle Virgil Ranson Pratt, brother to Henry Arthur Pratt.

Aunt Eula as we called her was a storehouse of knowledge and information about the people and families in Bourbon and surrounding communities. She was amazing!

But, unfortunately, although I had asked hundreds of questions, I didn't ask all the right questions when she was alive and now I go asking questions to people who just don't know.

That's where the Lord helps.

As I was filling in the blanks on Jessie (COFFMAN) Richardson, Aunt Eula's mother, I began my update on Jessie' parents; Joseph Lafayette "Fate" & Elizabeth Isabelle "Izzie" (DAVIS) Coffman.

You may ask what is "updating"? Updating is setting in logical order events and documents in a person's life that can be found in courthouses, like deeds, marriages, court records and cemeteries, census records from 1790 to 1930 and land records, military participation and any other records, like pictures, stories from other family members and the most neglected and untapped source...newspapers.

After I have assembled these records I set them in chronological order and call it the Cradle to Grave Profile. (C2G) I post these profiles on ancestry.com and send them to interested parties knowing that this information will give them a boost in their research so they don't have to repeat my 35 years of research. Saving them hundreds if not thousands of hours of research.

Sometimes these profiles are several pages long. Depends on how long the individual lived and how active they were in their community.

As I was updating Fayette & Izzie's family, Jessie (COFFMAN) happened to be the oldest child. After Jessie came her sister; Myrtle Ellen (COFFMAN) who married Arthur S. Lindsey. Followed by each child until I have all I can find and know on each individual, their spouses and their spouse's family.

Fayette & Izzie's had 10 children that we can verify and 3 we can't. When I got to child number 7, whom was Beulah Trassy (COFFMAN).

Going to ancestry.com to find out what others knew about her I found 9 trees with very little to no information on her...except one tree.

One tree had two husband's for her a Cross and a James. When I saw the Cross surname a bell went off in my head that was so loud I am sure others in the neighborhood could hear.

I began to start checking. I contacted that person on ancestry but she was very vague about Beulah and said that Beulah had been married 5 or 6 times. She said she knew a cousin, son of Beulah named Bobby Cross that had information about his parents.

I asked her to get him in touch with me and she has not replied. She kept giving me incorrect information about the Coffman family even though she claimed to have known them. She left children out of the family and made other claims that were proven false.

However, when I told her that I thought my Uncle Henry Arthur Pratt was married to Beulah, the next day she had updated her tree with that information...willing to accept others information but not willing to share...or even a thank you.

Nevertheless, I found through another researcher Beulah's headstone and picture on Find-A-Grave, which also listed Beulah's other husbands.

It appears that Beulah Trassy (COFFMAN) was a busy girl. Her first husband is listed as James Thomas Beauten born 1898 in Equality Twp, Gallatin, Illinois, United States and before the 1920 census he had moved to Detroit, Michigan.

I was able to find him in the 1900, 1910 and 1920 census before I lost him. If he did marry Beulah Trassy (COFFMAN) then the record must be in Michigan.

Her second husband was Charles Spoel. Could not find anything about him.

Her third husband and this is confusing, she is listed in the 1925 & 1930 Kansas census with a Richard Cross.

However, the person on ancestry.com whom I previously spoke about who was supposed to know her son; Bobby Cross put in her tree that his father was Kenneth Archibald Cross born 21 November 1906 at in Switz City, Greene, Indiana, United States <<http://places.ancestry.com/index.aspx?tid=5479606&pid=678296183&eid=10570846855>> and died 6 August 1975 in Belleville, Wayne, Michigan, United States.

I am a little afraid of this information because two days ago it was not there and now it shows up without explanation. She failed to list a marriage date and with her history of conflicting information it is hard to determine who really was Beulah's 3rd husband; Richard Cross of Kansas or Kenneth Cross of Indiana.

Therefore, until further evidence can be documented I am not convinced who her ? Cross husband was.

It appears that Henry Arthur "Art" Pratt was her 4th husband. No marriage location or date has been found but I figure Crawford County, Missouri, St. Louis, Missouri or Kansas City, Missouri holds the marriage record.

This marriage took place after the death or divorce of her 3rd husband and after the death of Art's first wife Hazel Belle (COZIAH) Pratt in 1959.

Knowing Art, at age 57 he would not have been running around up to Detroit, Michigan to get married. Beulah was probably down in Crawford County, Missouri visiting relatives and met widower; Henry Arthur "Art" Pratt.

They were married between 1959 and 1961 either in St. Louis or Crawford County or elsewhere and she moved in with Art at Bourbon, Missouri. She attended the local Pratt family reunions held in each September and became good friends with my Aunt Mary Edith (PRATT) Skaggs.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

After the death of Uncle Art in 1961, it is unknown how long she lived in their home before she moved back to the Detroit area where she married her 5th husband, Clifford D. James.

Clifford died in May 1973 and was buried at Parkview Memorial Cemetery, 34205 5 Mile Road, Livonia, Wayne, Michigan, United States.

Beulah Trassy (COFFMAN) Beauten, Spoel, Cross, Pratt, James died on 4 January 1984 at Taylor, Wayne, Michigan, United States. She is buried with 5th husband; Clifford D. James.

<http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GSln=James&GSiman=1&GScid=1344&GRid=7106224&>

I don't believe I would have purposely researched this person if I had not seen one of her husbands was a Cross.

The coincidence of a Mrs. Beulah Cross from Detroit, Michigan as John McCormick's book stated to be located was too much of a long shot.

However, what drew my interest to this Beulah was that she was born in Crawford County, Missouri, had married a Cross and was from Detroit, Michigan.

After hard research and many, many hours in these records I was able to put two and two together and connect Arthur's mystery 2nd wife listed in John McCormick's book as Mrs. Beulah Cross from Detroit, Michigan as one and the same as Beulah Trassy (COFFMAN) Beauten, Spoel, Cross, Pratt, James.

Great Uncle Art seems to have had a penchant for woman who had multiple husbands.

So, there you have it. A great mystery concerning two outstanding women and how they crossed the path of my great Uncle Henry Arthur "Art" Pratt. A 35-year or more mystery has been solved.

After I disclosed my findings on ancestry.com, now I see many of those 9 trees that knew nothing before about Beulah's husbands have now updated their trees with my information and added Henry Arthur "Art" Pratt as one of her husbands.

That is my purpose and mission...to shake up a complacency of apathy in the genealogical world about record keeping and research techniques.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

I have attempted to set a prime example of how research should be conducted and produced. Based on my findings you can write a biography of any individual using my sources.

And you may ask, where did the spark that enlightens and guides your mind originate...from my Heavenly Father, of course. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile of Hazel Belle (COZIAH) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 1 September 2011

In harmony with the first law of genealogy or family history research, i.e., documentation, I submit my famous Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile on this subject including all known documentation presented for the serious researcher. This has been done to help the serious researcher continue in their thirst for family history knowledge without a duplication of effort. All I ask is that you acknowledge my contribution to your family history research. My gift to you...Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

1893 Birthblock of Hazel Belle (COZIAH) daughter of James J. & Eva May (OSTRANDER) Coziah

Hazel Belle (COZIAH) was born in Sun Valley, Logan, Idaho, United States on 6 December 1892.

Date from the 1900 census states she was born January 1893 in Idaho.

Date from the 1910 census states she was born 1893 in Idaho.

Date from the 1920 census states she was born 1893 in Idaho.

Date from the 1930 census states she was born 1894 in Idaho.

Date from the death certificate states she was born 6 December 1892 in Idaho.

Since her mother died 14 November 1893 at Sun Valley, Logan which later became Blaine County, Idaho, United States, I would suspect that is where she was born.

I met Hazel in California in the 40's while on a visit with my grandmother, Jessie Sizemore. We had lunch at her home and at that time, I believe she was married to a Pratt. They had a lovely home with a basement full of beautiful furniture from all over the world. But that is all I can remember.

She was the first wife of Delbert Vail who became the husband to my grandmother, Jessie Sizemore. Delbert Vail died and years later, my grandmother had her own temple sealing to Joseph Harvey Coziah set aside and was sealed to Delbert Vail on October 24, 1967 in the Oakland Temple. In NFS, it shows someone re-did this sealing March 5, 2008 in the Cardston Temple. Hazel and husband (Bellamy) had 2 children (Harold and Albert).

I do not know when Ellen Katherine Coziah married the second time to Silas E. Wooley (who happens to be related to another member of my family). Her death therefore, would be listed as Ellen Katherine Wooley. She is in one of the census as living as a widow with Eva May Coziah.

Eva May Ostrander was born 19 March 1868 in Galesburg, Knox, Illinois.

Eva May Ostrander Coziah died November 14, 1893 in Sun Valley, Idaho.

My notes on Ellen Katherine Price are - Home in 1880 was Wataga, Knox, Illinois per the 1880 Census. Mother and Father were both from New Jersey.

1910 census shows Kate E. married to Silas E. Wooley and her age as 75.

I am 73 years old and have been on 2 missions to Salt Lake City working on the NFS starting in 2002. I teach in the FHC on Sunday and work there on Wednesdays. I work in the Houston Temple Office on Thursday mornings. I am on a Service Mission now out of Salt Lake. I work with Quality Assurance checking the e-mails that Salt Lake missionaries send out to make sure they are kind, helpful and correct. The computer has a knowledge base that can be reached through the Help Center on the front page of NFS. Lets keep in touch and work together on this mutual line. Thanks for your information. Pat

Sister Jameson, my interest in the Ostrander and Coziah families comes from Hazel Belle (COZIAH). These two families have been a real pain to research. I have never seen in my 35 years of family history research a family move around so much. Hazel's 6th husband was my Great Uncle; Henry Arthur "Art" Pratt.

Concerning the Ostranders they were fun to research up to a point...after Henry P. married a second time. Henry had married first (Angeline (____)) born 1811 in New Jersey listed in the 1850, 1860 census records). They had...6 verified children. Angeline died after the 1860 census and before her husband's second marriage to Ellen Catherine "Kate" (PRICE). Now it gets sticky.

When I researched the Ostrander's I did not go into detail because my interest was the Coziah line. But after your inquiry and email I decided to investigate the Ostrander family line. This is where I ran into a problem. I thought that I had gotten my information from New Family Search, which is how I found you are a member and upon investigation did not find the answers there. I thought maybe I found this info from ancestry.com "trees" and did find others but it looks like they copied what I had put in...so at this point I don't know where I made the connection and after investigation I now think that Jeremiah B. & Huldah (SALTER) Price (1850, 1860, 1870 census) are not her parents. I am not sure that she is even a Price.

Somewhere, someone gave me that info otherwise I would not have put it into my records. One of the problems with her is she did not know or tell the truth when she was born. In the 1870 census she says she is 35, same for the 1880 census. In the 1900 census she finally states she was born August 1834.

Do you know when she died? I figure between 1917-1920. This is where I lose her in the records. It is imperative that we find her death certificate or death notice in the newspapers in order to verify her parents. After looking at Jeremiah Price's census records in New Jersey, I believe his daughter Ellen A...; who was 5 in 1850 and Ellen 15 in 1860 and he had a dau Annie E. age 25 in the 1870 census which looks like Ellen Annie (PRICE) is not our Ellen Catherine "Kate" () that married Henry P. Ostrander around 1866-1868. Getting a copy of Eva May (OSTRANDER) Coziah's death certificate or newspaper obit might disclose her mother's maiden name.

If Ellen died between 1917-1920 do you have a copy of her death certificate? Probably in Lincoln County, Wyoming.

In the 1910 census she states that she and Silas were married around 1880-1881. This exact date would be helpful. If you are doing the temple work for this family let me know and I will let you do it. If not then I will process these family members.

Enclosed are my notes on the family. I am a Family History Consultant in the Bradenton 2nd Ward and have been researching for 35 years. Let me know what other help you may need. Please answer directly to: floydpratt59@tampabay.rr.com

Hi Floyd, it's Marti...I know the most out of anyone left in the family!...I was very close to ALL of my Grand Aunts & Uncles Myrtle,Annie,Lafayette Joseph,Beulah & Dan....I was raised as an only child, so I got alot of attention! As far as Aunt Beulah, she was married about 5-6 times!!...I used to run round with her son Bobby Cross and his wife....She was married last to a guy last name of James...I remember one of husbands died just as soon as they were married! One their honeymoon I think? Anyway, everyone lived up here in Michigan other than Annie and later on Uncle Lafe went down to Florida were he died and my GrMa Pearl died down In Litchfield,Illinois on 8/13/1973

Email sent to Margaret/Marti on 6 June 2010

Marti are you same as Margaret at SmartiMarti716@aol.com? Did you happen to get a listing of those husband's with marriage dates and location? I believe I have one more to add to the list. Floyd

Email from Margaret/Marti on 6 June 2010

Yes I'm The same!...I'd have to ask Bobby Cross, Beaulah's son to get all of her husbands names...The one in Kansas Richard Croos was Bobby's dad..I still have a lot packed up from our move from Livonia,MI to Brighton,MI...My mom isn't doing well (she's dwindling) and I've been ill as well...But the only siblings that had children were Jessie,GrMa Pearl,Beulah. Myrtle,Lafayette,Annie & Daniel didn't. I think that Dan may have had a son but I was so young when he died ??

Email sent to Margaret/Marti on 6 June 2010

Yes Marti if you could contact Bobby Cross for that inforamtion, I believe Beulah married my greatuncle Henry Arthur Pratt. Find out from him any marriage dates or locations. For instance I can't find Beulah in the 1930 census. Did she marry Richard Cross before the 1930 census or after? If my hunch is correct, this will fill in a mystery and tie up a lose end.

I am a professional genealogist and have been researching the families in the Franklin, Crawford and Washington Counties for 35 years...so I do my homework before I make claims and statements. I have many rare research books to consult and I use all of my resources to dig out the details. You should be thankful that I am taking an interest in the Coffman family and allied lines and instead of fighting me on this material you should be assisting me so we both can learn.

I am tackling the Coffmans and Richardson families in honor and respect to my Great Aunt Eula. I loved her dearly and in her latter years after the 1980's she was confined to a wheelchair and could not get around much...but she was a storehouse of family history and knew everything about everyone around Bourbon.

Of course, when your Coffmans moved from Crawford to Michigan, everyone lost track.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

50's. not much was known of him and it wasn't until their marriage record surfaced that it raised quite a few questions. Do you know of anything about their short marriage together? Any stories? We don't know what ended the marriage to Henry Pratt. When did he die and where?

Beulah was born in Steelville, Crawford Co., Missouri and had quite a disrupted childhood. Her mother died when she was just 4 years old and it was up to her father and older siblings to raise her. At the age of 14 she married her first husband in St. Louis, MO and then auto boom hit in detroit during the early 1920's. She moved to detroit with her first husband so that he could find work in the auto factory.

[All born in Missouri except father, Alexander born in Tennessee. Henry's father born in Tennessee as was the parents of Alexander. This is their first marriage and they have been married for 18 years. Henry says he owned his home and was a farmer. Henry could not read or write neither could Alexander. Laura says she has had 7 children born and 7 are living. Alexander is a widower. All children are single. Living a few doors down from John & Susan (WEST) Studdard family. Even though Henry Winslow Pratt says he owned the home in the 1910 census, I could not find the deed recorded in Crawford County deeds. I checked 1881 to 1917 deed records and could not find an entry where Henry Winslow Pratt was grantor or grantee. The home that my aunts and uncles remember between Crows Creek and Brazil Creek (see map) belonged to Columbus Francois Missey, Laura's father. He had entered a deed for 120 acres on 20 April 1889. Either he sold the property to Henry Winslow Pratt and they never filed the deed or the land was given to his daughter and son-in-law as a gift. The deed records need to be searched from 1917 to Laura's death to find out when C. F. Missey sold that land or how it was disposed. -Floyd Thomas Pratt]

1902 Newspaper

THE DEMOCRAT, Steelville, Crawford County, MO, Friday, October 10, 1902

GRADY, INFANT

St. James Journal: "Mister, I believe our baby is dead." These words from a 7-year-old boy startled light operator Martin in the West Plains depot Friday night. He looked through his ticket window and saw in the waiting room a man and six children spending the night in the depot for lack of money to go to a hotel. The operator went out and found a 14-year-old girl holding a dead baby. Hackmen, railroad men and a few people waiting for a train made up a collection and sent the man and his five children to a hotel. The county took charge of the dead child. The man was VanBuren Grady, who was trying to get to relatives in Crawford county from Arkansas. Mrs. Grady died two weeks ago. Mr. Grady was for many years a familiar figure around Bourbon where he lived until about 6 years ago when he went to Shannon county and it seems from there on down to Arkansas.

[The 7 years old boy was probably Lewis Whitfield "Whit" Graddy, the 14 year old girl was probably Celeste or Charity Graddy, unknown who the baby may have been. Evidently there was another child born not listed here because we do not have a child dying in October 1902 in the family records.]

Date from the headstone states she was born 12 January 1907.

Research Note

The death certificate is unclear as to her middle name. Her mother and father said in the census she was MARY S. PRATT. On the death certificate it states MARY CEUTER PRATT. I thought it might be CARTER however if the census taker spelled her initial with

I checked 1881 to 1917 deed records and could not find an entry where Henry Winslow Pratt was grantor or grantee. The home that my aunts and uncles remember between Crows Creek and Brazil Creek (see map) belonged to Columbus Francois Missey, Laura's father. He had entered a deed for 120 acres on 20 April 1889. Either he sold the property to Henry Winslow Pratt and they never filed the deed or the land was given to his daughter and son-in-law as a gift. The deed records need to be searched from 1917 to Laura's death to find out when C. F. Missey sold that land or how it was disposed. -Floyd Thomas Pratt]

1914-1918 Family Move

From Crow's Creek, Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States to Bourbon, Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States. It appears after the death of Winslow, Mary took the family back to Bourbon where in 1918 her daughter Mary died in Bourbon and where Mary listed her residence on the death certificate.

Francois Columbier Columbus "Lum" Misse died in Bourbon, Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States on 26 April 1916.

1914-1916 Postcard

It looks like my Grandmother Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt's writing of the names on the postcard which states..."Mrs. Laura Pratt, Ruth Pratt, Mary Pratt and Arvill Pratt". The other writing says "from Mother to Lum" that looks like Laura's writing and addressed to her son, "Columbus "Lum" Pratt, Patsy, Missouri". This was in the possession of my Aunt Evelin Juanita (MILLER) Pratt, wife of James Henry Pratt and she sent a copy of the picture and postcard to my father with the following note, " This picture was a postal card that Luara Pratt sent to your father. I have copied it for you. In case you wonder, Patsy, Missouri was around Cherry Valley. Don't know what he was doing there unless he was doing a home. Juanita." Lum worked in masonry and was a tie maker. Unknown, if this took place before the death of Henry Winslow Pratt in 1914 or afterwards. I figure the date to be circa 1914-1916 because Ruth looks like she is 10-11, Mary looks like she is 6-7, Orville looks like he is 3-4 years old. Floyd Thomas Pratt, F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

Research Note

Even though the 1940 census states they were living in the same place in 1935, this is incorrect since they were not even married until 1937. The fact that Billy Davis was born in 1935 and they stated he was born in Arkansas contradicts the "same place" issue.

1940-1952 Divorce of Raymond Mounce and Marie Virginia (PARSLEY) Davis Mounce

Research Note

Should be noted that Marie could have had another marriage between Raymond Mounce and Orville Pratt. When I interviewed Marie at a Pratt Family Reunion back in the 1980's, she failed to mention this marriage to Raymond Mounce completely. I am a trained thorough interviewer and would customarily grill these people to obtain vital information about their lives. Because she deliberately omitted this information suggests it was a painful marriage and something she did not want to remember. _

[Seems to be a discrepancy of enormous proportions. When I read their marriage record in 1976, I was new to research and as an untrained observer, I thought I saw her name as Mrs. Other researchers have now reported that the Mrs. was actually Misf which was a double "s" indicating she was a Miss not a Mrs. After viewing the actual record, I must now conclude that it is written as Miss not Mrs. I have found in the census records a Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) in Franklin County, Missouri who was 20 years old. Alexander would have been 53 years old at the time of this marriage and surely the newspapers should have written an article about the discrepancy in age of this marriage. I have not had the time to check the Sullivan, Potosi, Bourbon or Steelville newspapers to verify any such article. After researching the Dugan family, I am convinced Adaline, the 20 year old in the census is the one he married...that would explain her ability to bear two children and dying young, from childbirth complications in 1892.]

1895-1896 Marriage of ??? Pratt and Minnie (PRATT)

In the 1910 census, Minnie (PRATT) Richter states that she has been married twice. Since her son; Roy Thomas Pratt was born 7 September 1896 at Flat River, Saint Francois, Missouri, United States according to his World War I Draft Registration Card, this puts her first marriage at around 1895-1896. However, she may have had Roy out of wedlock and given him her maiden name. Roy's death certificate, when located, may shed some light on the subject as to who his father was.

Anatomy of the Research

After finding Minnie Pratt born 1876 in the 1880 census with her father; Alexander R. Pratt, this is all I had known about her or anyone else when I began my research back in 1976.

Before my great Aunt Eula (RICHARDSON) Pratt died, she told me that Minnie Pratt had married George Richter and moved to St. Louis then on to California where she worked for the Disney Corporation and Walt Disney named Minnie Mouse after her.

Based on that information, my research skills kicked into action and I found a marriage license in Clayton, Saint Louis (county), Missouri naming George Richter and Miss Minnie Pratt.

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

My next research was to check the soundex of 1900, I could not find Minnie Pratt listed as living alone. Alexander, her father is living in Bourbon, Crawford County, Missouri with his sons...but not Minnie. She would have been 24 by the 1900 census.

Checking the 1910 soundex I could not find a George Richter with his wife Minnie any-where in the state.

However, checking the 1920 soundex I found a George Richter family living at 2238 Shenendoah Avenue, Saint Louis (city), Missouri, United States. I am not to sure that the Minnie that married in Clayton in 1906 is my Minnie Pratt.

After close scrutiny and investigation of the 1920 census, there popped up a mystery. Roy Pratt age 23 is listed as George Richter's step-son. There was also a daughter; Estelle age 12, a daughter; Clovie age 9 and a son; Elliott age 3 years and 2 months all with the surname of Pratt. This would mean that Minnie, his wife had been married before. If she was born in 1876, then she could have married at 15 years of age or anytime from 1891 to 1906. That means she could have had a different surname and Pratt was her first husband's surname, or, she was married but changed her name back to Pratt, her maiden name before she married George Richter.

After checking the marriage records for Crawford, Franklin, Washington, St. Louis from 1891 to 1906 for our Minnie Pratt to see if she had married between those dates I found no references.

All this research took place in the 1970's and 1980's. It is now February 2009 and I have finally gotten around to researching this family again. Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

Update

The big break to cracking this family was finding Minnie and George's death certificates and burial locations. The death certificate confirmed her relationship to George Richter and Alexander Pratt, this helped to bridge this family together. However, her first spouse and the father of Roy Thomas Pratt is still a mystery unless I order Roy's death certificate. Floyd Thomas Pratt June 2012.

1908-1909 Personal Move

From Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States to Ishmael, Harmony Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States.

Carac Pratt's son; Orville Carac Pratt Sr. told me the following story:

In 1908-1909, Carac Pratt got into an argument with one of the Stroup boys. The argument turned to a fight and while Carac was preoccupied with the boy he was fighting, a brother of the Stroup boy pulled a knife and stabbed Carac in the back just missing his left lung. Carac was sick for 6 months and recuperated by staying with his sister Fannie Campbell. (Her full name is Frances Minerva "Fannie" (PRATT) who married David McDonald Campbell. After Carac regained his strength back, he found the boy that had stabbed him and hit him in the head with a beer bottle putting the boy in the hospital. Carac fearing retaliation from the Stroup family left Sullivan area and settled in Ishmael, Washington County, Missouri, outside of Potosi. There he cut railroad ties and met his future bride, Olivea Jane (JARVIS).-Floyd Thomas Pratt 1980

Discharged June 1, 1919 at Camp Funston, near Manhattan, Kansas, United States.

[Camp Funston is located on Fort Riley, and is located southwest of Manhattan, Kansas (1865–1917). Camp Funston was one of sixteen Divisional Cantonment Training Camps established at the outbreak of World War I. Construction began during the summer of 1917 and eventually encompassed approximately 1,400 buildings on 2,000 acres. During World War I, nearly 50,000 recruits trained at the camp, commanded by Major General Leonard Wood. Notable units who received training at Camp Funston include the 89th Division, which was deployed to France in the spring of 1918, the 10th Division and black soldiers assigned to the 92nd Division. In March 1918, the first recorded cases of what came to be the world-wide influenza epidemic, also known as "Spanish Flu", were reported at Camp Funston.]

Franklin County, Missouri, United States Deed Record Book , 8 October 1892, page
Warranty Deed: Alexander R. Pratt to Ross M. Crow All of SW¼ of NW¼ part NW¼ of SW¼ S90 T40 R1W

This indenture made on the eighth day of October A.D. one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two by and between Alexander R. Pratt of Washington County, Missouri party of the first part and Ross M. Crow of the County of Washington in the state of Missouri party of the second part, witness that the said party of the first part in consideration of the sum of one thousand dollars to him paid by the said party of the second part the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged and by these presents hereby grant, bargain and sell, convey and confirm unto the said party of the second part his heirs and assigns the following assigned lots, parcels or tracts of land lying and being the county of Washington and in the state of Missouri to wit: All of the south west quarter of the north west quarter [SW¼ of the NW¼] and part of the the north west quarter of the south west quarter [NW¼ of the SW¼] of section ninety [90] township forty [40] range one west [R1W] containing sixty-four [64] acres more or less. To have and to hold the premises aforesaid with all the rights, privileges, appurtenances and immunities that belonging in anyway pertaining unto the said party of the second part and unto his heirs and assigns forever. The said Alexander R. Pratt truly covenants that he is lawfully ??? in of an indefeasable estate in fee in the persons have conveyed that he has good right to convey the same that the said premises are free and clear of any incumbrances no one or suffered by him that makes a claim. And that he will warrant and defend to the said party of the second part of any claims by his heirs and assigns forever against any unlawful claims or all persons whomsoever. In witness that the party of the first part has set his hand and seal this day and year first above written. Alexander R. Pratt his X mark

On this 8th day of October 1892 before me personally appeared Alexander R. Pratt to me known to be the person ascribed in and executed the forgoing instrument and acknowledged that he excuted the same as his free will and deed. Further said Alexander R. Pratt further declares himself to be single and unmarried. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my office seal at my office in Sullivan the day and year first above written. Joseph V. Pits notary public

[This deed declares that Alexander was single as of October 8, 1892. Therefore his wife had died probably from birth complications of her son; Cleveland Pratt who was born in March 1892 and the date of this deed 8 October 1892.]

1893 Father's Property Transaction

Franklin County, Missouri, United States Deed Record Book , 2 September 1893

Quit Claim Deed: Alexander R. Pratt to Ross M. Crow N½ of Lot 2 NW¼ of SW¼ S30 T40 R1W

Alexander R. Pratt sells 80 acres for one thousand dollars to Ross M. Crow. Land is in Washington County, Missouri even though this deed was filed in Franklin County. North half of lot No. 2, north west quarter of the south west quarter section 30 township 40 range one west containing eighty acres.[It appears after the death of Catherine, his second wife, Alexander sold off the old homestead in Hamilton Hollow to Ross Crow. After living the area since 1839 they moved to Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States before the 19 June 1900 census date.]

1893-1900 Family Move

[Alexander was born in Tennessee as was his parents. The rest of the boys were born in Missouri their father in Tennessee and their mother in Missouri. Alexander can not read or write and his farm house is rented. Rinard is the son of Mary (KIMBERLIN) Pratt and Carac and Cleveland are sons of Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) Pratt.]

1910 Death of Cleveland "Cleve" Pratt

Cleveland "Cleve" Pratt died in Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States on 1 October 1910.

[1] Death Date from newspaper article: Sullivan Sentinel Thursday, Oct 6, 1910, page 8, col 4, Algire Section: "Mr. Cleve Pratt was buried at the Hamilton grave yard Sunday evening at about two o'clock."

[Since the date of the article was dated October 6, 1910, which was a Thursday, and it states he was buried on Sunday, which would be the 2nd of October, then he most likely died on October 1, 1910 and was buried the next day. Unknown as to cause of death.]

Research Note

Since his father (Alex)is listed int he household of Cleveland's step-brother; Henry Winslow Pratt in Boone Twp, Crawford County, Missouri on 2 May 1910 census date, I have not been able to ascertain the location of Cleverland in the 1910 census. The Census was in May and Cleveland died in October, so he should have been listed somewhere in the 1910 census. Henry Winslow Pratt was living on Crow's Creek inbetween Greens Branch.

1910 Burial of Cleveland "Cleve" Pratt

Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt and Descendants

Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States
[With written confirmation i.e., the newspaper that Cleveland Pratt was buried in this cemetery, I found no headstone when I examined this cemetery in the early 1980's. He was probably buried next to his mother; Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) Pratt whom died in 1892.

A Little Something About Your Author.....

Floyd Thomas Pratt, F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

At the age of 19, Tom Pratt embarked on a career in law enforcement. This experience gave him training in detective and investigative skills. Little did Mr. Pratt know, how useful these skills would be in the field of genealogy.

Tom Pratt started his family research career in 1975 after becoming a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. His first calling as a new member was to serve in the newly created genealogical department or known today as the Family History Center in the Springfield, Missouri ward. This two-year calling gave Mr. Pratt a tremendous amount of experience helping others to research their families.

In fact, he felt family research came easy and required little effort on his part. In reality, years of reading and studying increased his expertise and he made it look easy to others.

Over the course of several years, Mr. Pratt was asked by his church to instruct several family history courses. This experience established a deep profound love for family and ancestors.

It was not uncommon for Mr. Pratt to spend 4 to 8 hours a day researching and compiling family histories in addition to his duties, as an entrepreneur in the insurance business.

The first major achievement for Mr. Pratt was a breakthrough on his Pratt family back to the early 1800's. Not satisfied with just the direct line research, Mr. Pratt branched out to research all connected lines and allied families.

This dedication led to 42,000 individuals and achieved expert status for Mr. Pratt on the families of middle and eastern Missouri, eastern and western Tennessee and central North Carolina.

Concerning Mr. Pratt's style of research, he is a strong supporter of the "hands on" approach. When he took family vacations, they usually went to libraries, cemeteries, courthouses, National Archive centers, and visited family members in various states. He attended multi-state family reunions and obtained his material from the actual sources when possible.

A Little Something About Your Author.....

Being a researcher of the highest degree, in 1991, Mr. Pratt formed the Pratt Publications Company and offered to the public, a series of books titled, The Pratt Progenitor Papers. This series of volumes are a collection of legal documents, stories, pictures and historical presentations concerning the families of Missouri, Tennessee and North Carolina.

The first three Volumes were released to the public in 1991 and were issued to 18 different libraries including the Library of Congress and the St. Louis Public Library. The next 7 volumes were published with at total of 43 volumes scheduled for publication.

In 1996, Mr. Pratt formed the Genealogical Institute to further the education of serious researchers.

The Genealogical Institute offers a series of educational materials to teach and instruct the uninitiated in the procedures of family history research. These courses offer "a hands on" curriculum designed to instruct in investigative, deductive reasoning and logical procedures for tracking your family history.

Beginners and experienced researchers have found a treasure chest of knowledge when undertaking these courses. Mr. Pratt has taken the hobby of genealogy and has enhanced it into a science. Heavy on instructions concerning documentation, research procedures, alternative sources and common public records, this course is a valuable tool for the researcher. One of Mr. Pratt's favorite sections of the course is teaching researchers "how to stop" researching and compile their information for publication.

Upon completion of the educational courses from the Genealogical Institute, the graduate is awarded the Master Accreditation of the Genealogical Institute. (M.A.G.I.)

This designation is equivalent to a Doctorate Degree and signifies the recipient has been trained and demonstrated superior research techniques.

Mr. Pratt's ability in family history research has amazed many educated researchers. When Mr. Pratt is asked for help concerning their "brick wall" in their family research, his quick wit and logical mind rapid fires instructions and procedures so fast they cannot write the material quickly enough. Little do they realize this knowledge has been acquired over 30 years of experience and research.

In June of 2000, Mr. Pratt undertook a new and unprecedented task.

Outside of Washington, Franklin County, Missouri is an old cemetery called the Johnson-Caldwell Cemetery. This cemetery has many pioneer heroes and ancestors of various descendants from that region. Some of the inhabitants were born in the 1750's and traveled west to Missouri after the 1803 Louisiana Purchase.

A Little Something About Your Author.....

Mr. Pratt took down all the information off the headstones, including every person in the cemetery and researched each individual related or not. 1000 man-hours and two years later, he published the book "Johnson-Caldwell Cemetery of Franklin County, Missouri"© 2001.

Obtaining newspapers, legal documents, personal interviews with ancestors and researching various sources for any and all information concerning the history of the cemetery and the inhabitants produced this master text. What makes this book stand out among the rest is basic content and structure.

First, it is the only book to cover the known and reported inhabitants of an entire cemetery.

Second, this book reports on each inhabitant, their birth and activities throughout their life until their death, including their ancestors, spouses and children.

Third, even the index is unique, listing the individual and their father's name if known. This is extremely helpful when several individuals have the same given name.

Upon examination, professional researchers have hailed this body of work as a masterpiece and a standard in which all future research of cemeteries should be based. In their opinion, no one has ever produced a body of work about a cemetery as unique and professional as this publication.

Currently, Mr. Pratt is working on a series of books from the Pratt Archive Collections, which is a series of biographical publications concerning a progenitor and a generation of descendants. This collection is a "cradle to grave" report, which covers the subject's ancestry, birth, marriage, children, and geographical domiciles as well as the political environment during the subject's lifetime.

In addition, Mr. Pratt is working on additional volumes of the Pratt Progenitor Papers and several books on public records.

With all these accomplishments, Mr. Pratt humbly refers to himself as a Genealogical Anthropologist...resurrecting progenitors.

We in the genealogical world are deeply grateful to be associates of a man of Mr. Pratt's caliber. Through his dedication to helping the novice as well as the professional researcher, future generations will benefit by his advances in the genealogical field.

In addition, we are thankful for the inspiration that sparks men like Mr. Pratt to magnify their love for people and history. We feel, with a lifetime dedicated to the genealogical pursuit of truth and knowledge, Mr. Pratt's accumulative body of work, will stand as a quintessential manifestation of this divine love.

Lewton Cole, Chairman
Genealogical Institute

GENEALOGY ETIQUETTE

1. Do not give copies or reproduce the information you received from the compiler or author without written permission.
2. In your research efforts if you are able to advance the research, then reciprocate by sharing your research information with the compiler.
3. Use the information you receive as a starting point for your research of your families.
4. If you decide to use information you have received, in a book, document or research material, be sure to acknowledge the author or compiler of that material.
5. All inquiries by third parties for a copy of the material should be forwarded to the original compiler or author.
6. Do not loan or share your information, family heirlooms, special documents, one of a kind, pictures, or irreplaceable materials to non-professional researchers or family members. These types of materials seen to disappear or become damaged.
7. Make copies of important documents or materials when at libraries and be sure to write the name of the book, source, letter or film with the author's name and page number and year of publication.
8. Genealogy work that is not documented is of little value. Remember, you are leaving a trail for those who follow. If future researchers have to verify your work, then of what value is your work?
9. Collect family stories from those relatives who are still alive. This is a short cut to your past and they hold a world of knowledge about your family.
10. Do not try to finance all your research alone. Ask for financial assistance from interested family members.

Remember, the family history information that is so easily exchanged today by computer was acquired over years and years of on-site research. While many were engaged in raising families, working for income, and surviving, genealogist researchers did these things AND spent their free time in pursuit of the truth about their ancestors. This pursuit required great sacrifice of time, effort and money. Many researchers went to the actual locations to view the marriage, deed, death and birth records including visiting the cemeteries across the United States and foreign countries. This is why it is important to follow the above guidelines; by doing so, you give respect to their work and honor to their memory. Thank You.
